TRP talks 95% in the mindset of america. America have different rules than EU. Example: divorce and childsupport is different.

I want to discuss what you think is different in EU compared to america. And what works better in EU.

In my experience nobody talks about feminism in my country.

I also see that american people is easier to talk to but you cant go deep.

With the people of my country it is harder to win someone trust, but when you have it you can talk about deep stuff immediately.

Sydney, Australia

Limekill · 31 January 2015 · Archived copy · Reddit

Welcome to Sydney, Australia, stow your tray tables and prepare to enter a world where the Red Pill must be truly hidden from sight! We are kind of like a mix between Toronto and Sweden so you know we are going to be A+ to find the girls of your dreams (as long as you realise they can't cook!). Also as pioneers of free speech we cancelled a PUA visa :/ ().

Articles on the Sydney dating scene:

Why Sydney Sucks for Men - <http://www.returnofkings.com/22732/9-reasons-why-sydney-sucks-for-men>

I guess the main issues is that there is a pretty bluepill mentality and female entitlement is big here and follows the 80/20 rule (until they need the betabux). As can be seen here

Pros/Cons:

- Pro - Surf, Beaches, Tourist Stuff (Harbour Bridge, Opera House, Darling Harbour, etc), Very Safe in the day (your chance of getting kidnapped is practically zero).
- Cons - EXPENSIVE, ENTITLED Women, Blue Pill Aggression! (especially late at night due to the high level of Alcohol consumption), Rent prices are per -week- and insane. Can be cold during winter (lots of grey sky - come in Summer!).

Types of Women:

- International Girls - These are girls who have come, usually for education and they are usually Asian Or are backpacking (then from Europe/UK). Usually DTF and want to experience all that Australia offers (inc. it's cocks). Be good looking and fun is the game here. Take them to beach, etc. Great if you can give them surf lessons. Meet these girls around backpackers, etc.
- Asian Local Girls - More feminine than their Aussie counterpart. Also usually have some skills like cooking, etc. Usually high level of education. They also tend to dress some what frumpy which is a bit of a turn-off. Usually more LTR material. Raise your SMV and get her to do kinky shit. Will want you to meet their friends, parents, etc but are scared to lose you, so shit test are lighter. For LTR expect you to earn bank (as they do).
- Local Aussie Girls - Zero family skills (can't cook - unless they have taken it up as a hobby), trying to find beta bux by the time they are 30. Usually high level of aggression in getting what they want (whether its fucking that Alpha or fucking over that girl who looked at her wrong). Drinking is big and can meet them at the local pub or at a mates backyard BBQ. ENTITLEMENT IS HUGE!!!! But they fuck up big time and only can get BetaBux. They are flaky and a pain in the ass to deal with. Big shit tests, as they are all 'independent woman'. And these days can earn Bank, so being a 'rich' guy won't help you out a huge amount (unless you really are rich). Also dumber than a box of rocks, just focus on fun, alcohol and no big words with these girls (don't tell them your a biochemist - tell them you are a mad scientist).
- Surf/Gym Girls - Usually hang with either surfers or gym guys. Then they realise they are not rich and so stop going out with Mr 6 pack abs and start going out with accountant. Beach girls tend to have blonde hair and usually pretty snobby (and usually a bit thick too). Also can be racist.
- Rich Aussie Girls - Very quickly these girls realise their value and are setup early in life to bang 9-10s. Only date within their social circle, occasionally DTF exotics (i.e. gym guys (abs), or black guys) but usually will hide it from their social circle. This group is probably a lot more careful as a girls value can fall big time if the social group rejects her. Most likely to see these girls in private venues, private parties and private boats on the harbour. These girls have ZERO skills outside arm candy, but they are very good at being arm candy and will have your back in a knife fight -IF- her father was self made (as long as you stay rich). Read stories about this group in the Game, etc. Usually a LOT of shit tests but can be very loyal (as their private school teaches this hardcore). This group though is losing it good points due to social media, etc.

- Bogan Girls - Usually like to do every type of drug under the sun. Usually live in housing commission. Expect the Government to give them money. I have never bothered. Easiest way would be to share drugs.

Most women are ultra feminists, so no red pill stuff when doing social friends stuff. Also they are usually dumber than a box of rocks, they will have no clue what you do and tend to be interested in stuff their exBF was interested in. Usually you hear replies like "Music" or "Dancing" when asking them what do they like to do.

