Men and Women Are Not The Same, Rather, They Compliment Each Other.

Step 1: Boast about how much free speech you allow.

Step 2: Facilitate private corporations to monopolize all the major means of communication (internet, TV, radio, telecom, newspapers, etc.)

Step 3: Allow private companies to crack down on speech and heavily censor and sanction, especially speech that is contrary to their interests and by extension gov interests.

Step 4: Insist that these companies cannot be regulated by the government because "free market capitalism" or some bs.

Step 5: Profit. I have to applaud them. It was like a perfect game set up by the elite since ages. Now, it's all working in favour of them.

You see, with all of this, you're now left with a pathway to a communist/socialist country. When all other ideas are eradicated and censored, you're then left with only one idea. One thinking style, one party. What eventually happens? There is no opposition and even if there is, they are censored so much that, you eventually think that this so called "idea" is the leading way. Why? Because that's all you literally see in the media 24/7, thanks to all the propaganda set by the media outlets. They want to make you believe that the world is full of clowns, so you can eventually give up your spine and join the circus.

Then what happens? Your rights/freedoms slowly get taken away, in the name of your "safety" and eventually, you're left with the head of state (the government) making your decisions on behalf of you. Why? Because you have spinelessly let them take your rights away, and now, they completely own you.

For example, whatever now is happening in society, if you don't comply with their regulations, you're seen as an outcast. And they'll literally fire you from your job, and take away your qualifications if you even question their agenda or have any differing views. One of the great American Presidents said in his famous quote, "The next big threat to America is communism. And it will come in the disguise of socialism/liberalism."

How true is this? In the name of "freedom for all" these people have slowly taken away majority of the opposition ideas and your rights away, in the name of your "safety" and people blindly trust the government so much that, they don't even see the bigger picture. You give government an inch, they'll take away miles.

But, what's the end game of all of this? Who really benefits from all this? Not these clowns, neither the right or left. Only the elite and the truly powerful people behind the scenes benefit from all this. You must remember, it has been an old policy of the elite to "Divide and conquer." Keep the people busy and divided, and let them keep fighting, while behind the scenes they're the ones really enjoying the show.

That's all.

Men And Women Are Not The Same. Rather, We Compliment Each Other And This, Many Won't Understand.

2 January 2022 · /r/AntiFeminists · Archived copy · Reddit

We live in a society, where men are shamed and ridiculed for acting like "men." If they're saying the facts, they are said to be "Mansplaning" and if they sit comfortably with their legs wide, they're called "manspreading." If they say they want a "traditional wife" who knows her role in the home, they're called to be "misogynistic" and "women oppressor" and so on.

And we live in a society where women are shamed and ridiculed, if they say they want a "traditional household" where the man works and provides, while she looks after the home and children. If she doesn't go out and "empowers" herself in being a "strong, independent and free women" she's called a "pick me" and "old school." And eventually what happens? Even these types of women easily get brainwashed by the latter, in following the same route which makes most of these women miserable. If you go on the so called female dating strategy subs, majority of the women on there are "strong and independent" by societies standards, but they're 30 plus unmarried and low-key miserable.

The reality is, since the dawn of time society has always been Patriarchal. Patriarchy was the norm in majority of the societies, even in Kuffar societies. You have couple famous "rulers" such as Cleopatra and so on, who were women and lead, but that was only for a short period of time. Matriarchal societies collapsed very fast, and that's why, there isn't even that much history regarding it. It collapsed so fast, people couldn't even write too much about them. Men lead, and women followed. This was the norm since the dawn of time. Now just in the past 100 years, with all these movements and what not to "empower" women, it has all changed. One foolish person might say, women are so "empowered" now and they have all their rights and they're "free."

Yes, this might be the case on paper. But you want to know something? As much as women are free, they're enslaved to their corporate bosses/elite/government more than ever. In the name of "freedom", majority of these women show off their "goods", for attention and still complain when men "objectify" them. You can't have your cake and eat it too.

Today, the modern "empowered" female is a breathing parody of what her Liberal corporate overlords want her to be; useful only for being a sexual commodity for marketing products in advertisements, or raking in millions of Dollar$ for social media tech companies, by caking her face with makeup to attention-wh0re in what would have passed for soft-core p0rn at one time for desperate men, while hypocritically complaining about being "objectified" at the same time.

