ABOUT THIS ARCHIVE

The 1,000 most upvoted posts from /r/MGTOW, as held by TheRedArchive.

About /r/MGTOW. A community for men going their own way by forging their own identities and paths to self-defined success; cutting through collective ideas of what a man is. TheRedArchive has archived 326,933 of its posts, collected since June 2011 and still growing.

About TheRedArchive. TheRedArchive is a free, public archive of the Red Pill community, built so that none of this writing can quietly disappear. It holds 1,686,426 posts and 38,841,813 comments from 45 subreddits and 56 blogs. Much of it survives nowhere else — the accounts deleted, the subreddits banned, the websites long offline. All of it is free to read, search and download, and always will be, at www.TheRedArchive.com.

Support the mission. This Red Pill archive is free — no paywall, no account — but keeping it online isn't. I pay for the servers, the storage and the bandwidth myself, so that this valuable knowledge stays online. I caught my wife cheating by coming home early. I filmed it while they were sleeping in my bed. During that time I put it on a burned CD on my computer. I called my Attorney and forward a copy. Took a chill pill at a happy hour to gather myself and promised my Attorney that I wouldn't do nothing to her. Played normal for 3 days. Attorney filed the DIVORCE papers and I put a deposit on a apartment. Put stoppage on credit cards, utilities, cable, her cell phone. Sent a CD copies to her family because we have a 2 yr son. Sent flowers to her job to serve her court papers. Imagine telling her co-workers. because she was in shock.
I WON. She had to pay me child support for 16 years. That fellas....a pimp move.
The aftermath was having CPS constantly harassing me on fraudulent calls. they became familiar with her lying. They warned her if she keeps doing that I will get full custody of my son. God is Great Men are not intimidated by 'strong women'.

But far too many women believe that being aggressive, rude and generally unpleasant makes them 'strong'.

No. It makes you insufferable.

It's not that we 'can't handle you' but that we'd prefer not to, in light of better options. 😂

Toxic Masculinity?

43% of boys are raised by single mothers.
78% of teachers are female.

So, close to 50% of boys have 100% feminine influence at home and 80% feminine influence at school.

Toxic masculinity isn’t the problem.
The lack of masculinity is.

nah, I got cheated on and took back the engagement ring in front of her family last Easter in the middle of dinner, reminded her that "her ring" was a promise to not suck off her ex boyfriends and told her to get accustomed to her parents house because she's moving back there with them at the end of the month.

Wiped my mouth with my napkin, thanked everyone for a wonderful dinner and left while she was screaming, her mother was crying, and her father stared straight ahead still chewing.

You just gotta time it right.

For women who don’t understand why we are going MGTOW here’s an analogy.

Background_One · 30 August 2018 · Archived copy · Reddit

Imagine an average looking guy that you are interested in. He is rich and spends that money on hot young chicks. He ignores you and never shows any interest in you.

But one day he loses all of his fortune. Immediately all the hot blondes he was dating, desert him. They were only showing interest in him for his money, unlike you. After some frustration of trying and failing to find a young hot chick, he gives up.

Next he hits you up and says he has matured and is no longer interested in dating hot girls. He wants someone to spend his life with, someone stable. Someone he can 'settle down' with.

Would you take that guy?

Now from the other side: Imagine an average looking chick that you are interested in. She is young and only dates hot tall guys. She ignores you and never shows any interest in you.

After sometime she gets old. Her tits sag, she doesn't look as good as she did few years ago. Immediately all the hot guys she was dating, desert her. They were only interested in fucking her, unlike you. After some frustration of trying and failing to find a hot guy, she gives up.

Next she hits you up and says she has matured and is no longer interested in dating bad boys. She wants someone to spend her life with, someone $table. Someone she can 'settle down' with.

Should we take that chick?

Chose Your Heroes Wisely! Greta Thunberg, a 16 year old, said " How dare you?" in front of cameras and the world press and was immediately immortalized as a global celebrity.

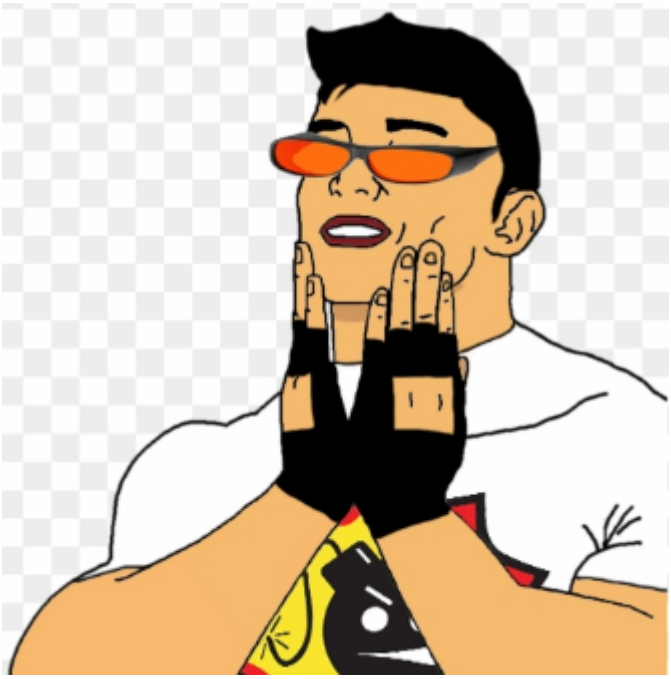

Jadav Molai Payeng, at the age of 16, started planting trees on a sandbar of the Bramhaputra River and created a 1360 acre forest reserve all by himself. He spent 36 years of his lfe on this without seeking the limelight, a prize or salary. His forest is now the habitat of 90-100 elephants (reported in 2008), 3-5 Royal Bengal Tigers, one horned Rhino and other species. Forget the globe, even his own countrymen don't know him.

My girlfriend got beaten and raped. I broke up with her right after she told me. This is what happened:

>Dating girlfriend for 7 months.
>She wants to go to this sleazy club with her friend.
>I told her I didn't want her to go.
>Had an argument about it. She was like "You don't own me and I can do what I want." and that bullshit.
>Told her if she went then I'm breaking up with her.
>She said she wouldn't go and dropped it.
>Saturday came.
>Hadn't heard from her all day.
>At 4AM on Sunday she calls me crying.
>She says she got raped and beat up.
>She went to the club anyway. Apparently she left alone with some guy and his friend to go to a party. They took her somewhere and beat her up and raped her.
>Had many feelings about this, none of them pleasant.
>I told her if she went to the club that I'd leave her and I told her we were over.
>She started freaking out and saying she needs me right now and that she was sorry.
>Told her never to call me again.
>Have been getting rabid hate from her friends and my friends think I was way too cold.
>She broke my trust, went somewhere I said not to, was probably going to end up cheating on me anyway and got raped and beaten over it and I'm suppose to feel sorry for her.

What you should do is get some help. And I mean, serious help. Your son is 12, and you forced this young boy to go to school during some of the most difficult years of his life as he combats bullies and creates a reputation for himself while wearing a dress. A dress.

My drunk ass girlfriend told me she's had sex with over two hundred guys. She saic she was a real slut in college, it made me stop and think.

(4 years of college x 365 days a year)/200 guys = a new guy every 7.3 days. Since she said over two hundred well round it off at a new guy every 7 days.

Given that she had sex with a guy an average of three times and an average dick length of 5.5 inches and about 100 thrusts to cum were looking at...

100 thrusts x 3 times per guy x 11 inches (5.5 in, 5.5 out) = 3300 inches of dick per week.

3300 inches of dick x 208 weeks = 660000 inches of dick = 10.45 miles of dick

I got in my car and drove 10.45 miles and thought about dicks being laid end to end That's how much dick she's taken. She's not my girl anymore.

So this happened...

pharmd718 · 27 August 2019 · Archived copy · Reddit

About 20 years ago my parents wanted to introduce me to this girl. She was the daughter of my parents friends and was in law school. She was fit, pretty with jet black hair. I was cleaning carpets for a living. I showed interest, she didn't care for a carpet cleaner.

I sold my carpet cleaning business and went back to college and became a doctor of pharmacy.

A few days ago my father calls me asking me if I remembered that girl. I told him I had no idea who she was until he mentioned how they tried to fix me up with her and she told her parents she won't date a carpet cleaner.

Well...although she finished law school, she never passed the bar. In addition she has been living with her mom all these years (her father passed away 4 years ago).

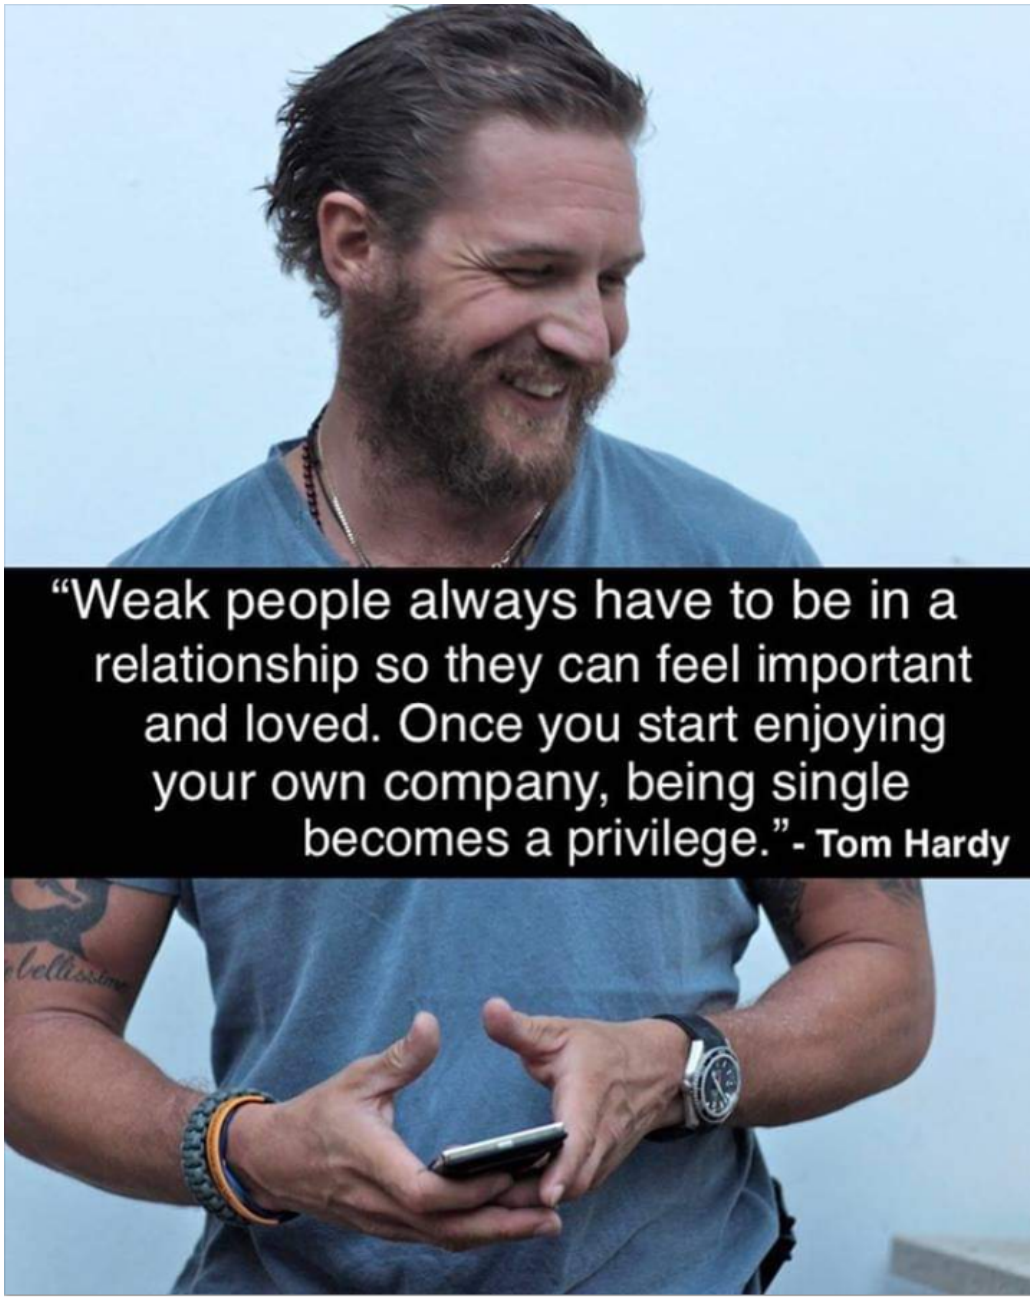

She had a fight with her mom and her mom kicked her out. She had no where to go and since I have a decent size house with a finished basement, my father wanted to know if I would let her stay there for a while.