Going Out

Going out is EXPENSIVE here.... You can regularly blow $80 for a shitty night and thats pretty normal. Beers are like $5-$12 in a nightclub and $4-$7 in a pub. Cocktails for the girls are $$$ ($12-$20). Cover-charges range from $0-$30.

Meals in pubs can be $10 for a steak and usually the food is pretty good, also good food is usually pretty reasonable. In Sydney there are the famous spots and clubs -

- King Cross - Stripper central , but an okay area.
- Ivy is the big famous nightclub - Snobby girls, but its our biggest nightclub so worth a look.
- Darling Harbour - Tourists, lots and lots of tourists - easy to meet international girls.
- The Rocks - good for backpackers.

Germany is going down

Kugelglasgestaler · 21 January 2016 · Archived copy · Reddit

(Sadly I cant post this on the front page. It is automatically deleted. So I post it here. I wish you a nice day.
Kugelglasmacher)

Hello everyone,

today Im coming to you with a message. It will be written in history books, teached in schools and talked about for over 100 years from now.

„Germany is going down.“

Since a little kid, growing up as a half-migrant, with a german mother and a serbian father, I felt mostly safe and at home in this country. Sure, I had my problems and growing up wasnt always easy (like for many others too) and also there were some scandals and wrong acts happening from time to time in this country.

Specially in a country like germany, on the front everything looks perfect. But deep down there are happening some really horrifying things.

But mostly... I felt safe. And so did many others.

Because Im a half serbian guy, „Family“ was and is one of the most important aspects in my life. I would get myself killed to see my siblings and other relatives safe and without damage. My culture demands it and I demand it from myself.

And so I come to ask myself: „What am I supposed to do?“ „Should I concentrate on my career and just ignore the actual happenings and act as if nothing ever happend or should I actively start a revolution and go boderline criminal myself? To fulfill my "nature given destiny as a protector and creator"?"

„We are the generation of revolutionists in waiting.“

Its only after that I played almost every possible scenario and opportunity through in my head, that I understand that right now the only solution for a normal man, who isnt nuts crazy with nothing to lose and who doesnt want to leave this country, is to just be alert and ready.

- Stay calm and focused.

- Observe the observerable.
- Research news and rumors in detail and never stop doing so.
- Build your own objectiv, rational opinion.
- Forget about being an active influence on politics. Its a waste of time and nerves. If you should happen to influence politics on a drastic level, it will just happen as a symptom of you, with eyes wide open, being ready and prepared and acting when the time calls for it.
- Give advice about self protection to everyone you now and your female relatives at least a pepper-spray and small knife. (Weapons must stay legal or borderline-legal. You dont want to put them in trouble with the law)
- When violence is about to happen - go in full force. Dont hesitate. Shut off every emotion there is. Act as if this was about your life. Go with the adrenalin. Dont fight it. Accept it. You will feel jittery and anxious. Thats normal. Breath. Control it. Thats your body telling you, that you are ready to fight.
- Make sure you find some male relatives who are on the same level as you and trustable, in case the shit hits the fan.
- And dont go Nazi. There are good migrants left.

„Civilization comes at an cost of good, productive vilolence, which creates and protects civilization.“

It may only look like there are no good, pro-violence men which are not Nazi, left in germany. But this isnt true. We are here. We are prepared with everything we have, to make a statement. To face violence with violence and become criminals ourselves, in ordert to protect german culture (even if we are not typical german) and everyone living here. Be it women, children or brothers.

Let me tell you something... Our eyes are open.

We are here, and we are growing with every „accident“ that is happening.

Brothers of germany and europe, keep your identiy. Keep your spirit. Protect your family and culture. And while doing so, dont forget to stay human. Choose your enemy wisley and with caution.

„Germany is going down.“ - ... Various things are happening at the moment in politics. Many of which are a good thing. But even if politics will be able to find a sustainable solution for all of this, there will still be a need for normal men who are willing to face potential enemys in every-day-life, so that bad men understand, that they started fucking with the wrong guys.

Like an old serbian military general once said:

Du bist nicht alleine - auf Wiedersehen!

Ti si nije sam - vidimo se!

You are not alone - See you!

tl;dr One oft the few places in the Internet I know, where I can post this, without feeling in the wrong place.
/ Speech about the actual situation in Germany 2016.