Such a woman herself, has reduced her value to that of a sexual object. She willingly demolished the protective layered defense of the traditional patriarchy, the role of the father, husband, brother and son. She instead replaced it with slavery to corporate bosses, sexually frustrated consumers, and obnoxiously demanding supervisors; all of whom only see her utility in either fulfillment of lust, or that of monetary gain and nothing more, until she withers away with the slightest sign of aging and her youthful years having been spent, to be forgotten by society only to be replaced by a more youthful substitute. Rinse and repeat.

Isn't this the reality? When the West called for women to be "empowered" that's^ what it meant. Unfortunately, men forgot how to lead, and women forgot their roles. I don't blame the men, because majority of men who are raised up in the west are brainwashed to hate their own gender. They think that, they will make the "perfect husband" by acting as a male fëminîst and "empowering" their women. While the women? Society has done a perfect job to make them feel that they were "oppressed" for many centuries, and now, that's it's time to go out and shake their booties for the whole world to see and to be "free." Is this what they call "empowering?"

In conclusion, both men and women forgot their roles. And as much as society says we're "progressing", the statistics of marriage/divorce/parental upbringing and overall happiness says otherwise. Before you "empowered" women and "male fëminîsts" get triggered and call me names, just think about something. Do you really believe, a quad masking male fèminíst would be able to defend this country, if opposition came to destroy it? Or would it be an "Patriarchal/Traditional/Sèxist" male who actually genuinely cares about this country? Just think about it.

Live Life Not To Impress Others, Rather Live Life On YOUR Terms.

3 January 2022 · /r/TheRedPill · Archived copy · Reddit

Think deeply and ponder for a moment. Think about all the times that you spent about caring what he/she/others will think about me, and valuing others opinions over yours. Think about all those moments, where you sacrificed what you wanted to say just so others can, to make them feel "better." Just think about all the times, where you have made your life decisions and choices (whether it's of your career, your clothing, your lifestyle, your thinking, views and mentality) based on what people will say about you. Just think about how much time you have wasted on all of this vs rather doing what you want to do.

Now, think about one thing. All these people's opinions that you cared so much for, if you were to die today and be put in your grave, will any of these people ponder over your death, for even a minute? Just think about it. I can bet you, while you have sacrificed your life away in pleasing people, majority of them will not care if you die. They will simply go on with their lives, while you? You're dead.

The people that you tried so hard to impress and made them a priority, were are they now? They are all gone. In today's selfish world, you cannot put others above you. Whether it's women, friends, or anything. Otherwise, you'll be left behind. You must remember society or anyone, they do not gaf about you. In the end, YOU have to make something of this life, and get ahead in anyway possible you can. Because in the end, it's just you. Since the beginning of time, it has only been survival of the fittest, and never survival of the unfittest. Nobody can help you, except yourself.

You being the so called "politically correct guy" in order to "fit in" with society, or being the so called "male feminist" in order to attract women, or reading some random article on, "How to act alpha to get women" or whatever, will only do you more harm than any good. Remember, fake attracts fake. Real attracts real.

Acting someone that you're not, trying to be someone that you can't be, just in hopes to "please" the people will in the end, do you nothing. Just think about it. If someone can't defend themselves, and their whole lives revolves around in being a people pleaser and a fake, how will they be able to lead anyone? How can they gain the trust of anyone, if they're fake to their own selves?

Majority of the people have this idea that, if they become "PC" that they'll be accepted in society. While this may be true, the reality is, you will never be deeply respected by anyone. I disagree with many people, but I still respect them because they're being themselves and they don't suck up to anyone. But the reality is, majority of the people follow an agenda. Yes. They follow what society wants them to do and be, and they suppress their own desires in order to follow what they (society/elite/random strangers) want. I rather have 2 people that genuinely respect me for my views, vs having 100 fake people who say they "respect" me, but they're also fake like you. Negativity and fake, attracts the same types of people.

Just think about it. If you have an open enemy who says he "hates" you, versus having a so called "friend" who says he's your friend, but he backstabs you when you were least expecting it, because you 'thought' he was your "friend." What hurts more? Of course, the hypocrisy of your so called "friend" who was acting like it, while your enemy? You openly knew he was an enemy. Hypocrisy is far worse then being brutally upfront and honest.