I explained to my father that I don't help women because women don't help men. He looked confused and I said "if you were homeless...do you know of any woman who you haven't been in contact for years who would take you in?!" A light bulb went up in his head.

WITHOUT SEEING WOMAN

ATHENS — Without ever seeing a woman in the 82 years of his life. Mihailo Toloto has died in Mt. Athos monastery, in Greece. Neither had he beheld an automobile, a movie or an airplane. His mother died when he was born, Athens reports, and he was brought up in the monastery, where no woman ever enters. He became a monk, and monks at the onastery gave his a special burial ceremony because they believed he was the only man in the world never to see a woman.

I just dumped my girlfriend of 2 years. Seemed a sweet caring girl, family oriented and all that.
We got drunk and she confessed she did a gangbang like a month before we met and loved it.
Packed the stuff I had at her place and got the fuck out

The whore doesn't even realize what she did wrong and is now heartbroken and all. Now her whore girlfriends are trying to gaslight me telling I'm an asshole because "it's all in the past" and "she just made an experience".

What a hellish timeline. Where the fuck do you find a decent woman nowadays? Do they even exist anymore? How the fuck am I supposed to start a family with a whore?

I was raped, now my husband is divorcing me. Help!?

So I got into a fight with my husband and I went to a bar to flirt with guys and make him jealous. Anyway, I got drunk and some guy took me home and raped me. Now my husband is divorcing me, and because we have an infidelity clause in our pre-nup, I might get nothing in the divorce: no alimony, no house, no car, nothing. Now he and the rapist are working together (!!!) to try and make it like it wasn't rape, and the bartender is taking their side saying I only had 2 drinks (which is ALOT for me) and that I was acting like I wanted sex (blaming the victim). The rapist says I consented, but even if I did I WAS TOO DRUNK TO ACTUALLY CONSENT!

Please, what can I do? I have no job, and I can't survive without alimony. The police are pressuring me to drop the rape charge, but if I do that it will just help my husband take everything away from me!

You have to get into the mindset of a girl to understand. To be at that level of self absorption is something men will find very hard to comprehend.
The whole reason she took that pic is because she thought that the silly face she was doing made her look cute, but she can't just post some random pic of her making that face because it would be weird. So she looks around and tries to find something weird going on that would be a good excuse for her to make that face. She can't really see anything but she sees some guy and thinks maybe I can use the way he's standing as an excuse to take a pic of me making my sexy cute face. Now the man in the pic looks like a perfectly normal dude who isn't really doing anything weird but that's not relevant. He was just a prop she could use to further her own vain pursuits. His feelings or even the way he was standing didn't come into the equation at all.
It's like when a girl tweets "When he is 6'4 <3 <3 xD". She's not thinking of the billions of guys who aren't 6'4 that might get upset about that. She's just thinking about that one 6'4 guy in her class and what she can do to get him to notice her. "hmm maybe he doesn't know he likes me. I know! I'll post a tweet saying I like guys who look like him".
When you start to take peoples feelings out of the equation only think inwardly it becomes easy to understand.
Basically when she posted that pic the only thing that was going through her mind was "I hope people think this face makes me look cute"

I run a small business with 3-6 employees max. But id never hire a woman after the takeover of 3rd wave feminism. She could destroy my little company id been slaving over for almost 20 years, in a matter of months with lawsuits and phony accusations. Hiring a woman is gambling, because you gotta deal with their emotions, and mood swings. With men you know exactly what you're getting. They're very simple creatures and easy to deal with.

How my fully vetted, carefully screened, law student/unicorn girlfriend was secretly a prostitute and how a watch saved my life.

Liquid_Leopard · 1 February 2019 · Archived copy · Reddit

TLDR; Read the title again.

First let me say I think it's extremely important we men share our horror stories, pics, memes and keep talking here on MTGOW about how awful women are, whether seriously or with funny stuff. We have new members daily, younger members with questions and advice concerns and I think hmwe need to keep the fires and the anger stoked... keep fresh in our minds how women, their stupidity, selfishness, and hate can ruin men's lives.

Too often we can be red pill but forget how monstrous women can truly be, or we harbor a little space hoping we can find just one that can make us happy, if we could just find her. But let's keep. reminding other members, it doesn't exist, it never did and it never will....

Here is my story as more proof.

The Setup I was a red pill reader and follower on various forums, but not yet fully MGTOW. I knew red flags to watch for, not giving in to a woman's silly childish needs, and staying alpha and strong. At this point in my life I was more or less subscribing to the PUA community and mind set; playing on women's weaknesses to get laid and have fun. Then entered Lisa...my first, only, and last "unicorn".

I met Lisa on the Bumble dating app. She was a law student, pretty, and into motorcycle riding, crossfit, video games... every single hobby I loved. She was basically a dude mindset in a hot girl with a nice rack. She didn't exhibit all the bullshit needy things most women did, she seemed strong, independent, self sufficient and intelligent. We went on a few dates and she never showed any signs or warnings that I had read about or experienced in my past, things were as good as you could ever dream of and we really cared for each other. As time went on, our feelings grew.

We dated for about a year, and she never brought up love or needing more than what we had. Things were just good and she let them be what they were; she never wanted money, would often split the date costs or sometimes treat me, and was damn near everything a guy would describe as perfect.

Her lease on her apartment ran out and we mutually discussed her moving it with me. We had been together for about a year so far. To me, it felt like living with a guy best friend except I had access to the hot pussy and half my rent covered. I knew I had strong feelings at this point, and she said the same, but I'm a smart red pill, I never showed it, didn't white knight or have any blue pill habits. I figured she could move in, I'd save half on rent/utilities, I'd be living with my best friend and sexy times were still going great... so I said "fuck it" and she moved in with me.

Over the course of the next few months, things were amazing. We went to the gym together, cooked dinner, hiked, rode motorcycles, and just enjoyed life as best friends that fucked and slept in the same bed...again everything you could want from a woman. There were no new red flags or warning signs and the sex didn't taper off, she wasn't a party girl, always wanted to hang out with me and our mutual friends, and let me do as I pleased without nagging... nothing gave me any warning for what was to come. We were even sharing I love you's at this point but not too mushy, just a few here and there.

The Escalation She had a conference in NYC for school and was going to be gone for a week. She was from NYC so she mentioned she would be tacking on a couple days to her trip to see her mom. No problem, off she went and I'd see her in a week. She messaged and we talked like normal and she said she missed me and couldn't wait to get home and wanted to maybe take our relationship to the next level as being apart made her realize how important I was to her. Not sure what next level was, but I was happy to hear it from her, it validated the feeling we had was mutual.

After her return, things were still great, we were happy, and life was looking up. Many in the PUA community say that if you are careful, maintain a strong frame and make it clear you're the man and are controlling the direction of your relationship, you can still find a girl you can marry or be happy with. My mind started imagining this girl could maybe make me believe in love again. I started to consider proposing.

The Mountain Garmin watches make a model called the Fenix 3. It's an activity watch my girlfriend owned and had purchased one for me for Christmas. One feature it has, is connecting to your phone and notifies and displays incoming texts. She and I would often message words of encouragement to each other when we were doing marathons and the other wasn't able to participate.

One evening about a week after her latest visit to NYC, her watch starts buzzing like crazy next to me in the living room while she was upstairs. This can happen when the watch goes in and out of the phone Bluetooth range so I grabbed her watch to turn off BT since it was driving me nuts. that's when I saw the latest text message she had received on the screen, she had forgotten turn off her texts to the watch...

"I can't wait to fuck you again too!" wait... what? I thought.

that fucking word was a nail in my eye... ... "again"

Gents, let me tell you, I've heard the expression "my world was spinning", but son, a fucking mountain just... leveled... my... ass.

I had to sit back down my head was swimming so hard. I was smart enough to grab my phone from my pocket and snap a pic of the watch face for proof so I couldn't get gaslit later, but everything after that was like I was in a dream, I was in shock so deep. I recovered in a few minutes so I may have missed some back and forth texts, more convo followed about when she was out of town, but no specifics. (Later I found out this was an ex of hers who was married now but they wanted to re-live some old fun in a hotel she got for them while in NYC. Bitch even paid for the room to get some ex-dick.)

It was late. She came down to kiss me goodnight to which I had enough sense to play it cool, and I said I wasn't too tired so would stay up, watching TV downstairs. She went to bed and I just sat quietly crying and raging for the next 2 hours, so angry and frustrated at myself for getting fooled and thinking she was different, even with all the teachings of the red pill community. All my reading and research... feeling I was smart and superior enough to not let this happen to me...all for nothing. I got played.

I was heartbroken. I lost my best friend, my love, my roommate and someone I wanted to spend so much of my time with... someone with whom we had every passion, hobby and goal exactly the same in life. Fucking gone in 1 text. Later that moment hurt me so much because I also new... finally knew... from then on, I could never love or trust any woman ever again.

I felt alone, stupid and worthless.

After she was asleep, I snapped in to action. Again, knowing women light to gaslight, I went to grab her iPad.

See, women may say they are crafty and smart, but men are smarter when we aren't being lied to or being too trusting. I remembered she had an iPad she had let me use, and since she had an iPhone, I knew her messages from her phone would sync with her iPad if from another iPhone. I dug around in the office and found it, but it was pass code locked. 6 digits. surely she couldn't be stupid enough to use her day, month last 2 digits of her birthday could she?

Yup. Dumb bitch.

I started reading all her texts she'd sent over the time we dated and saw not only 3 other dudes she was/had talked to, 2 of which she fucked in the last few months, but an odd message from a guy saying how glad they had met on S.A., and where they could make arrangements to meet for coffee, to discuss allowance. I knew she had an uncle that helped her with money for insurance since she was a borrowing college student so maybe this was him. I was grasping for straws.

Not knowing what SA exactly was, I Googled "S. A." and the sugar daddy website Seeking Arrangement" popped up. Still confused but now forming an idea of what was up, I created a quick fake profile and did a search for her age within 1 mile of our zip code.

Nothing.

Checked within a mile of her parents zip code in NYC where she visits and stays when there. Bingo. My girlfriend was a sugar baby, photo and all, and apparently was making arrangements while away from home to score some quick cash. Lads, I actually started laughing and crying at the same time I was so blown away from the craziness I was discovering. Talk about her being completely opposite from everything I knew about her. It was complete Jekyll and Hyde shit here. I can honestly say I have never been so blown away about what I thought she was and who she really was.

On day 3 I handed her the binder with the screen captures I printed at Staples, told her I was going to stay with a friend and to have her shit gone by the weekend or I'd send copies to everyone she knew. She was gone quickly and quietly.