PS: A little nice music-video I found and a selfmade poem. I hope you will like it. Have a nice day and stay safe.

THE MAMMOTH

This is the moment you have been waiting for your whole life.

The moment you have been created for, the Mammoths knocking on your door.

Neither fear nor hesitation.

Be free of angst and be prepared, to make thyself be ready to be compared.

For the time that you can prove the world that you are free, of boundaries and fees.

Prove thyself to the world that you are man.

By giving away your life to something greater - So you will not fall down and me neither.

This ist the Mammoth.

Embrace it.

We are free.

You - and me.

North Bay & Sudbury, Ontario, Canada

RedPill · 11 January 2015 · Archived copy · Reddit

Sudbury: Mostly low-class city of ~250k. Cold approach at clubs is easy if you're a 6+, but to be honest most girls here are easy and seem to be used to low quality men. If you want a sure thing, use social proof and dress up. The girls here like to think they're 'classy' so looking the part will allow her to rationalize being a slut that night. Note: I am talking about the 19-30 crowd. ALSO: Wear a condom, [chlamydia is bad here.]

(<http://www.cbc.ca/news/canada/sudbury/sudbury-health-unit-targets-rising-chlamydia-infections-1.1330574>)

North Bay: Small college/university town of ~55,000. A few hours away from Sudbury. The town's economy is almost entirely based around students, which is awesome. Girls come to school here from all over Ontario and Quebec. The college and university are attached into one giant campus, and at the university I went to (Nippissing U) the girl-to-guy ratio was 7:1 back in 2013.

I love this town. It's small, condensed, full of young people and has so many sexy 8-9 university girls. From my experience the girls here are easy - especially if you're partying at residence or downtown at the clubs/bars (which are all on the same street, 30 second walk from one to another.) I lived here from 2011-2013 (I was 18-20) - this was pre-TRP and I was very BP but still managed to get a typical college experience.

Tips: Residence is full of thirsty 'it's college lets get wild!' girls. Don't miss the events at The Wall (bar attached to the college and university) - they're tons of fun. Don't park & spark near the airport - they will send the military to scare you off. Wear a condom, A LOT of girls get preggo here in October after school starts.

Having lived in Ontario my entire life, I would say North Bay is the next best thing to living in Ottawa or Montreal. If you're nearby and looking for somewhere to go to school, this is the place.

Victoria, British Columbia, Canada

[deleted] · 8 January 2015 · Archived copy · Reddit

I've lived here for 25 years. There is always a rumoured high ratio of women to men. Most of the ladies at establishments aren't very warming. But cold approaches in areas that aren't a bar or a nightclub are wonderful in this little town. Most of the people that live here are white (in comparison to Vancouver for example.)

It can tend to be a little fish bowl (Victoria's population isn't huge). I'd like to give the locations that tend to be more favourable for pickup for others but I haven't stopped using them yet.

I'm spending one month in a place reportedly with some of the hottest and most naturally redpill women in the world: Medellín, Colombia. Looking to stock up on RP advice before I go.

rockymountainoysters · 15 February 2015 · Archived copy · Reddit

My bio:

36/m, never married

Lift?: Only recently started, not bulky at all yet

Sexual history: Very little activity but not a virgin. I seldom date here at home in the US.

Fat?: 32" waist, 5'11" 205lbs.

Ethnic?: I'm white, but speak advanced-level Spanish

Income?: own my own home and have a small rental condo, on my way to financial independence but still work a 9-5 job and still paying off credit card debt. No college degree or student loan debt, so doing a lot better than many my age.

What advice would you give? If this was you going on this trip instead of me, what would your goals be to take the most advantage of the limited time?

My main goal is to gain experience with non-US women and see what they're like. This should help me explore what my own tastes are and whether I'd be happy living in such a place once my finances might permit someday soon. I'm not opposed to marrying a Colombian woman as long as we both stay there in Colombia, with its single-digit divorce rate and strong societal stigma on women who divorce. However, I've been well-warned that many women down there especially (AWALT) will want to take advantage of a gringo man's finances. So marriage seems only a dim likelihood ever.