The point is gentlemen, don't conform to the expectations of society and people have of you. No matter what you do you in your life, whether it's good, bad or anything, everyone will always have something to say. You cannot please everyone and you cannot keep them all happy. If you do this, people will then ask, "Why didn't you do that?" If you do that, then they will ask, "Why didn't you do this?" The number 1 mistake that most men make is, they sacrifice their own ambitions and goals to please others, while forgetting themselves. And by the time they wake up and realize all this, it's too late. And, all the people they wanted to impress never cared anyway. Because certainly in today's world, who has the time to?

1 of My favorite quotes of all time is from the Movie Wall Street. Where 1 of the character says, "Man looks in the abyss, and there's nothing staring back at him. At that moment, man finds his character. And that is what keeps him out of the abyss." Indeed. Only when we look at the abyss, that's when we reflect and realize how much delusion we were in.

In conclusion gentlemen, don't put your purpose of life in what others want you to do and achieve. Rather, do what you have to do. Of course, on the journey to find your inner peace and happiness you will overcome many obstacles, pain and suffering. But what doesn't kill you, only makes you stronger. And whatever you may face, it will only add on to the list of experiences in life which you will learn from. Take advice from gentlemen that you consider wise, and always keep an open mind. Because there is always something to learn from someone. There will always be a person smarter, stronger and wealthier than you. Don't let your ego come in the way, making you lose valuable wisdom that you may gain. In the end, listen to everyone, extract all the knowledge you possibly can, and live life on your own terms. Never let anyone dictate how you live your life, and never take shi from anyone.

Why Mastering Stoicism Will Make You Emotionally Unbreakable And Is A Must For Every Man to Practice?

5 January 2022 · /r/TheRedPill · Archived copy · Reddit

I wrote this awhile back, and I think I even posted it here. Unfortunately, old account got shadow banned for "wrong think." Mastering Stoicism has become more necessary than ever for men. Due to so much uncertainty regarding all that's going on, more loss of freedoms and restrictions by the gov by the day, each day they have some new narrative/propaganda that's going on, which is affecting our lives in one way or another. For example where I live, we are back into crazy dystopian lockdowns. More than 80% of population got vaccinated, and plus with all these implementations of vaccine passports and what not, still we're in a crazy lockdowns which was just announced yesterday. Everything that you can name of, is now closed.

Now first of all, what is Stoicism? Stoicism is the endurance of pain or hardship without the display of feelings and complaint. Most of us, I bet have heard about 3 famous Greek Philosophers. Aristotle, Socrates and Plato. But, I want to talk about Stoicism because a lot of people don't know about it, and many confuse it with being emotionless or numb. Nope. That's not what Stoicism is. Stoicism is a philosophy, which was invented in the early 3rd century. Combined with TRP, it can lead to a very incredible and a positive life. It allows you to minimize negative emotions and maximize your gratitude and joy. There were 3 stoic principal leaders: Marcus Aurelius, Epictetus and Seneca.

Number 1. Emperor Marcus Aurelius was a big adherent of stoicism and it helped him lead Rome for 2 decades. He wrote many things regarding stoicism in his journals. Stoicism gave Aurelius a huge advantage in life and in his kingship. He lead Rome through many disastrous battles, plagues and through many hardships. But, he always kept his cool and was never negative. He took whatever came at him, in a very stoic and positive way, with the right mind set.

Number 2. Epictetus was born a slave. He founded his own school of Stoicism and taught many great minds, and 1 of them was the future emperor Marcus Aurelius. Epictetus taught everything, not just theoretically, but everything from the philosophy of life, how to handle different situations that we are faced with each day, and greatly, how to Master Stoicism in your day to day life to keep you calm and at peace. He taught us that, all external events are beyond our control. We should accept everything that comes to us calmly, because that thing is not in our control. But, however, each individual is solely responsible for their own actions. We cannot blame society or anyone else regarding our own decisions that we partake in. Each individual is solely responsible for whatever they do, that is in their control.

Number 3. Seneca was a play writer and 1 of Rome's most wisest brokers. He wrote many books on stoicism and was an adviser to Nero (Another Roman emperor).