Never heard a whisper from her again thank God... but the damage was done, I was wrecked. The depression took months and months to recover from, the experience I never will. In hindsite this is good because when you get burned and fooled this well, you don't believe any woman, ever again.

So guys, I consider myself very intelligent and knowledgeable in red pill theory, being smart about dating, women and not getting hurt, yet I got leveled. What scares me to death is, had I not seen that single text on her watch, I'd still be with her and perhaps married or even further tied financially with her. This was a woman I could have thrown my life away on... a fucking whore for fuck sakes. Without that one slip up by her, I'd have never known, and it's thanks to her watch and 1 text that saved my life.

MGTOW gents. MGTOW and AWALT, and never forget it.

Woman rapes boy, he records her, he gets expelled from Ivy League school for rape.

White_Mlungu_Capital · 16 May 2019 · Archived copy · Reddit

https://www.yahoo.com/lifestyle/expelled-columbia-journalism-student-accused-rape-sues-university-anti-male-bias-162059965.html

"He alleges they went up to a water tower atop an apartment building, where they kissed and the woman began to pull Feibleman's face into her breasts. They made their way to the female student's room for more kissing, he claimed, but that's where Feibleman's consent ended.

The woman began begging him for sex, saying, "Please because I can't let you go without it," according to the suit. Feibleman claims she then forcibly tried to perform oral sex on him, despite the fact that he had clearly refused. He even cited the woman's boyfriend as one reason he didn't want to fool around with her.

Angered by his rejection, the female student allegedly berated Feibleman for half an hour — and she even bit him, the New York Post reported.

At some point, Feibleman apparently suspected he'd be accused of sexual misconduct, according to the *New York Post, so he used his phone to begin taping their encounter in her room. When the woman leveled accusations against him, Feibleman was able to turn over the 30-minute recording to university investigators.

But the evidence was not enough to appease investigators, who also felt that the woman was too drunk to even consent to sex. Columbia is holding Feibleman responsible for sexual assault, expelling him and withholding his degree even though he technically graduated.

The suit goes on to suggest an explanation for Columbia University's reaction to the situation, too. It says the Ivy League school succumbed to pressure from "anti-male, female protectionists' gender biases permeating Columbia's disciplinary process."

Feminism has gone full nuts. You can reject a girl who tries to rape you but you are the rapist because her vagina and the feminazis on campus said so.

From a dads forum:

Overheard a woman in her mid to late 20's talking friends the other day about her ultimate life goal.

1. Find a nice guy with skills, ambition and money. One who earns all of the money so she doesn't have to work.

2. Help him find the perfect home to live in.

3. Get married to him

4. Have a couple of kids

5. Wait for the mortgage to be paid off.

6. Divorce him, take the kids and all he owns. He can rebuild himself and she gets to live her life without ever having to work.

I bit my tongue to avoid saying anything to her. Figured there really was no point. A few years ago I would have never believed there were conwomen out there prepared to go to such lengths over such a long time for financial gain at someone else's expense.

Worst thing about this is, it is completely legal and supported by the legal system.

I'm a nurse. 28 year old male. Today of the interns really shocked me. I ve seen a lot of stupidity but these few interns just shocked me. One was a Korean girl the other Indian. They both not knowing I was their instructor and thought I was just a classmate began to brag to me.

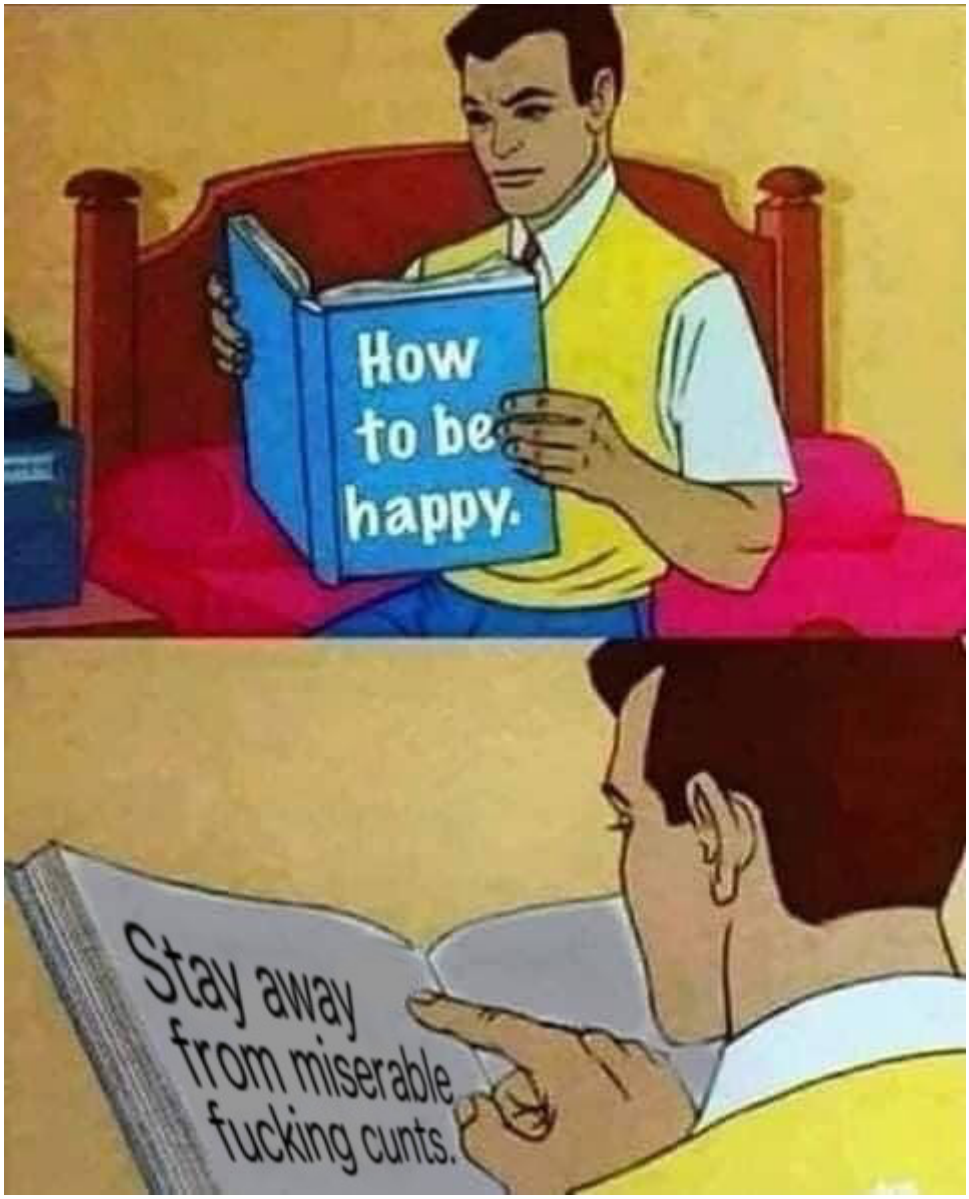

OMAGA_MAN · 10 January 2019 · Archived copy · Reddit

The Korean girl early 20 s told me how her mom head nurse of Stanford and how her mom basically bought her degree in Korea then came here Cupertino. I was shocked she knew 0 about nursing nothing about biology her notes didnt look like her hand writing. Most were typed. The Indian girl told me she had servants for everything and that she would pay any other intern in the class 100 a day to clean and do any dialer changing as she was too good for that. One other Filipino girl told me she bought her degree that her dad some high up fire protection director and how no hospital would pass inspection unless his daughter the girl in class received in A or a high mark. They literally bought their degree abroad and used neopotism to get into the program over American citizens. As I reentered the room with my scrubs on identified myself as the instructor not just some dumb yahoo who didnt know where to get them the look on their face was horrified. I m going to report each of them. I'm sure I ll have hell to pay especially Cupertino area from that Korean but I don't give a damn. I do this my first day intentionally every time to see who s really who. Every year medical malpractice kills people cause these idiots get passed along. They then raise the standards. 2 of them were missing vaccination shots. These people had to have bribed a lot of people even above me. I'm sure I ll be offered a lot of money to make this go away.

Today I faked it to avoid a potentially BAD situation. And I am glad I did.

NYCCOOP · 25 June 2019 · Archived copy · Reddit

So, recently I have got a small consulting gig (operations) at a medium-sized company; main goal is to figure out why they can't make a profit on good sales.

So I am there looking a little bit of everything, talking with people etc... The office manager - a woman - only works remotely which makes it difficult but .. anyway.

In a week's time it has become clear that the office manager needs to go since she's embezzling money, funneling business to her friends/family (with no disclosure) who then charge inflated prices and questionable time-sheets, deliveries and deliverables.

Yesterday at one point she must have smelled something and she was found crying in the bathroom.

And last night she and I agree that this morning she would open the office for me at 9 AM, so she and I could go over stuff together when it's quiet, since the office opens at 11 AM.

On my way there I was thinking about this sub and the METOO blowback and... thought that after all it might be a TERRIBLE IDEA to spend 2 hours alone with the woman that I am responsible to get fired on Friday.

I realized this as I was crossing the street to get to the office and she was in her car waiting for me. I'll spare you the details, but her choice of dress was what I would consider highly inappropriate. I had my earbuds on so I stopped in the middle of the street, picked up my phone from my pocket (frantically) pretending to received a distressed phone call "oh honey, of course I will be right there..." I said. I turned around and yelled at her: I have to go, I have an emergency, I will be back at 11... make it noon.

And I disappeared to the nearest Starbucks where I called the CEO and explained to him that I didn't feel comfortable to spend alone time with a woman who's about to get fired and told him that for the next few days I will be taking office next to him (open space setup) very visible to everyone, and that he should discreetly - on the phone or in person, and not in writing - warn all the other men in the office.

"Good call" he said.

Later in the day she wanted to know all about my "emergency" and I just dismissed with a "I 'd rather not talk about it"; I had to do it a few times since she would be relentless.

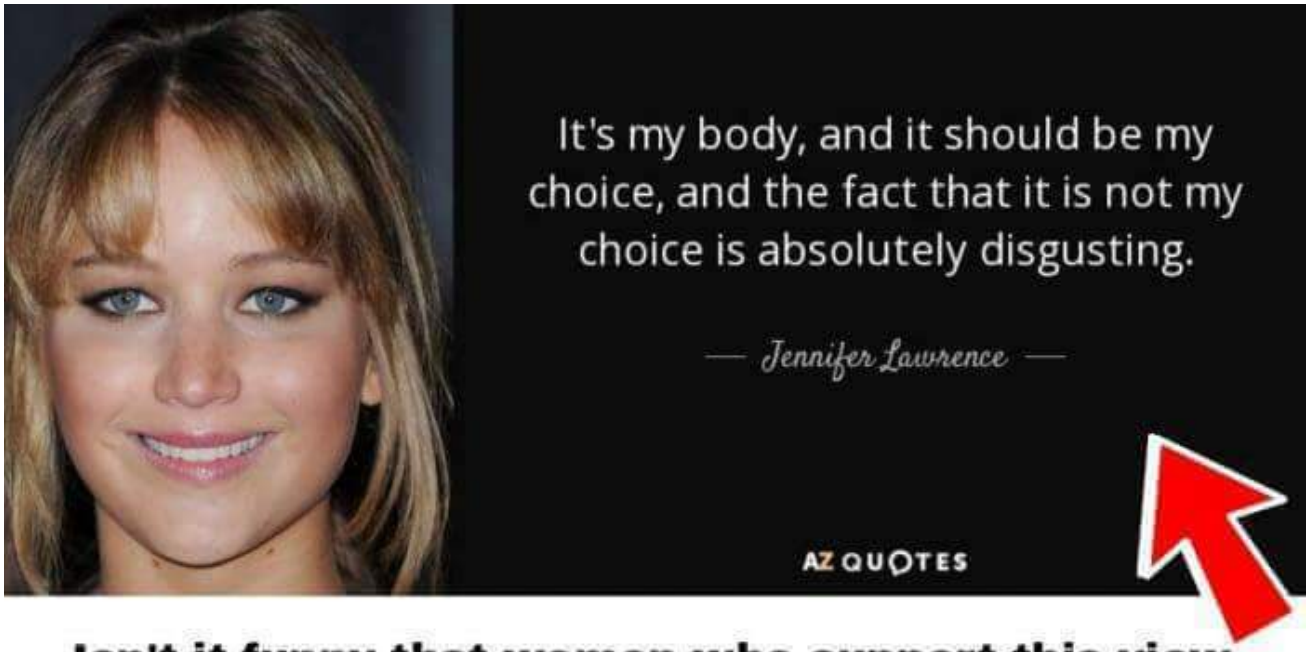

She might get the axe before Friday, it's going to be interesting.