Local Skirt Index

[deleted] · 7 February 2017 · Archived copy · Reddit

Male to female ratios are an insufficient measure if we want to seek out and reward feminine behavior and in doing so save our global culture from the misery of agendered asexuality. I think we can all agree that we want a feminine woman or girl and not a man with a vagina.

The easiest way to guess at femininity from a distance is attire. A girl that seeks out and wears girly clothes is a girly girl for sure. As such, I propose a new way to measure a city's masculine livability:

The Local Skirt Index

The method is simple. For the next hundred females (all ages, this is a measure of femininity and not attractiveness) that you see, make a note if they're wearing classic feminine attire or just adapted male workwear. When you reach 100, tally them up and that's your city's LSI. I'm in Chicago, and my LSI is 13% feminine.

For a city you're considering moving to, you can do the same thing (maybe increase sample size) from pictures of street crowds.

Vancouver is terrible

NeinAmusedMonkey · 26 November 2015 · Archived copy · Reddit

When my dad moved here thirty years ago he realized within a few days how terrible it was socially.

Normally guys will see you hitting on a girl or dancing with her and help you out and be like "Oh yeah ____ is a gem." "He's the realest in the game."

But not in Vancouver.

In Vancouver you will be lucky if a girl lets you hook up with them at a party. If you have anything bad on your reputation, forget hooking up with better than 6/10 girls. It's all reputation here. And that's difficult because people talk shit so much.

Not to mention Vancouver girls are usually pretty plain looking and the above average ones (5.5-7.5) think they're 9s. Thirsty guys that hook up with the fat sluts don't help this either.

Seriously fuck this place. As soon as I can I'm getting out of here. Not enjoyable at all. The only good thing about Vancouver are the cool clubs you can go to and meet guys at like Origins Parkour or working out down on Kits Beach.

Introduction - Welcome to GEOTRP

redpillschool · 8 January 2015 · Archived copy · Reddit

Something I've been very interested in is collecting a compilation of the geographical analysis of local sexual markets, and gaming strategies. The fact is, some game tips work better than others in different places. Some cities and states have different ratios of men to women. Some places have women easier to game, others have women looking to settle down. Still, others have women impossible to game.

I want to map out the world, country by country, state by state, city by city what the local sexual markets look like, what the best strategies are, and where the best places to go for them might be.

I'd love for everybody to join us at /r/GEOTRP[7] to add your information, your personal experiences in certain locales, and any census information you can dig up about age groups/gender ratios that you can so we can build a comprehensive map.

Please subscribe and help us build a comprehensive map of the globe.

[USA][Atlantic][Massachusetts][Boston]

TheGingerPill · 12 January 2015 · Archived copy · Reddit

World-class colleges spawn the most hipster of communities and campus with a good slew of internationals and rather frivolous New Englanders. Boston is the birthplace of the American Revolution as well as being a heavily liberal/democratic leaning city. The bars close down at 2AM, which cuts down majorly of the nightlife scene, however there are plenty of venues to choose from in the area for gaming, from Cambridge to Brighton and from Quincy to Downtown. Gaming can bring about a high reward, but the risk may have a higher DEFCON level than it appears.

Stats:

- Population of 656,000, slightly higher female pop.
- Greater Boston contains 4.5 million people (incl. parts of NH & RI)
- Boston Proper diversity: 53% white, 27% black, 19% Latino, 9% Asian
- Cost of living: definitely too much
- Liberals/SJW: Almost everywhere you turn

I would like discussion to revolve around:

- Gaming at the dive bars (worst) and the best venues
- Day game at campuses/squares
- Cheap living (housing/gym membership/food/going out/employment)
- Dealing with provocative SJWs

Location, race, and game in North America. Should some regions/places be avoided by guys if they happen to be a particular race?

Thelaterbloomerstory · 12 January 2015 · Archived copy · Reddit

I have noticed that based on race alone, some guys can have dramatically good results in one area but do poorly in others. A main example I have noticed is that some cities like Toronto and San Francisco are awful for Asian and Indian men regardless of what their SMV is. Women of their races have a strict preference for white guys and despite the liberal reputation of those places, white women there are not quite as open to dating interracial (if they are it is only with black guys). Some of the black guys I talk to have said that they find it very easy to get high quality girls in places like Minneapolis and Milwaukee where a lot of the girls are only raised around whites but happen to have a major curiosity for black men.

California seems to be heaven for black guys who want to go interracial but hell for asian and indian men.