Key principles and beliefs:

Number 1. Live in agreement with nature. We Men are rational beings. We use our common sense, logic and practicality in our day to day life unlike women, who base majority of things, off of their emotions and "how they feel at that exact moment."

"Living in agreement with nature" simply means, behaving rationally in each and every situation like a logical being. Not basing everything off of emotions.

Number 2. Live by virtue. They make possible ease, self-mastery, and joy in leading a morally principled life. The four cardinal virtues are prudence, justice, courage and temperance.

Number 3. Focus on what you can control, and accept what you can't. Many things in our day to day life, is in our hands that we can control fully. But, many things aren't. Whether it's the weather, nature of women, politics, all these restrictions, or the clown world, none of this is in our control. So, we shouldn't worry. We should accept how it is, because even if we worried, what can you do about it? Nothing. It's not in our control, but what's in our control is, accepting the cold hard facts and leading a virtuous life, which focuses on bettering ourselves, and something which benefits humanity.

Number 4. Distinguish between good, bad and indifferent things. You must acknowledge in your day to day life, between what's right and wrong and indifference doesn't mean coldness. You can't change them (AW-ALT) but take them as they are.

Number 5. Take action. The power to shape your life in whatever way you want, is in YOUR hands. Take this opportunity and take action, and do something positive with it that will benefit you.

Number 6. Practice Misfortune. Ask what can go wrong. For example, if someone was to smoke all their life, what would happen? Lung cancer and many types of diseases and cancers. So, what we do? We tell them not to smoke, because the consequences of their actions will do nothing but harm them. Exact thing we men do. We remind ourselves of the consequences of thinking with what's downstairs, and getting "emotional" rather than thinking rationally, and long term. Just imagine, if all the divorced men whose wives made their lives miserable, were to have all this knowledge? They would have been way happier and never made the mistakes they did. And now, they live in regret, but at least they realized it. We have to make our brothers aware, and make them wake up before it's too late. Living in the so called "hope strategy" will make you nothing but delusional, and it's like your in Lala dream land. The real world doesn't work that way. As a famous saying goes, "Iron sharpens iron, so 1 man sharpens one another."

Number 7. Add a reserve clause to your actions. True inner peace and happiness is not found in being very rich, or having that very expensive car, or that big house. That so called "happiness" fades away very fast. Winning is the not the ultimate goal, rather, the ultimate goal is being the best player and playing the best you can, which ironically, will lead to your win. Rather than only thinking of winning and drowning in self confidence, which in the end, does more harm than good. It's good to have high self confidence, but always remember to be in your limits. Your victories and over confidence can lead to your destruction. The point is, always remain humble.

Number 8. Love everything that happens (Amor fati). Now let's say something happened that we didn't wish for. What would happen? You either accept it or live in negative thoughts, which affects your mental health. What's the more wiser option? Accept it. Stoicism calls this, "The art of acquiescence." The first step is to accept it, and then the next step is to love everything that happens. Why? Because those things ultimately are not in our control.

Number 9. Turn Obstacles into opportunities. You know why most people are always negative? They see obstacles as barriers and live in this deception, that they cannot overcome it. There are many instances in life, that you can turn those obstacles into opportunities for your own success. But you know what the catch is? Being stoic, and thinking everything through from all fronts and then analyzing everything and then coming to conclusions, will eventually lead you to success. This "art" many cannot do. Most people are a slave to their emotions, and never be that. Be rational, thus be stoic.

Number 10. Be mindful. In this life, you have the power over your emotions, no matter what those emotions maybe. You must remember, any emotion that you get, will either do you good or bad. 1 of my favorite sayings of all time is "Before thinking of a short term gain, first think of it's long term affects." You must master the art of controlling your emotions, and being practical and logical no matter what. And rather thinking of the short term gain, first think of the long term affects of that action.

In the end brothers, it's AWALT and that is not in our hands. But what is in our hands is, how we accept it. And the best thing a man can do in the modern age is focus on himself, do good in whatever he can, and Master Stoicism in whatever life throws at him. And being always very sharp of his surroundings and Mastering Machiavellianism.