yofhamitzthehood · 31 December 2019 · Archived copy · Reddit

I was 17, and an average kid in highschool. I asked my crush out who I liked for like a whole year. It took all my confidence and I was able to do it. She said no, and said she was out of my league, she could do better, im ugly, and she dosent date future workers of mcdonalds. She then dated the "cool" kid of my school a few months later. Now, 4 years later (this morning) We ran into each other at a coffee shop, and here comes the best part, she was working as a waitress there. She saw me and asked what I'm doing, when I told her I'm doing pre-med at a huge and competitive school she started touching my arm and shoulder. She was already flirting from the start, because ngl I did glow up, and got ripped. So when I'm done my drink, I start leaving and she stops me and asks for my number. I say "I'm out of your league, I can do better, your personality is ugly, and I dont date coffee shop waitresses". It felt amazing.

Learn from us old guys

StopBelievingCrap · 20 February 2019 · Archived copy · Reddit

I'm approaching 70. I was raised in the 1950's when men in the U.S. were heroic and admired for winning the war. Women stayed home and were the homemakers and the man supported the family. Economics were very different then. I married in the 1970's and people lived well on $2.50 per hour. I'm talking renting a home (not an apartment) and still having money for food and a car. Everything was cheap.

Before I married, I inherited a family home. Free and clear of any mortgage. Very fortunate and unusual at my young age. I married a 19 yr old girl when I was 22 because that's what everyone did back then. Had a couple of kids and the wife worked not at all, or only part-time. After 14 years she decided she didn't want to be married any more. She held none, nor contributed, any of our financial assets, but received 50% of everything I owned including what retirement funds I had put aside. I had to sell the home in the divorce. She received enough money to buy a new home with cash and immediately moved her boyfriend in with her and my kids. Even though I had joint physical custody and "dadded" my kids 50% of the time, I still had to pay a third of my income to her for child support - why?....because she had very little earnings history. This went on for 14 years until my youngest turned 18.

This woman has never thanked me.

After my divorce, I was still in the white-knight mode. I couldn't get that 1950's indoctrination out of my head. No awareness at all. Always saving women with no assets. But, I managed to involve myself with women without kids. Still, I would always wind up caring for them financially and it always ended in disaster. Particularly since the women I dated (and foolishly lived with early on) weren't interested in having kids, they all rode the cock carousel into their 40's and if they thought you weren't going to be trapped, they'd move on to find the one that would permanently commit assets to them. They're not stupid - they're looking for security in later years. They hit the wall very quickly. I don't think any of that has changed.

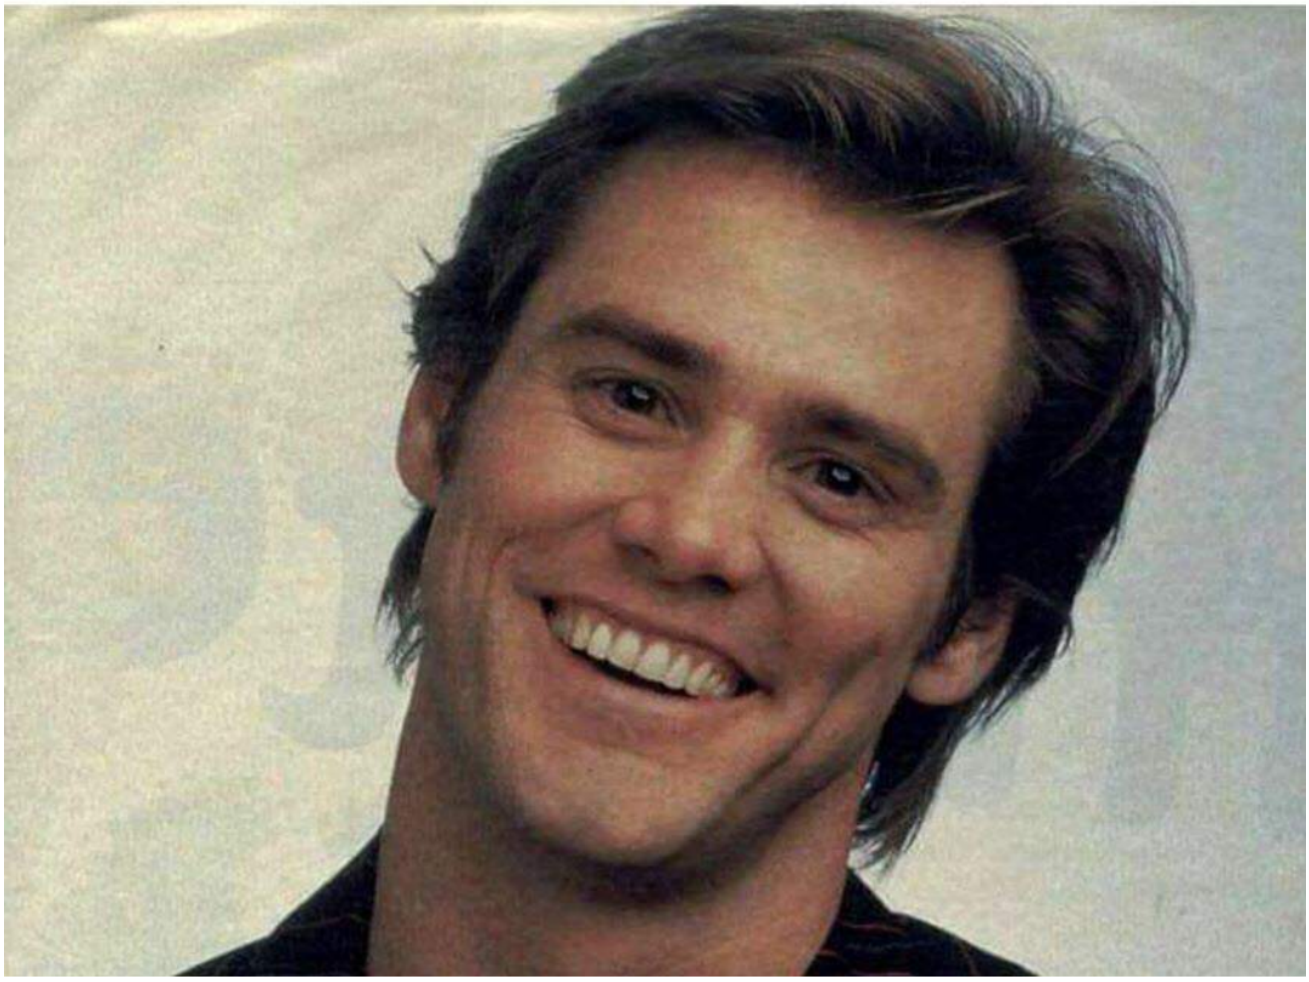

It's taken me a lot of years my friends. You have an opportunity. Men are devalued today. Use that to your advantage to break the cycle. Build your break-out. I'd like to see some of these similar tales from my wizened seniors. Peace.

My friend shit tested his girlfriend and led her believe he lost everything when he actually became a millionaire.

kcalbllip · 29 June 2020 · Archived copy · Reddit

Here's a story that recently happened to one of my friends. He's a bluepilled tech nerd but seems to be inclining more towards MGTOW because of me.

Long story short he's in his late 20s dating some girl older than him for the past 2 years (his first girlfriend + she took his virginity). He's 29 and his girlfriend is 32. He's a smart guy, highly driven. When they met she knew he was an entrepreneur and had a business that was bringing in 6 figures.

So here's the deal, he told me he sold his business for $11 million dollars. He shit tests her and tells her he lost everything. Bankrupt. He's done for. He tells me she just changed completely and went cold. Immediately left during their date. She dumps him the next day with the whole "its not working out, he's wasting her time, she needs a stable guy etc etc." They have a huge argument and she let slip she doesn't love him and has been cheating on him since the beginning, and was only with him because he was the safe option.

Funny thing is she finds out from a mutual friend that her ex is a millionaire now. She goes crawling back, begging, but my friend ghosted her and told her he's done with her.

Alpha fucks beta bucks holds true as time.

I'm giving 1 star because of the cheap management and customer service. I heard the food was very good so I went to try. Me and the BF got the calamari, spaghetti alle vongole, and gnocchi. All were very delicious.

I was actually so impressed that when the manager came to ask us how everything tasted I told her it was some of the best Italian food Ive had and I told her Im going to post about it on Instagram where I have over 11 thousand followers and a lot of them are in the area. She seemed very happy about it.

I was wrong. I thought that she would be greatful for the free advertising but when the check came there was literally no discount at all. I thought at least one of the entrees would be taken off but they didnt even take off the calamari or even the drinks!

I wont go back here because of this. Which is a shame because the food was very good. The manager needs to understand how to treat customers.

The entitlement is strong with this one, sick leave too!

Nemoxon · 7 February 2019 · Archived copy · Reddit was on to something:

Banker who cried sexism was paid more than men

Jack Malvern

A woman lost a £400,000 sexism claim against her employer after a tribunal found that she was paid more than most of her male peers.

Donna Ball, 53, said her progress at Coutts, the banker to the Queen, had been halted by a "glass ceiling" of discrimination against women. Ms Ball, an associate director, alleged that her employer resembled an "exclusive gentlemen's club" that blocked her promotion and underpaid her.

The Central London Employment tribunal rejected her claim after concluding that she "has a higher perception of her performance" than she could demonstrate with evidence.

Ms Ball said she should be paid more than her line manager and his manager because she was a law graduate and neither of them had a degree.

The tribunal was told how Ms Ball, from Stevenage, Hertfordshire, joined the bank in 2010. Her basic salary is £60,000 and she receives a variable bonus of about £10,000. She wept as she told the tribunal that she had been denied equal pay since 2013 in what she alleged was the latest case of "sexism in the City". The judges disagreed and noted that she was paid more than all but one of her male counterparts in the commercial banking team.

Donna Ball said Coutts resembled an "exclusive gentlemen's club"

Judge Tina Elliott recalled Ms Ball's claim that she ought to earn more than her manager David Waters, executive director of commercial banking, and his boss Chris Dos Santos, head of commercial banking.

Judge Elliott said: "The claimant has a higher perception of her performance as demonstrated by her evidence that she should be paid more than her line manager and the manager above him. We did not agree with this perception."

The panel rejected Ms Ball's claim that Mr Waters was a liar who went out of his way to block her career path. It noted that he had put her forward for promotion in 2016 but she failed her selection interview.

The bank was the subject of a sexism case last year when Harry Keogh, head of its private wealth department, resigned amid allegations of heavy drinking, lewd comments and groping.

Mr Waters, who has worked at Coutts for 33 years, claimed he had a good relationship with Ms Ball before her claim. Ms Ball has been on sick leave since she was passed over for promotion in September last year.