What I am asking is this, should some regions of the USA be avoided by guys of certain races regardless of what their SMV might be? I seem to get the impression that Toronto and San Francisco are practically hell for Asian and Indian men because on one hand, white women there would rather go lesbian than date one and on the other hand women of their own race tend to go interracial at higher rates in those areas.

[Montreal, Canada] Liberated French Putes

helptrp · 19 April 2016 · Archived copy · Reddit

All right so it's pretty common knowledge that french-canadian girls are really wild and out there. Good for us, bad for the people who want relationships.

I really don't see much feminism here but it's still very much present.

I think what separates Montreal from the rest of Canada and the US is obviously the french culture.

Here it is normal for girls to start smoking cigarettes, get tattoos and smoke marijuana and drink at about the age of 15-16. The parents are mostly horrible cigarette smokers who drink beer and collect welfare.

It is no surprise that girls have sex 2 years earlier than their American counterparts.

I don't mean to stereotype hahaha but we definitely definitely have better quality women than Toronto hahaha

Here Roosh talks about his lackluster experience in Montreal but definitely notes the drop in quality female when compared to Toronno.

Montreal has been proclaimed the 'sin city' of Canada for many years, attracting American tourists for the strip clubs in the middle of downtown where you can touch.

But apparently Montreal isn't even one of the most promiscuous cities in Canada. It is probably an appearance of such because of the openness of sexuality in young girls.

Toronto, ON: 79 per cent

Victoria, BC: 76 per cent

Gatineau, QC: 73 per cent

Surrey, BC: 70 per cent

Edmonton, AB: 71 per cent

Ottawa, ON: 69 per cent

London, ON: 65 per cent

Montreal, QC: 64 per cent

Vancouver, BC: 63 per cent

Quebec City, QC: 62 per cent

So where does this leave us? Well applying RP knowledge is so easy here if you're not dealing with girls who read Reddit.

Almost any girl that reads Reddit has some knowledge of how PUA work, and will catch on to this, requiring a little more authenticity on our part. Especially when arguing with "alternative" girls about double-standards regarding sexual promiscuity.

Here girls know their arguments and if you come up with any facts or knowledge regarding men's rights or anti-feminism then you are outed as a male chauvinist. It is better (in my experience) to act ignorant of all these facts and knowledge that will put a feminist in her place. It is best to simply ask questions acting out of ignorance but with an agenda in mind.

So as long as you're dealing with blonde west-island girls or Italian clubsluts RP game is definitely gonna work, but if you head to Madhatters or Foufs then you are probably in for a bad time because these girls know their shit. Trust me I've tried, these alternative girls with the tattoos and purple hair are kind of sexy in a way, but they are complicated because THEY WILL catch on to RP game methods, somehow. Don't ask me how they know.

Anyways, prostitution here is so rampant it's almost legal. There is a lot of crime in this city, everywhere from political corruption to drugs on the street but that's what makes Montreal such a beautiful chaos. The contrast of the mollyheads at Stereo with the beggar asking for crack money. The old architecture coupled with the modern Asianly owned new "sold out" condos. The old Grey Nuns Monastery occupied by horny Concordia tinderhoes.

It's great here, plus there are all kinds of different races. White, Latina, Asian, Arab, Black, Magenta and the mixes. Wow the mixes here are crazy, Blasian, Blatina, Lasian, I could go on forever.

Downtown, there are so many chicks that they understand that they aren't the hottest, so they are nicer in that aspect unlike Vancouver.

Fashion here is big, pretty gay if you ask me seeing guys walking around like their on the cover of GQ or someshit but girls definitely want a guy who is somewhat put together because they do put a lot of effort here in Montreal these chicks.

Also, their slutty french putes, gotta love them I don't know what else to add.

[Pattaya, Thailand] Discuss Thailand. Red Pill take on current state of Pattaya. Contrast 2018 with 2015 post.

Found this helpful website of expat findings from comments in TRP post.

2018, the infiltration of smartphones, attention-whoring, and lying women:

2015, Pattaya as fantastic getaway, both to cold-approach russian tourists and to partake in local businesses:

<https://www.stickmanbangkok.com/readers-submissions/2015/05/mgtow-the-western-world-and-the-escapists-paradise/>

I'd like to hear what people think of Thailand currently. For sex tourism, normal tourism, temporary residency, and permanent residency. Did things really change over 3 years, or is this merely the disillusionment that over-familiarity brings?