As they say, never be so nice that people take advantage of you, and never be so harsh that they only fear you. Balance is key, and now, this is were Machiavellianism comes in. You must function through life based on the tactics that apply in each and every aspect of your life. This is were intellect and common sense comes in, and unfortunately, many lack of it, no matter if they have more "degrees" than a thermometer.

In conclusion my brother's, no one is going to help you function through this clown and circus world. In the end, it's only you. And you have to accept that harsh reality, before your life becomes miserable, because you stayed in that delusional fantasy. Remain that person, who is always stoic and who is unbreakable no matter what life throws at him.

Some famous stoic sayings:

The best revenge is not to be like your enemy. Marcus Aurelius. Waste no more time arguing what a good man should be. Be One. — Marcus Aurelius

You could leave life right now. Let that determine what you do and say and think.—Marcus Aurelius

He who fears death will never do anything worth of a man who is alive.—Seneca

Life is very short and anxious for those who forget the past, neglect the present, and fear the future.—Seneca You have power over your mind — not outside events. Realize this, and you will find strength.—Marcus Aurelius

Wealth consists not in having great possessions, but in having few wants.—Epictetus

True happiness is to enjoy the present, without anxious dependence upon the future, not to amuse ourselves with either hopes or fears but to rest satisfied with what we have, which is sufficient, for he that is so wants nothing. The greatest blessings of mankind are within us and within our reach. A wise man is content with his lot, whatever it may be, without wishing for what he has not. —Seneca

Indeed. These quotes man... Just too deep. These guys were truly way ahead of their times.

Hypergamy Doesn't Care Whatever You Did For Her.

13 January 2022 · /r/TheRedPill · Archived copy · Reddit

Hypergamy is when women find a good match, she will still delay and see if she can do better, or attract a even higher value man. Or, if she found a good match, she will monkey branch to a potential higher value male, while she's "with" you. Remember gentleman, while she's with you, her subconscious mind is always telling her that she can do better than this, and she will be on the constant lookout for a "better" guy. You shouldn't be surprised as this is in her natural biology.

But is she on the constant lookout 24/7 for a "better" guy than you? The answer is No. As long as you have frame, and she respects you, and you have other options, and are on your purpose, she will stick around. But slowly, if you start slacking "frame" and make her your first priority in life instead of your ambitions, then don't be surprised if she cheats or dumps you. She likes the idea of you, and wants to be part of your life. But she doesn't want your life to revolve around her.

Where majority of men get it wrong, and I learnt the hard way as well was that, as you become more "close" and spend more time with her, you slowly start to open up and lose "frame." The worst thing a man can ever do is "open up" to a women. The best advice I got was from a senior writer here which was, women have this idea ingrained in them that men are strong, stoic and non emotional beings. Just imagine a Lion for a second. We have this idea ingrained in us that a Lion is the king of the jungle, and a strong animal that can kick ass. But say, this Lion was to show weakness and "open up" what would happen? You would shit test the hell out of the Lion like it's nothing because you now know that it was all talk, and you would think to yourself as a fool that you ever thought this Lion was so "strong." In just matter of seconds, all this "respect" you had for the lion as the "King of the jungle" would go down the drain and you would now look at the same lion as "weak." Same exact way women see men, once they open up and show any weakness. That's why being emotionally stoic and strong and showing no emotion infront of a women is very necessary.

My dad died? I lost my job? Or any tragedy happened in my life? No one cares. If you want to "open up" go cry to your best friend, but NEVER infront of a women. I learnt the hard way, and we all made mistakes. The only person that can fix your life, is yourself. Good friends will give beneficial advices and what not, but no one can make you do anything except yourself. And women? She actually fears that if you open up to her, she'll lose all the respect she had for you. She cannot fix your problems, and if you think by "opening up" to her will make her "respect" you more? That's the easiest way for you to get cheated on, and make her drier than the Sahara Desert and she'll leave you faster than lighting strikes. Always remember that Lion analogy.

Coming back to hypergamy, the reality is, the average women who is liberal minded and who went to Uni/college has had more cocks stuffed in her mouth then you can imagine. Most women are only plate material. If you think of marrying anyone of them, then I'm sorry. There isn't a bigger fool than you. After getting used and abused by many "bad boys" in her uni days, majority of women then become emotionally broken/damaged man-hating feminists, who you will never be to able to please. Why? Because she has experienced it all. Now, her standards are even higher.