The tribunal rejected all Ms Ball's claims of gender discrimination, equal pay and victimisation. She withdrew a claim of age discrimination.

A Coutts spokeswoman said after the verdict that discrimination was not tolerated by the bank and employees attended training modules on sexual discrimination and harassment.

Reading her diary and how I became MGTOW

BigAl4lyfe · 2 May 2019 · Archived copy · Reddit

I dated a girl, even made the mistake of living with her. Things were great early on. She dressed in a feminine way, was easy going and the sex was fantastic. This went on for months. I was happy.

We moved in together and she started slipping. Sexy clothes gave way to sweat pants and t-shirts. She still wanted me to take her out, but would be “too tired” for sex afterwards. She got increasingly bitchy and at times, distant.

I couldn’t figure out where I went wrong with her. On a random day off I found a small suitcase out near the closet. It was filled with journals going back almost a decade. She was off at work, so I sat down and read through them all.

What I realized was that I was in no way special to her. Many of the feelings she had for previous boyfriends were written out the same way as the passages describing me. Even down to specific compliments. It all seemed like a script. She had said the same things, verbatim, about her exes.

She had baby rabies and had often mentioned starting a family. Well it turns out that she had written about wanting to get pregnant in her two previous relationships. I wasn’t special, she wanted kids and it seemed like anyone, who would commit, would do.

She had lied about her partner count. Her sexual past was more prolific than previously known. Not terrible, by todays standards, but far from good. She claimed to hate anal, and yet she did it for a past boyfriend on a regular basis. Her first time doing anal was in a hotel, on vacation. So much for her “needing to feel really comfortable” to do that. . .

She was also fucking two other guys when we started dating. She “wasnt seeing anyone” at the time, according to her; just fucking them. I shouldnt have been suprised. . .

We had three more months on our lease. I decided to wait it out. I started hitting the gym regularly. I ate very clean and gave up drinking all together. I took some professional certifications and revamped my resume. I landed a new job three weeks before the lease was up. It paid much better than what I had been doing.

She was so excited “for me”. The gears were turning. She was clearly trying to get pregnant. I had never told her about my vasectomy. . . oh well. She started dropping hints about “settling down”. She was even looking at houses in the suburbs. . . Ya know, just for fun. . .

The lease was almost up. I had already put down a deposit on a one bedroom apartment, for me. I hadn’t told her anything. I gathered my belongings while she was at work. Most of the furniture in our apartment was hers, so it didn’t take long.

I suprised her outside of her work and took her out for drinks. I was well dressed and hadn’t had a drink in months. I suspect she thought I might propose, lol.

We talked and I came clean about reading her diaries. She got angry, then she cried. I told her I wanted nothing to do with her. I told her I had moved out and that this was goodbye.

She immediately backpedalled. She could change. She had made mistakes, she said. She would do anything I wanted sexually. Anything! What about us?! She said. She told me she loved me. I calmly told her that there was no us and left.

She called and texted me repeatedly. Alternating from anger to shaming and back to begging me to reconsider. I didn’t respond. I poured a glass of scotch and enjoyed the silence in my new place.

Any illusions of having a long term relationship were killed when I read her diaries. I have stayed unattached and have never been happier. I live simply and have a nice stash saved up. I will be able to retire at 48, based on current projections. I have been able to save money and still travel and have hobbies.

She went on to get pregnant within a year of me leaving. She has two kids, works a dead end job and is 30 lbs overweight. Shes still single. She has a ton of student loan debt.

Obviously this is for the father's oversight. She doesnt have to submit it to the coirt, it can be given to the court. However this is for the father to view if he desires to do so. At least it will hold her accountable for spending mlney on the child instead of getting the money and buuing a tom of useless shit or drugs with it.

I'm sorry, but if a married, 44-year-old Will Smith gradually developed a sexual relationship with one of Willow's 23-year-old friends under the guise of "helping her heal," every single female on my thread would be dragging him through the mud as a sick man who manipulated and exploited a young girl who was half his age. He would have been labeled as a predator and all sorts of conversations about the problem with prominent men in positions of power who use their status to take advantage of helpless young girls would ensue.

But with Jada, it's all jokes and support for her finding her happiness. 🤔

Monday at 10:07 PM

So I finally landed a job as a Wal-Mart greeter, which is a good find for many retirees, unfortunately I lasted less than a day.

About two hours into my first day on the job a very loud, unattractive, mean-acting woman walked into the store with her two kids, yelling obscenities at them all the way through the entrance. Per my greeter training manual I said pleasantly, "Good morning and welcome to Wal-Mart." "Nice children you have there. Are they twins?"

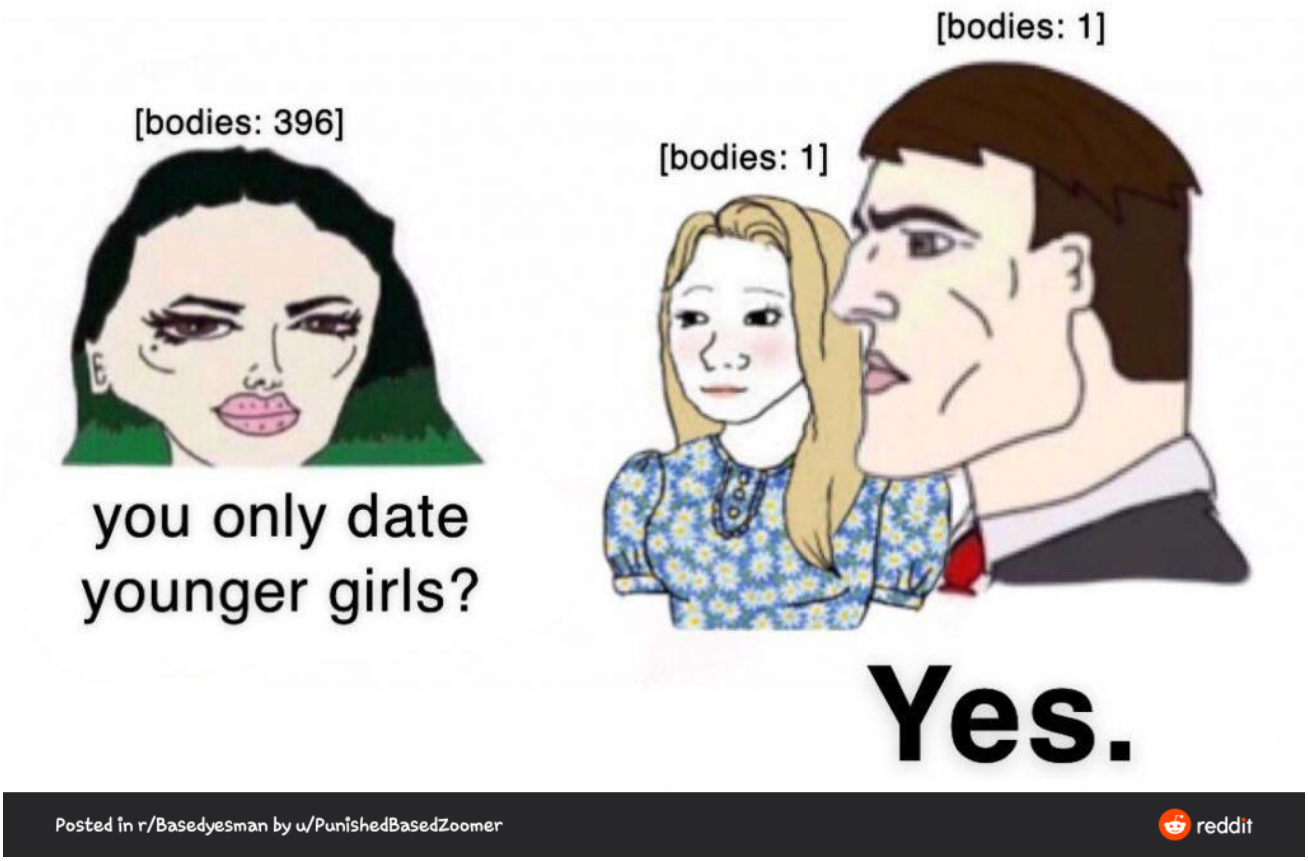

The ugly woman stopped yelling long enough to say, "Hell no, they ain't twins. The oldest one is 9, and the other one is 7. Why the hell would you think they're twins? Are you blind, or just stupid?"
So I replied, "I'm neither blind nor stupid, madam. I just couldn't believe someone slept with you twice. Have a good day and thank you for shopping at Wal-Mart."

My supervisor said I probably wasn't cut out for this line of work.

Notice how society has elevated womanhood to godhood. Since the decline of religion, people now worship girls.

Saying anything bad about women is considered blasphemy.

You're expected to kneel and give gifts to your god.

You are expected to change your image to mimic her.

Court dashes 9-yr-old girl's quest to sing with Berlin's boys' choir

Melissa Eddy

Berlin: A court on Friday blocked a 9-year-old German girl from joining Berlin's oldest cultural institution, its all-boys' choir, after she sued to be allowed to sing with the chorus, in a case that pitted a push for gender parity against centuries of musical tradition. Berlin's administrative court said that artistic freedom was more important than equal treatment in this case.

The suit argued that because the choir — the State and Cathedral Choir, part of Berlin's University of the Arts — is a publicly funded cultural institution, its high-quality, intense musical education, voice training and performance opportunities must be made available to everyone, regardless of gender.

Berlin Cathedral website

The State and Cathedral Choir, founded in 1465, promotes 'free musical education for boys'. At the time of its founding, girls were not allowed to sing in the church

The 9-year-old girl first tried to enter the choir in 2016 but was denied. Two years later, she again sought entry and was informed in a letter signed by the dean of the music department, "Never will a girl sing in a boys' choir."

After three hours of arguments, the five-judge panel in Berlin ruled on Friday in favour of the artistic freedom of the choirmaster. The head judge described the case as a test case and allowed for an appeal. The State and Cathedral Choir of Berlin, founded in 1465, promotes "free musical education for boys". The choir has grown into a public institution that includes more than 250 singers. What had not changed in more than 550 years is that it has only accepted boys. NYT NEWS SERVICE

To all (young) Men, do not chase pussy! It will get you killed. Life is to precious throwlifeaway2020 · 18 December 2019 · Archived copy · Reddit

This post will be a bit longer, but i hope every Man will read this! especially the young mgtows.

I'm currently 26, if i hadn't made a bad decision i would make it to my 30s but that's not happening. As a matter of fact, I'm going to leave this planet in a few months. When I was 17 I met this girl, the "I'm hard to get" type. We got together after a few months of busting my ass and being a pussy chaser. Well so far so good. I enjoyed spending my time with her, and so 3 years past. In this three years i noticed that I'm frequently getting sick and my body gets weaker. At first I didn't know whats going on, and went from doctor to doctor. Well my bloodresults didn't show anything serious and by that time I just thought it's due to stress and bad eating. In that time my best friend dated a friend of my gf, and discovered that she was cheating on my constantly. My heart was crushed and we immediately broke up. After some time, and my condition getting worse, I was thinking that maybe I have been infected with an STD. I went to a doctor to specifically check that and well, not a surprise, i got that hiv good. By that time i was 22 years, and well doctors perscribte me meds to keep that in check, but it didn't help as hoped. I was fucking angry at myself and the girl, but what happend happend. Everyday I wished that I could turn back time and slap my younger self for being so thirsty for pussy. After months of depression and anger I found this sub, it was still young about 40k in total, but it helped me a lot in getting past the red pill rage phase. One post from a fellow MGTOW (THANK YOU SO MUCH) was about his routine (cold showering every morning, eating healthy etc.) and how to strengthen yourself, pushed me to start doing what he suggested.