Edit: A coworker told me about Thailand as a great place where men (especially Western citizens) are valued and the women have way more comfort tests than shit tests. I generally don't trust that he knows what he's talking about, so I'm curious: has feminism ruined Thailand yet?

South America/Costa Rica/All

RedpilledChris · 17 August 2018 · Archived copy · Reddit

DISCLAIMER: None of this will apply if you are foreigner. Especially if you are a white European-looking foreigner. I just want to give you guys an actual representation of Costa Rica's sexual marketplace and see if any other Redpillers from deeply religious countries report the same thing.

TL; DR: Costa Rica is one of the most gynocentric countries in the world. Most women (even ugly women) expect and are treated as "Queens" and "Princesses" their entire life by Bluepilled Beta-Bucks husbands and boyfriends. Everyone is always in a LTR and most women will cheat/branch swing so there's rarely a good looking women out there that is single.

First things first. Costa Rica has a lot of beautiful women - but it really depends on what you like. Local women here are rather chubby by nature (Ticas fatter than most countries and the ones that are not are heavily pursued.

Now, you may like semi-chubby latina women (a lot of gringos do) but if you are not into it, you are for a rough time here.

Here is the main problem with being Redpilled in a country like Costa Rica: No one else is. The culture is absolutely gynocentric. Boys are taught to treat women like "Reinas" and "Princesas". Unless you are from a low socio-economic environment where "machismo" still reigns, women here demand to be wooed their entire life (even after marriage).

It's normal for ugly women to have decent looking and faithful husbands. It is normal for fat and very fat girls to have boyfriends. Girls that otherwise would be a 5 are treated as 8's by dozens of orbiters. It is customary for good looking /fit girls to have their pick of the litter anytime they want to exit a relationship so they are never single.

That brings to the second problem: NO ONE IS EVER SINGLE! This is a small town right? Most people here get married before 30 and pop up kids before 35. It is normal for couples to be together since high-school or throughout college before getting married. By 25 your all your male and female friends are living couple-life and party is mostly over.

There's NO HOOK UP CULTURE here. Yes, Tinder has helped and I am still successfully spinning plates here and there but it's really hard.

That links to the third problem: Because of insecurity and criminal activity girls don't trust strangers. They'll NEVER give you their number. They'll rarely accept a cold approach and if they do their friends (both, cock blocking male friends and their female friends) will come to "rescue her". I can count with my fingers the one or two times I've successfully cold approached a tica, while I've lost count how many success approaches I've done in Europe/America or with tourists here.

The way ticos date and hook up is by being in the same environment for a long while - for example work, school, church -. Most people will get married with a co-worker or former classmate. Sometimes being friend of a friend would do... but those occasions are rare.

Now I know a lot of you think SouthAmerica is easy. The "good old times" are still alive here. Well I can assure is the other way around. Women here are so entitled you wouldn't believe it.

Anyway - that's for me. Hope this gives a good vision on what it is to be redpilled here.

Cheers

[Midwest][Fort Wayne][Indiana][United States]

BPBetamaxFruitcake · 9 January 2015 · Archived copy · Reddit

Been gaming and spinning plates here for the past two years. Here's the objective data.

Population: ~250,000 in the city, ~355,000 in the county which is about a 20 mile radius.

51.3% female, odds slightly in favor.

26.1% of the population has a bachelor's degree or better, third highest in the state.

Age of consent: 16. A man can have sex with a 16 year old girl no matter his age, as long as she isn't under the influence of alcohol or drugs at the time.

- Sexual market advantages:

Diversity. In a 20 mile radius, you can find at least a seven of every different culture.

On a side note, if you like fucking Burmese chicks, this city has the highest Burmese population per capita in the US for some reason.

Low cost of living. I live in the center of the city, surrounded by bars and clubs, and my bills are less than 600 a month, not including gas or food. This makes for good logistics, at least seven bars are within a 10 minute walk.