Remember gentlemen, to "mess around" a women will never choose the beta buxx Dr Kareem, or that soyboy male feminist who gets applauded by everyone for standing up in favour of women rights. To "mess around", a women will only choose the most "baddest" boy ever who makes her panties soaked by even the taught of him, and after she had her fair share of fun, she will then blame those "bad boys" for being so "toxic" and she will become a emotionally damaged man-hating feminist. Also known as the broken or Alpha widowed women.

I'm a Muslim. A lot of people have a misconception of Muslim girls being "virgin" and will submit to her husband till the day she dies, once she gets married. I can testify, Muslim girls are one of the best chameleons out there preying on the beta buxxes (to please her religious parents) after having their good fair share of fun in university.

Beta buxxes, aka which I like to call Dr Kareem's who put their head down and study for 12 long hard years for a good salary (and think it will make women attracted to them) and to find a "good" wife are only suitable for her after she had her fair share of fun, and wants him for his "lifelong" comfortable income and as a "husband" material. But deep down, she wishes she could have it "all" and wishes that the Dr Kareem would be as her unreliable exes. But she didn't marry the bad boy because either he didn't stay around, or because they aren't wealthy, or of what "others" will think of her, if she's with them. (Societal pressure). So she ends up settling with the "boring safe guy" who will pay all her bills, but she will never be truly wet for him.

Now, many women think they are entitled to the top 1 percent of men, just because of their beauty. We have many simps who worship them, and because of social media validation and so on, many women think just because of their beauty, they deserve a HVM. When in reality, many of these women lack character, femininity, and genuine respect for men. The only thing they are bringing to the table is their pussy. Other than that? Nothing. They hate a man, if that man provides no value to her. It all comes back to two things which is money and attention (which beta buxx provides) or emotional rollercoaster/drama (which alpha provides). Other than that, 95% of men provide no value to her. So, she dislikes majority of men.

The reality is, there will always be a better man in wealth, status and looks. No matter how much you "self improve" there will always be a better man out there than you. But this doesn't mean you stop "self improving." The day you stop self improving is the day you die.

All men must remember, if she's with you right now, you're her highest option available. The day any higher value male comes along and interests her, or if you lose frame, she will be gone. All men must remember 1 thing, Hypergamy doesn't care. No matter how much frame you have, or whatever you did for her, she doesn't care. It's in her biology to mate with the highest value male possible she can find, and she will leave you once she finds someone higher of value. And this is where the harsh red pill truth comes in, and you have to accept the cold hard fact no matter how much it shocks you.

In conclusion, no matter how long you've been with her, you must acknowledge hypergamy is ingrained in her natural biology. Be emotionally stoic and strong, never open up, stay on your purpose and don't make her the #1 priority in your life. The other best advice I got was, "Whatever it is, always do less with women, and the more they'll do with you." And in the end, if you follow everything, and she still ends up dumping you, or cheating on you, then you must be stoic and acknowledge, "In the end, she's never yours. It's only your turn."

My Experiences Working At One Of The Most Red Pilling Jobs On Earth.

16 January 2022 · /r/TheRedPill · Archived copy · Reddit

This is a long one, and don't mind my grammar errors as some had complained of it in my other posts. English is not my mother tongue.

Back when I was 18 and fresh out of high school, I had randomly met this person at the mall. You know, just casually. We had a good conversation, and this guy to me seemed pretty based. Turns out, he actually owned a very high end club near where I lived at the time, and asked me to join and bartend because he liked my communication skills. Where I live, you can legally serve alcohol when you're 18. At this time, I wasn't "red pill" at all. I had a classic case of oneitis which I really couldn't get over (high school things) and she had cheated on me, because I was just too open and honest with her. Basically I had no game, was too genuine and frank. Thinking back now, I was dumb and in a delusional fantasy world of where, "I'll marry this unicorn and live happily ever after." After breaking up with her, I somewhat had "woken up" to female nature, but I hadn't fully yet. But working at the club changed my life forever, and for the better.