I started reading books (from one book in two weeks, to one book a week) and doing workouts. By that time I was 23, and was lucky to get a good job. I saved money on the side as much as I could and 2 years Later I started my own small business. We are 3 men now, and work is plenty and good. At the beginning of the year I fainted at work and my best friend immediately brought me to the hospital. The doctors told me I got a good 2 years, so I should make the best out of it. I was pretty sad and empty for the first 3 weeks or so, but I found a new goal. I wanted my little brother who is currently 15 to inherit my will and later to continue my business. I have told him all the dangers about Women and to keep away. He cried a lot, because he and my father (mother ran away) are the only ones in my family who know about my condition. Everytime he stops by he is crying and does not want me to leave, but i encourage him to take me as a stepping stone for his life. At least I can safe one soul and hope that he will make this world better.

He started to take school seriously and as all his classmates are started dating, he goes boxing and building himself a strong body and mind.

So here is my advice, and I hope all the young men out there take this serious:

DON'T CHASE PUSSY! YOUR LIFE IS TO PRECIOUS AND SHORT TO THROW IT AWAY!

I know when you're young you want to jump on everything that is moving, because your hormones are shit and you cannot think clear. But Please, consider throwing your life away for a few minutes of fun? It's not worth it! There are people out there who will miss you. You cannot change decisions, and being with a woman in this age is a huge decision with huger risks than you can imagine!

I was stupid and not carefull and that's the price I'm going to pay now... I'm not upset anymore, I will spend my time doing the things I love and preparing everything in my company for my leave.

So to all my brothers out there, especially the young ones: Learn from the mistakes others made and don't every let go of your dreams for a woman! Even I who is sick to the bone managed to make a small company and chase at least a glimpse of my dream.

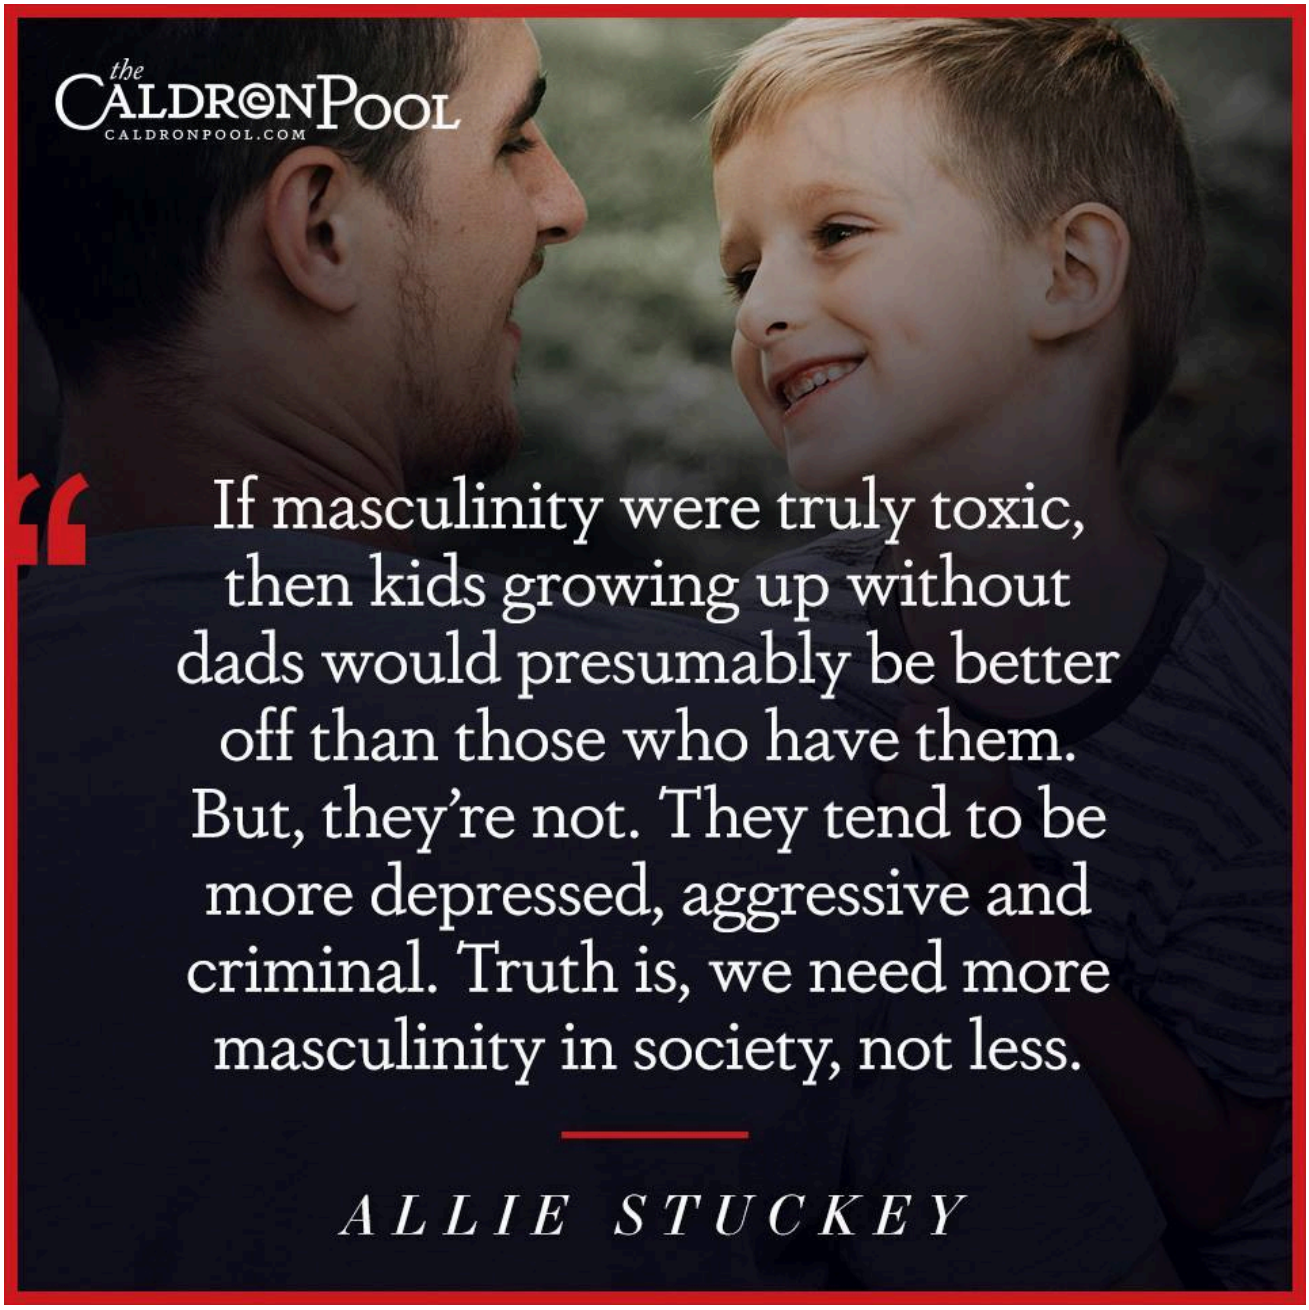

So this is my thank you to all mgtow brothers, who helped me with my journey through life. It was short but without your help, It would not have bin so full of joy :) This will be my first and last post here, I hope it get's notice and a lot of young MGTOW's will read it. I wish everyone the best! And I hope that at least a few of you remember this post and don't make the same mistake in life i made.

See you on the other side :)

Dual Mating Strategy: Why you should NEVER marry (straight from the whores mouth)

Throwseph120809 · 29 September 2019 · Archived copy · Reddit

r/adultery
Posted by u/youwritemeup • 3h

It is HARD out here for a woman.

I'm not at all surprised that women make up most of this sub (despite being a minority on Reddit). Even less so that a lot are having affairs because they aren't (and often never have been) truly attracted to their husbands.

We women usually have 3 options: marry a man we aren't attracted to, live in constant heartbreak getting crumbs from one we are, or die alone. There are some exceptions but this is usually the rule. Life ain't a fairytale; chances are you will NOT get to marry the guy who makes your heart flutter and knees weak and instead have to settle for Mr. Seems to Love Me. This is what most women have to do. This is why most married women are, although they pretend not to be, miserable.

No one wants to say this. It's an ugly truth. We all want to believe that we can be truly attracted to how much someone (seems to) love us. We all like to believe that sexual attraction can be built and grown. That what's good for us on paper is also good for our hearts. Sadly, not the case. Never has been and never will be as long as we're human. As I said, there ARE exceptions, but they're just that.

We only have one life. Why the hell should we have to choose between those three miserable options? I'm not saying it's fair to have your cake and eat it; but as we know, neither is life. Adultery isn't something that anyone WANTS to commit (unless they're deranged). Sometimes, it's just the only way to be truly happy. Don't we all deserve that?

throwaway18910628 • Now

And how about the poor shmuck who you duped into believing you truly love and desire him so you could use him for his resources and stability while getting your tingles met by fucking the unstable asshole behind his back? Does he get to be 'truly' happy?

A dude in YouTube comments accurately describes Feminism.