- Sexual market disadvantages:

Flight. As soon as a 9 or 10 turns 18 here, they leave for greener pastures to ride the CC, usually Indianapolis, sometimes Chicago, and if they're really hot they go to the standard places, Miami, New York and LA. This is a problem in the Midwest, if a top-tier female can manage to avoid getting pregnant before 18, they leave. This means that it can be tough finding plates that you're highly attracted to, and if you find one there's a very good chance she's a single mother. One way to circumvent this is to befriend younger guys in high school and have them introduce you to their high school girlfriends. Gaming girls in high school is easy, but you have to be ready for the social backlash so be careful.

Feminists/SJW's. In the heart of the city where I do most of my hunting, you'll find a large hipster/art culture with SJW leanings. Most of us consider this a bad thing, but I've always found it easy to lay women of this demographic, it seems like the more they complain about men being dicks, the easier they fall for someone who has a strong frame and strong eye contact. Remember, feminism is just a big shit test, especially here.

- Approach tactics

Standard approach works well. Standard approach to me means walking up to a group and introducing yourself, very basic. Mystery's old approach style of game works great. (Approach in three seconds, body language facing away, run opener, drop time constraint, etc.) This is not a market with heavy competition or women who are high value, lots of 7's and 8's, adjust your game accordingly. They don't need to be challenged immediately like 9's and 10's do, as long as you're in decent shape, you hold eye contact and you're sexually aggressive, you're in the top 20% of men.

To sum it all up, living here and gaming is low risk, low reward. If you want super-hot plates, go to a larger city. Not a bad place if you're looking to find an LTR and raise kids.

I got banned from r/suicidewatch for talking about this. Im suicidal because im a disgusting slut.

I got banned from r/suicidewatch for talking about this.

Im suicidal because im a disgusting dirty and gross whore. Im only aroused sexually by beautiful men. No matter where I talk about this I get banned or silenced because its that pathetic and gross. My last post got removed by a moderator and I was told I didnt seem suicidal enough. Im a cutter and i one time have to have 100 stitches at the hospital in my left arm. For anyone who doesnt think im suicidal enough or serious i have razors i can take pictures of to prove that i am. You are welcome to message me about it.

For context here's a bit about why ive been getting banned:

I've been reading a lot on reddit about dating & attraction lately. A lot of men keep telling me that most women are able to be aroused by ugly men so long as those men say & do the right things. I am not this way though. I just like beauty. My question is: is this how most women are?

Ive been trying to talk about this on various subreddits and getting banned.

The first subreddit I tried talking about my love of beauty on was r/cuckoldpsychology and got banned.

Then I tried posting about it on r/purplepilldebate and also got banned.

When asked why I was banned they cited a comment of mine where I'm talking about good looks being a key component to attraction. I got banned for it then muted when trying to talk about it with mods. Do mods hate female sexuality??? Here's my conversation with the mods, as well as the comment that I made:

<https://m.imgur.com/8SLxF6f>

So that brings me to my question: are most women like me and they get aroused by beauty?

I always just considered this a part of my sexuality? Is it wrong or dirty?

Do women hate other women for their sexuality? I ask because I got banned from r/askwomen for asking about my sexuality & if it was normal for women to love beauty. I was told that it was not an appropriate question. When I asked if it was appropriate to talk about sex I was muted.

Here's my conversation with the moderator.

[USA][Mid-Atlantic] Richmond, Virginia

GeoTRPthrowaway · 22 January 2015 · Archived copy · Reddit

I've lived in Richmond for the past decade or so. Loads of young college grads from all over the USA move here each year to work at one of the big banks in town (Capital One is the largest private employer) or for state government/government contractor jobs. Female to male ratio is high. Virginia Tech, JMU, VCU and the University of Richmond have a lot of young alumni in town.

If you like white girls (typical ex-sorority girl type) you can find them galore at bars in the "Fan" neighborhood, which is just west of downtown. F.W. Sullivan's and Social 52, both on Main Street, and Balliceaux on Lombardy Street, are some of the popular hotspots for this crowd. The Fan is a dense residential area so the bars here are all pretty small and have a "neighborhood" vibe to them.

Shockoe Bottom, on the east end of downtown, is where the larger bars and clubs are. The crowd is much more racially mixed here, with some top shelf Black and Asian girls - Tobacco Company, Off the Hookah and Kai are some good spots.

There are also several breweries in Richmond with on-site consumption. Hardywood Brewery usually has a bunch of food trucks in their parking lot on Saturday afternoons that draw huge crowds. Legend, Strangeways and Ardent are some other decent breweries.