Coming from a blue pill world, I was completely SHOCKED in my first couple weeks of working there. I just couldn't handle it. There's a myth of men being "majority" of the customers at the club. In my experience, the ratio was pretty balanced and majority of the women who used to come, was for their classic "girls night out." So many women I have served alcohol to and overhearing their conversations, one thing I must say, "Girls only just want to have fun." Majority of women have no purpose, or mission in life. Majority of what they used to talk about was, either their "bad boy" bf who's keeping them on the edge and complaining to their GFS about him, or it was about the guy who they wanted to fuck and their GFS giving their advice on "how to catch him."

The funny part is, as much as the feminists say, "Women want respect and want to be cared for" that's far from the truth. Women know instinctively, it's only their beauty which will attract a man. Their girlfriends always used to give advices such as, "show off more of your cleavage or booty girl!" And things such as this. Women instinctively know, they're only good for sex and they will do such things to "attract" a HVM in their eyes. They know their true value, but they act as if they bring so much "more" to the table, other than their pussy. That's how they cope with their random feminist ideals.

As TRP says, "Women want drama, entertainment, and something to talk about in their lives" and want that "emotional rollercoaster", this is nothing but the truth. Majority of the women that used to come who were fuckable, were always complaining about their boyfriends. Many were regulars, so I used to see them often and overhear their conversations. And it was the same complaining and bitching each time, about how their bfs are "unreliable and unpredictable" etc to their girlfriends. While they used to say this, one thing my BP mindset used to tell me was, "If he's so unreliable and unpredictable and all that, why's she still with him?"

Now as I know, unreliability/unpredictability and mysteriousness keeps that pussy wet and keeps her on the edge, with that highs and lows of the emotional rollercoaster. None of these women had the boring and reliable "Beta Billy" as their boyfriends. All had (because they were young) the stereotypical "bad boy" who's unreliable but she still can't get enough of him, and keeps chasing him. Betas bore women and make her pussy drier than the Sahara Desert. Why? Because they're so predictable and just plain boring. They have nothing interesting or entertaining going on in their lives. Girls just wanna have fun, and need that consistent drama/entertainment to be on her toes and want to be in a constant "emotional rush" which only the "bad boy" can provide.

And then oh, also, there were few regular milfs. I think they were in their late 30s or early 40s, married and had kids. And they used to sit at the same table. So as I used to serve them, I used to over hear them complaining about their husbands which we all know as the "good boy beta billy." None of these women were genuinely "happy" to be with their husbands. Only trophy wives at best, and were always complaining of how their husband is working 24/7 and not taking them to trips and what not. And how "he just comes home and sleeps" or "how he doesn't give enough time to her" or "how he didn't finance the new car and says it's gonna be too much bills" etc. One thing that bothered me of all this was, these milfs while they're coming to the club and having fun, her husband is working his ass off to keep her "happy" and they just never appreciate it. And always only complaining about their husbands. Once you're married, no matter how "alpha" or "red pill" you are, over time, you lose "frame" especially when the kids come in the picture. You can't give her the "emotional rollercoaster ride" 24/7 and over a period of time, it becomes a boring old routine and she will eventually go through her epiphany phase again, of riding the cock carousel just like when she was younger. She wants the "excitement" and the drama she had, before marrying the beta buxx. And unfortunately, beta billy will never be able to provide that excitement. Or, she will do the classic, "I'm not happy" and screw him over in the divorce courts. The quote that resonates with me a lot from here is, "She's never yours, it's just your turn." There is literally no point of marriage for a man in the modern age, especially with these corrupt divorce laws. Marriage is a failed institution, and the divorce statistics don't lie.

The waitresses that worked there, all of them were hot and fuckable. I didn't hit on any of them, but the thing that completely stunned me was the dishwasher was piping down the cocktail waitresses. [??] This dude is what you call a typical "jerk" with the tattoos and what not. He had a huge physical frame and he had also played college football. Idk why he chose to do a dishwashing job, but he was fast and good at it. And one thing about him I remember, this guy did not give a fuck about whatever anyone taught about him. He said what he wanted, and had that idgaf attitude. I remember once, I was giving some plates to him and the waitress he was piping down was also there. So he goes like, "I can't wait to do you after work" and she was blushing and giggling. I had this idea ingrained in my mind that women don't fuck losers or guys like dishwashers, but oh boy, I was wrong.