TheRealEtherion · 9 May 2018 · Archived copy · Reddit

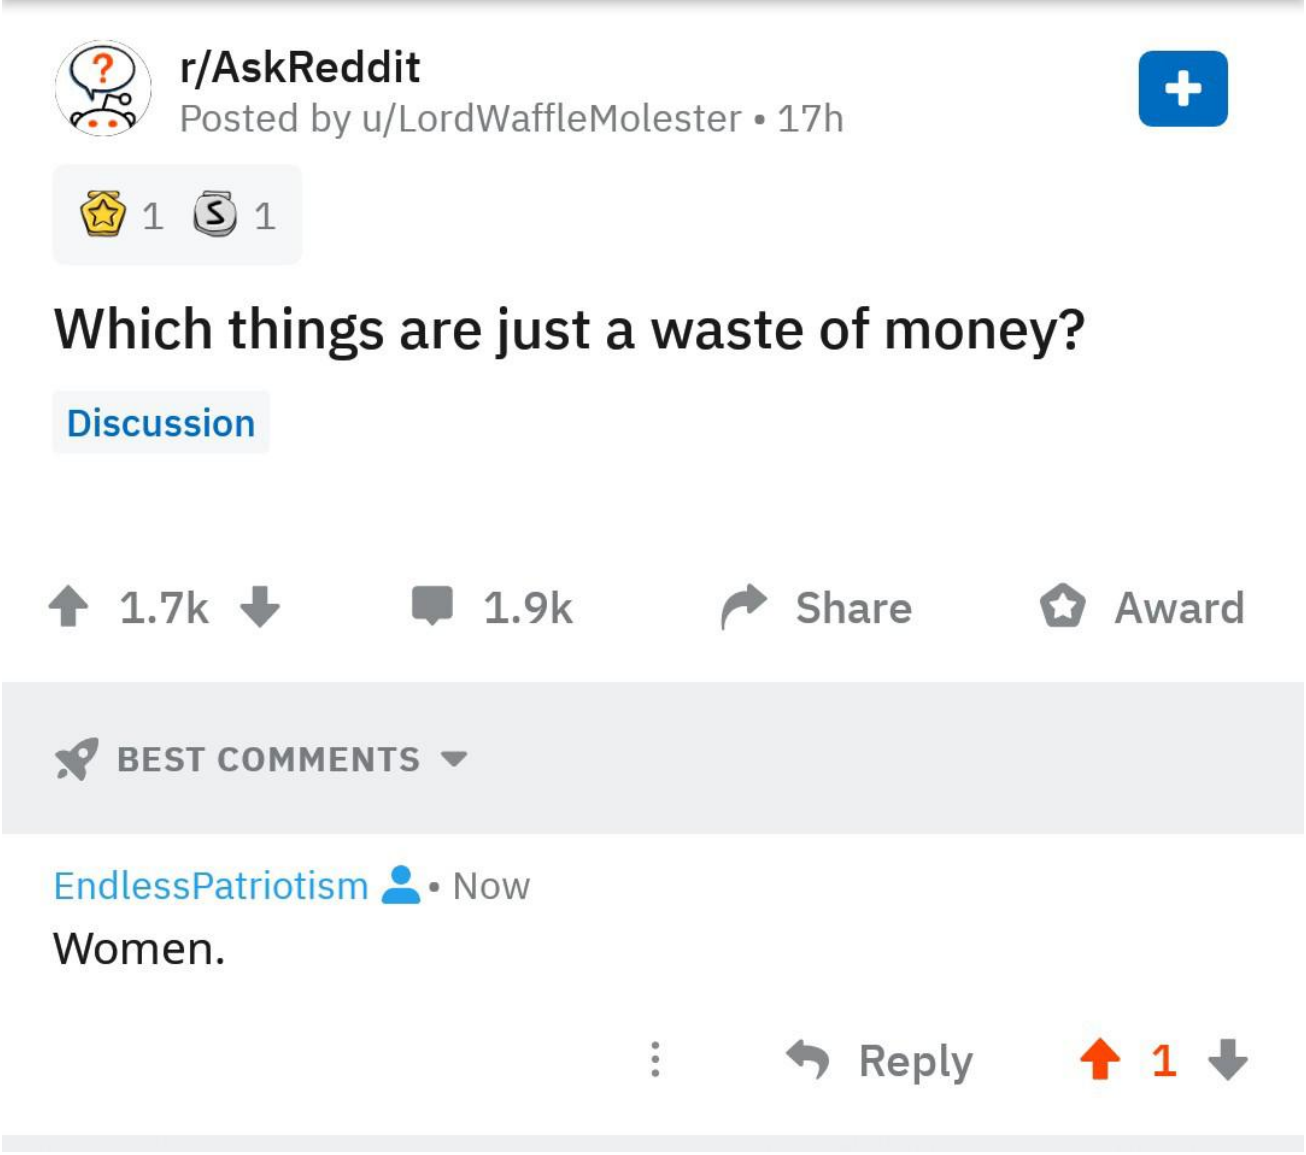

Sleep with as many men as you can because that makes you "sexually liberated." As long as there is a single man on Earth who earns more money than you, YOU ARE OPPRESSED. Doesn't matter how hard you work, only equal results matter. Nothing is ever your fault, your poor decisions are always a man's fault. If a man loves you, you must hurt him emotionally to show that you're a strong woman. You should be allowed to keep a man from seeing his children just because you feel like doing so because a woman's emotion are all that matter. If anything about your boyfriend/husband isn't perfect it's your right to sabotage the relationship and/or the family you've started together. If you decide to cheat, it's ALWAYS his fault in some way. You should face no consequences for any decisions you make. Don't work on self improvement in areas like honor, loyalty, compassion, accountability, self control because you're a woman which means that you were born perfect by default. Your emotions and impulsiveness being satisfied is all that matters. A man should have no say in any issues which affect the societal family structure even though it's ultimately them who will be left to clean up the mess which results.

Men don't need to be powerful, just useful. You'd be surprised how fast people will talk shit to you. Men insult you. Women disrespect you. So you go and do your own thing. It's all good right? Nope. They then get mad and desperate. They either try to shame you into playing your role or try desperation tactics.

Now, if we're such losers, can't get laid, and women don't want us anyway, what's the issue? The issue is that you can still be useful. Mow the lawn when she doesn't feel like it. Take out the trash. Unclog the toilet. Raise the kids. Pay for shit. Raise another man's kids.

So men go and do it. They think by doing, they will be loved. Nope. Not gonna happen. You're just useful wasting your years providing for people who never respected your efforts and don't give a shit about you. Ask any of the guys who got divorced and lost a lot on here.

Where are these women lining up to suck your dick because you "Manned Up?" Where are the "Real Men" shaking your hand for taking risks and forking it all over to a female. FUCKING NOWHERE. And it ultimately is tragic. Speak up and you will be mocked and ridiculed. Then you realize you're alone. You played your role, they got what they wanted and you mean nothing.

34 years old this year. As of today my net worth has now crossed the $1M mark! 1 year shy of my predicted age of 35.

I'm so happy!!

I've always grown up poor. My first love left me because I couldn't afford a car. Lots of red pills came in hard and fast as a poor young man.

Mgtow for life!

Edit: many of you have asked for tips.. So I'm pinning this modified reply I gave to one of you..

1. Go mgtow (obviously)
2. Have a regular exercise routine, eat proper food, get enough sleep
3. Pay off any debt as quickly as possible and before investing
4. Create value. Value attracts income. It could be a skill or a product, it doesn't have to be unique but it should be of use to your community.
5. Commit to minimalism which will help you to save aggressively.
6. Learn about the nature of the economy and how money works in today's world. Nothing fancy, YouTube is all you need.
7. Invest according to your risk appetite. Listen to financial advisors pitches but don't FOMO into their products. Never sign anything on the same day without sleeping on it.
8. Don't expect a free lunch, be consistent in your saving and remember there are no short cuts.
9. Earn your money ethically. At the end of the day, your integrity is all you have that can never be taken away from you. Only you can compromise it.

I hope this helps!

I DID IT BOYS. I've redeemed myself. 2 years ago I broke up with my slut ex and now she's trying to crawl back to me because SHE KNOWS what she gave up.

trieasycx · 4 May 2019 · Archived copy · Reddit

I was the blue pilled simp that did everything and anything for her because that's what you do when you've been programmed to think like that society and parents. I found out she was dicking it with some druggy loser and that's when I lost everything. I lost any aspirations to do anything and started to question everything I believed in. It's until I found you glorious bastards. Long story short. She just called back after literally a year of no contact wanting to "talk". NOPE BITCH. BLOCKED. I didn't even pick up the phone. Don't even waste your time. ADIOS. I'm in great shape. I've got a great career and I've got a planned trip to Japan in a few months. So for all the homies out there with a broken heart. it'll pass and when it does and your ex finds out how much they fucked up, I'm telling you man when you can just ignore their calls and just whistle away while counting your money and all the happiness ahead of you, it is BLISS. GOD BLESS YOU MGTOW. STAY STRONG BROTHERS

Wedding cancelled! Wall of text warning. MGTOW journey. 27y/o

slayer-booty · 12 September 2018 · Archived copy · Reddit

First of all Thank you and deepest love to all my MGTOW brothers!

My MGTOW journey started when I broke my wrist on a dirt biking trip about 6 months ago which left me out of work for 4 months for recovery.

At the time of the accident I was around 40 pounds over weight, lacked self determination (I was a simp/mangina), had not excercised for years and had a poor diet of whatever and whenever.

During my recovery period I had lots of time to myself while my significant other was at work 5 days a week. having always been an avid gamer I was on the computer a lot now learning to use the computer with solely my left hand, I began researching the causes for bone breaks and learnt about a lack of bone density due to poor nutrition which made sense as my significant other would rarely (never) cook so we would eat take away too often.

Weeks went by as my mind was still occupied with learning to use my non dominant hand for things and as that started to improve I then found the ketogenic diet for weight loss, mental sharpness etc, I also found the NOFAP movement and the concept of losing my "life force" through masturbation struck deep. ultimately NOFAP led me to MGTOW.

A month or two into my recovery I was immersed in self improvement videos and researched strength training, throughout all this time I was under constant pressure to get back to work ASAP as "we" (I) had a wedding to pay for which left me in between a rock and a hard place as I was warned that if I was to go back to work to quickly I ran the risk of re breaking the injured area as I work in construction and am constantly using my hands.

So come the 10 week mark I was booked into a specialist appointment for an X-ray and examination/removal of the cast from my right wrist. Having worked in construction since I was 18, now being 27 I knew that with the current state of my wrist I would not be able to perform my duties as my wrist was in no way near the required state for manual labour. The specialist asked my job field and as I explained what I did he gave me an additional 3 weeks before our next appointment.

Upon breaking this news to my significant other, I was met with anger and hostility as "we need to pay for blaa blaa wedding related shite", even trying to make it out that I had coerced extra time off work from the specialist because I was lazy. Being the mangina I was I pleaded I hadn't and would get back to work ASAP.

Through the next couple weeks I was under even more pressure from my (divorced) mother in law about the wedding and that I needed to get back to work to give her daughter the big day she had always dreamed of.

The resentment was building and I was learning of the schemes of these women through the MGTOW videos I was watching. They had found a hard working mule to whip.

So come the next specialist appointment and X-ray yet again I was given additional time off because the break had not healed enough.

This time round breaking the news, the rage I was met with was quiet severe. I was told I was lazy, useless, hopeless etc etc.

After hearing this I spoke to my mother who is a doctor, currently with her own acupuncture and Chinese herbalism clinic about trying to explain that my injury had not healed to my significunt other. When my mother did attempt to set the record straight she was not believed and was accused of not wanting the wedding to happen and that she hated my wife to be and was trying to ruin her big day. My mother for my sake tried to see past what was said to not cause inter family fights/problems.

Now the days were nearing to the wedding and the stress all round was growing. Finally I was cleared by the specialist and that same night I was back at work at full duties.

A couple weeks passed and my wife to be had a hair and make up trial, she sent photos of her hair style to my mother and asked for her opinion, my mother gave her honesty and said that she wasn't a fan of the style and that it could be executed better (mind you two of her bridesmaids said the same thing that the style and execution was poor and needed improvement) my wife to be's reaction was illogical and princess like to say the least. My wife to be reacted in spite and proceeded to uninvite/cancel the wedding singer who was my mothers one and only wish for the wedding, he was a long time family friend/neighbour and has known me since I was a baby.

My mothers reaction was calm and collected, upon hearing the news of the cancellation, she called me to say that we needed to talk, my wife to be and myself.

The version I was fed from my wife to be was one of fiction about how she was told she was "ugly".

As I was now back at work 6-7 nights a week to fund my funeral I mean wedding, I didn't have time to go and visit until about three weeks after the fact. By this point it was my wife to be's hens night and my mother now wanted to see only me, without my significant other participating.

On the day of the hens my wife to be got ready to go out and my brother came and picked me up and we left for my mothers place. My other brother met us there.

When I spoke to my mother I had found out the truth about everything that had transpired and who was really in the wrong. This angered me deeply and I spilt the beans on what Iv endured in this relationship of 6 years. I came to the conclusion that drastic action was necessary.

While the hens night was going on, I made my way back home, cleared out my things and left to go and stay with my mother.

4am in the morning whilst I slept I hear banging from the front door. It was my wife to be. My mother let her in and I broke the news to her that I could not be with a 26 year old who acts like a 6 year old, someone as self centred and self absorbed as her. She would not accept this, I told her to leave and that I needed to sleep. She eventually left and was later that day dropped back off at my mothers place by her mother and aunt who didn't even dare to come in and speak to us, just simply dumped her on us.

Stranded, I agreed (idiot) to drive her to her mothers place. Upon arrival I was met with death stares from my mother in law, I tried to explain my actions that I could not be with someone who reacts and acts soo illogically but it fell on deaf ears. My wife to be begged me to take her back which like the mangina I still was took her back with the wedding still going ahead (what was I thinking).

Change was promised but was not delivered to say the least. In the weeks to come the same cycle repeated in various ways but I knew deep down I would never marry this person. Each time she would suck me in with begging and talking of the fun times and how much she loved me but having now been red pilled, I knew that I simply might agree in the moment but would go back and say I would not be marrying her. It was now me who was playing the game back on her. This was not the person I was and it did not feel right but I knew I was destined for something else.