Daygame is tough here since Richmond is a very car-dependent town. VCU campus is probably the easiest place to daygame if you are into college girls. The college is right downtown and not really separated from the rest of the city.

Central Europe/EU/Slovakia: Matriarchy???

[deleted] · 8 June 2015 · Archived copy · Reddit

I am from Slovakia and my opinion is that I am living in matriarchal society (if I am comparing Slovakia with other countries, mostly with Asian countries). And TRP is working in Slovakia. Also my country is the best example of "All Women Are Like That"!!!! Many girls are feminist here.

And why I am thinking that Slovakia is like "matriarchal society"? Because you can meet a girl and she is not AWALT, she is something like a "hyper matriarchal women" and those girls don't care about your social status (or how big salary, how many cars, houses you have). Those matriarchal girls (very often very beautiful), if they have enough resources by herself, they are not AWALT in so strictly way - if any. They are in relationship with alphas or betas which don't have much resources anyway. They choose males for good sex and relationship and future family. But if they don't have resources they are AWALT anyway. :-) So, meet this kind of women is rare because not every women can have so successful career and best job...

- Do you think that "hyper matriarchal women" is just HyperAWALT? >>> Or it can be another (new) type of women?
- How it is with matriarchy in your country? I see really many families in Slovakia where mother heads the family; and not father. The same in non-married relationships. I mean not every relationship is like that, but just so much higher percentage as what I see in other countries.... <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Matriarchy>

Best women for a family?

[deleted] · 17 June 2015 · Archived copy · Reddit

There's no way I'd take the risk with an American woman. I was born in Russia, but left when I was a kid. What kind of women do you think are the best homemakers that fit with alpha personalities, I want kids and a woman that can raise them just as well as me? I have a really high SMV, so I'm trying to be extra careful, and I'm only 21.

I'll be leaving to find a wife in two years-three years, (will sign prenuptial before marriage of course. With American women I'm only interested in them for sex, unless they are conservative.

Washington DC: where the illusion of power becomes status.

[deleted] · 8 January 2015 · Archived copy · Reddit

I've lived near DC most of my life. Thankfully, I'm far enough away that I can avoid the stink of dating in this city and still have plenty of options. The good news first, ladies are proud to embrace the CC until they decide they need to cash in what's left of their chips for beta bux. Anyone used to datibg American women know what to expect in this respect. The bad news is how they assign value and the nuclear shit tests. In DC, to have SMV means to hold power over others in some way, shape or form. Success is measured by the number of tax dollars you are responsible for spending. All of the young people are making good enough money, but never enough to differentiate. Everyone is making 50k in their 20s and 150k in their 50s, so there is little to be gained for monetary successes. $90k at 25 as a contractor is doable, but not enough to make up for a guy making $50k who can say he's coordinating some nationwide effort with hundreds of teachers and millions of taxpayer dollars. That's the way things go. The other thing of course, is with 90% of the women, being outwardly critical of progressivism is a nuclear shit test failure. That's at least by my judgment when you see a girl deflate when you say "oh, outrage of the day really doesn't bother me". It sucks but it's better than pretending to tow the line. Finally, just beware the entitlement is sky high. You're just there as icing on the cake walk that is their life. Let me know about your experiences here.

for instance, how about another set of truck Balls to hang from the first 1?

I have also considered purchasing a necktie that reads "I HATE FEMANIST"

[Brussels, Belgium] Why is no woman looking at me?

thefks · 15 June 2017 · Archived copy · Reddit

I am an Italian guy and I am doing my master degree in Brussels. I know from experience that I should be a decently attractive man and probably more than that - whatever the case, I get a lot of looks in the south, from harmless exchanges of smiles and glances to more flirtatious staring. It happens consistently and often.

I have spent twelve months here now and I get almost NO looks at all. I am starting to trip out and my confidence plays in I am pretty sure but still...No matter how low my inner game is in the south I never experience such dry behavior from females towards me. Is this a Belgian/North thing? Am I doing something wrong?

TLDR: Moved to Belgium for masters, been getting almost zero looks and attention from girls for a year contrary to plenty of attention in the south. Is it my mediterranean look? Is it Belgium? Is it the North?

P.S. I am not extremely dark skinned or anything(so as to be really alien for them I guess?), my complexity, my facial hair and even my eye color is like this