So here I am, 3 days ago she went through my phone without my knowledge to find out if I was cheating on her. Never would I cheat nor have I ever thought about cheating on someone as I had been cheated on in the past by ex's. I let it slide for the moment as I had nothing to hide and her searched turned up nothing.

The next morning after finishing work I went to the gym and had a good think about everything. When I got home I had a shower and when I got out the shower I noticed that she was awake and on her phone, when she put her phone down I picked it up and said to her. "Understand what is at stake right here right now, if you don't unlock this phone for me to go through it, we are done for good, no wedding, no nothing. Gone forever" this immediately sent her into a crazy fit of rage but she quickly realised how fleeting her situation was I started to count down from 5. Once the clock ticked down I would leave. Again I said if it's not unlocked we are done. She would NOT unlock the phone. I packed whatever I saw in sight quickly into my gym bag while she cried and begged. I jumped in the car and left for my brothers house.

Her mother tried contacting me, her aunt, her friends and it's given me such pleasure to block each and every one of them.

It's still early days but I will hold strong and not fold into this venomous trap ever again.

My wedding was just six weeks away but I have today officially cancelled it!

Thank you again MGTOW brothers. I am free. I will never be controlled and leeched from ever again.

I have been spreading the word to all my friends about MGTOW and to research it themselves.

MGTOW has literally saved my life. I am forever in MGTOW's debt.

'Chivalry IS dead' (irl pussy pass denial)

Throwseph120809 · 30 August 2019 · Archived copy · Reddit

So this happened to me last night. Was out celebrating at the pub with my mate and it was nearing the end of the evening. We'd been drinking so decided to hit the washroom before hitting the road.

There was a gigantic line for the now gender neutral individual bathroom stalls and it was somehow literally ALL men. One by one the stalls begin to open up, and one by one a woman exits (interesting distribution by gender if you ask me). And then suddenly it all makes sense..

My mate and I are nearing the front, when two rather attractive young females appear at the back of the line and one loudly announces 'Gentlemen. There is a woman here who needs to use the washroom so..'

Me (cutting her off): 'So what?'

Her (Incredulously): 'So you should let her use the washroom.'

Me (annoyed now): 'On what basis?'

Her (looking aghast): 'Wow. I guess chivalry IS dead.'

Me (deadpan): 'If by 'chivalry' you mean men letting women take advantage of their good will while offering nothing in return, then yeah. It's fucking dead. Now get to the back of the line.'

Two thirds of the line snickered as she dejectedly did as she was fucking told. A couple dudes looked like they wanted to spit on me, but the rest seemed to think it was hilarious.

Pussy. Pass. Denied.

Young men... listen to experience. Hear me warriors.

rockone4agoodtime · 14 December 2019 · Archived copy · Reddit

I did not find MGTOW until I was 16 years into marriage with three kids, two dogs, a mortgage and incredible debt. I was raised steadfast Christian religious and women were saints. I find out 16 years in, my wife cheated on me all throughout our engagement and early marriage. And then I find out she's bad mouthing me with everyone in our neighborhood that I am a bad father. My three kids love me to tears and I have been counseling them to not marry. I am doing battle with their biology and I am giving it my all. They are all grown and gone now and I use my failure in life as an example to them of what NOT to do.

Young men - hear me - focus on you - you are the prize. Your strong back, your wit, your intellect. You my good man, no matter your race or background - you, young man must stand for yourself because no one else will.

You are worthy. Never let a female shame you. Walk away. Let them wither and die. All women are the same - without exception. For women, they 100% cheat - it's just a matter of when and to what degree.

I am too old and too in debt to break free... if I can do one good thing - it's to have you hear my cry - my scream - do not marry, do not cohabitate and always remember how important you are to the human race, to civilization.

Fight young man, fight for you, fight for your brothers.

The best way to destroy a nation is to ensure its most fertile women are engaged in study for 4 yrs from the age of 18, only to spend another 4+ yrs building a career. They should prioritise the pursuit of consumer goods over family. This will ensure they have no or few children.

Thanks MGTOW for helping me understand My oldest son. He's redpilled AF!

PerfectCustomer · 14 April 2019 · Archived copy · Reddit

Dear MGTOW- I'm not one of you: I've been married for 30 plus years and it has been good to me emotionally and financially. Wife and I are GenXers with shitty families of origin and we set up our own franchise and in our case it worked. Today, I got so infuriated with a story I read on the Reddit front page, I broke my own rules, created an account and made a post to a PC sub. Go read my less than 24 hr history if you care. Before I get banned permanently, I wanted to thank this community specifically. I learned about MGTOW from your press coverage: because of you I no longer worry about my oldest son. In fact both me and my wife (his mom) are proud of him Going His Own Way. My boy is smart: was high school valedictorian, graduated a few years ago from University with over 4.0 from an Ivy League. Nothing to do with me: I couldn't afford it, he did it all himself. No college debt. Yay! He had a girlfriend in college. I never met her, nor did my wife because we couldn't afford to go Back East. My boy didn't like being Back East and wanted to come home to the West Coast. He didn't go to his own graduation and got a great job earning 6 figures in tech in the Bay Area (where I grew up). He told his girlfriend they both needed their own careers if they were going to continue but she moved back home with her parents and did jack. Once my son was established with his work, she wanted to move in with him, get married and have kids, saying he'd never have to worry about any kids because she'd take care of "everything". Yeah, right. He ghosted her right then and there. Smart boy! My son isn't interested in dating, has no girlfriend and is in full monk mode, saving money and gaining expertise and a reputation until he can get the fuck out of the Bay Area and command a "Bay Area Salary" without having to be there. I was worried about him at first, but after listening to him, he told me not to ask, bother or worry about him not having a girlfriend and he told me stories about how there are people (women AND men) in the tech world just waiting to fuck up careers of successful males. He told me how the whole story about women making less money than men in tech was bunk and when that story about Google salaries hit the press, it clicked with me and I realized he was MGTOW!! I didn't ask him so much as apologize for being invasive about girlfriends etc and used a few terms I learned from you guys. He suddenly was genuinely happy with me and asked: "WTF, Dad! You been reading MGTOW?" I confessed I had and now we have a much better understanding. He has so much to lose and nothing to gain from dealing with any women in today's social environment. In all fairness, my wife was as instrumental in redpilling our son as I was. Truth is, life is so much different than when she and I were in college it has been difficult for me to fully appreciate how hard it is for young men these days. I think the feminist entitlement agenda and social media have ruined it for all young people (men and women) these days. I guess I was pretty much redpilled early on because of my mother and my much older sister. Don't get me wrong: I love my wife: she is a badass and far more savvy than I ever will be with finances. The difference is she has never tried to "change" me. I was a wreck and a bad boy (Chad?) when she met me as my dad had just been killed by my mom in a car wreck. My much older sister was a Disco Era slut who fucked her way to infertility while my Borderline Personality Mom applauded my sister while trying her best to alienate any friendship I ever had. The only relevancy here is that ANYONE in your life who loves/appreciates you: friend, parent, girlfriend or spouse should be ENCOURAGING you to GO YOUR OWN WAY, helping you to achieve your fullest potential as a person and be happy and content with inner peace. I'm in my mid fifties with NO DEBT and I have my own business, a yacht and an awesome firearm collection (I don't live in California!). My wife helps with the business but the yacht and firearms are all my own business and she neither complains nor judges. My son has to come home on holidays just to escape the California PC culture and shoot some guns he could never own there. I won't bother you any more, but will continue to learn from you all as a lurker. My most sincere thanks to you all for helping me understand the world in which my oldest son must now live. Go your own way gentlemen and be proud and never compromise. Thank you.

TEXAS COURT ORDERS FATHER TO RAISE HIS SON AS A TRANSSEXUAL

Chris Menahan
InformationLiberation
Jul. 12, 2019

Texas father has been legally prohibited from raising his son as a boy because his ex-wife allegedly decided their son is a transgender girl and is preparing him for "chemical castration at age 8" and a future sex change surgery, which the father may be forced to help pay for.

So, my ex sent me an email after almost 3 years

shockred · 21 July 2019 · Archived copy · Reddit

We were in a relationship for 6.5 years. She cheated with a coworker (who cheated on his girlfriend with whom he was in a relationship for 8 years).

She monkey branched, plain and simple.

During the breakup she was cold, dismissive, sadistic, just plain awful. You know how it is. I couldn't believe someone could act like that.

Before the breakup, I had this stupid opinion men and women are the same and think the same. I was an absolute blue piller, women were a mistery, I could never explain her mood swings and strange behaviours.

I also thought that if you treated people well, they would treat you well in return.

So. Naive.

Anyway, I found the evidence of her cheating on her Facebook account. I confronted her. She was looking me in the eye for 5 minutes and lying to me while I had the evidence in my phone, which I was holding in my hand. Messages between her and her girl friend - she deleted everything else.

I showed her the evidence and after the "deer caught in headlights" look, her first words were: "Who gave you the right to log into my Facebook account?"

If I didn't slap a bitch then, I never will.

I ripped off the necklace I bought her for birthday 12 days before, told her she disgusts me and went away. Oh, by the way, this was all happening on my own birthday.

We had some on/off contact over the phone for the next 3 weeks. I knew she was going to end up with the other dude, so I asked her how are they going to be able to trust each other when she cheated on me and he cheated on his girlfriend after such long relationships, and she got mad at me for saying that.

I begged her to come to my place so we can talk about everything, and she refused. I tried to end the relationship on at least some "friendly" terms. She wouldn't do it.

The next 2 months were really hard for me. I seriously considered killing myself. Nothing made any sense. My whole world was turned upside down. I ended up going to psychotherapy to try and get over it. And let me tell you, my psychotherapy was bullshit - I had a female therapist and she didn't help at all. I guess a red pilled male would be better, but I never went through the effort of finding one. Luckily, I found the TRP subreddit, I read The Rational Male and lots of other material, I opened my eyes and life started making sense again.

Shit, I remember reading a post on monkeybranching on TRP and it exactly described what happened in my case. Point by point, from her mentioning the coworker and how he was funny right until the end. It blew my mind.

It took me almost 2 years to get over it. Since the breakup I had a few other girlfriends, one for a year and a half, but broke it up because I wouldn't tolerate their bullshit.

Eventually, the ex got pregnant and married the other guy. They have a kid. I didn't care when I found out and I still don't.

Finally we get to the point of the post.

It has been 1083 days since the breakup (I know because I broke up on my birthday). We had absolutely no contact since 1 month after the breakup.

And today she sends me an email saying: "Hey, how are you? How's your mom?"

Also, today is HER birthday.

First of all, the fuck kind of message is that? Almost 3 years of no contact and that's the best you come up with?

Second (and I really couldn't make this shit up), she's married (for 2 years or so), they have a kid, it's her birthday (back when we were together I had the whole day planned for her) and she's attempting to contact her ex boyfriend on her birthday. These bitches ain't loyal. I wonder how her husband would react if he found out.

Boy, something went wrong in her life.

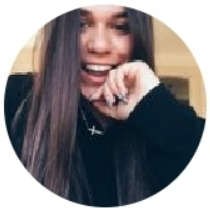

I didn't respond and I won't. And yeah, getting that email and deleting it felt pretty damn good.

There you go. Not much of a story, but I wanted to share it.

What Have Women Ever Done For Men To Demonstrate Their Love For Them Besides Spreading Their Legs?

You don't love a man like a man loves woman. Men die in war for women, write songs for them, make art for them, cross seas for woman. Men work 10 hour days and spend it all on their woman. I sure you "love" men in your own way, but it's not a man's love.