This just shows, "She will make rules for the beta, and drop her panties in a flash for an alpha." The guy who makes that pussy tingle, she will not make him go through all the hoops and hurdles to obtain that pussy, even though he doesn't have money or "status." She will signal him, and because he knows how to read those signals, he will be fucking her in no time. While beta billy? He had to make the list and go through all the hoops and hurdles that she had set up for him, only for her to manipulate him with sex and little does he know, he's only her "safe good boy option." Also, that real attraction that's supposed to there, is just not there. Majority of the "alpha widowed" women, will never in a million years be attracted to their boring beta buxx hubbies. Once she's Alpha windowed, it's over for the guy who marries her.

And oh, also, for the guys who think the waitress is "flirting" with them at the club? She's only doing it, so you can tip her more. Overhearing the waitresses talking to themselves, one thing I'll say, majority of these women are hypocrites. Majority of them are swearing their asses off on the customers in the kitchen, while when she goes to hand their food, she has that fake lovey dovey smile and what not, and unfortunately many men fall for it. That smile, or that big cleavage that she's tryna show off, is not because she "likes" you. It's only because, you can tip her more and fuck the right off. A lot of these waitresses get hit on constantly, and they know how to manipulate men in getting what they want, and working at these places makes them even more sharper and clever regarding it.

And oh lastly, how can I forget the club fights. I witnessed just too many, and majority of the fights were for 1 reason only. And that was pussy. When the guys got drunk and something happened, or someone said some shit about some chick, Damn. I myself had to call the police once as the guys were going at it like crazy. Some guy's friend revealed to him while he was drunk that, he had slept with his girlfriend before they were together. Then this guy because he was also drunk, just got up and punched him and they went at it, and then their other friends joined in and it was like a brawl in a Ice hockey game where everyone joins in the fun. A scene to be witnessed LOL. Why? Just because over a piece of pussy. The chick wasn't even there. The guys did good amount of damage to the tables and what not, and I think they paid a huge fine. But this is what happens, when you take pussy too seriously. If that guy was red pill, he would have known, "She's never yours, it's just your turn" and would have remained stoic and used her only as a plate. But unfortunately, we have guys killing each other, over fucking pussy. Like what the fuck. That's why, never get overly emotionally invested with any women. It's never worth it in the end.

After awhile working there, I quit because I was moving away from that area. But that job changed my whole stance on how I view women and marriage and the world in general. The truth set me free. I used to have this blue pill mindset of how, "I'll marry some unicorn and live happily ever after" and all that bs, but working there really made me wake up. Then shortly after, I discovered TRP and connected all the dots and it all made sense. There is not one thing I can ever disagree with TRP on, because I have witnessed majority of the things right in front of my eyes. Every saying, and every "theory" is indeed correct. RP not only saves lives, but makes you wake the fuck up, to the harsh truth and reality of the world, which society will never teach you. Society wants you to be a loser and dumb, just like any other blue piller out there. I advise all the men, to work at these types of places for the hell of it. I guarantee you, you'll truly wake up and will come out of the blue piller matrix.

Thanks to all the writers here, who have shared and contributed their golden knowledge and wisdom over the years. Every once in a while, every man needs that harsh, but true wake up call when he slips away, and heads towards the delusional fantasy of the blue pill mindset. And this sub indeed, provides that wake up call to get back on track and on your mission.

Some Great Eye Opening Quotes From, "The Manipulated Man." A Book Which Was Written By A Woman.

3 February 2022 · /r/TheRedPill · Archived copy · Reddit

TL;dr: If you don't have the time to read all the quotes now, save this post and read it later.

Note that the book "The Manipulated Man" was written in 1971 by a german woman.

The knowledge and info was always out there, but society and people (mainstream) have been brainwashed and manipulated to such an extent that, they would never acknowledge the truth written in this book. I think it's a must-read for every man as it'll lead to a lot of eureka moments and break the shackles that you're chained in due to indoctrination by people who were fooled themselves.

One of the biggest issues is, that humans' ego has become so overinflated during the last couple of centuries that they deny any kind of evidence that does not fit in their world view. They do not understand themselves. Why would they? There's no need, living a comfortable life with no evolutionary pressure to think outside the box. They talk the talk, but don't walk the walk. You've probably seen it hundreds of times: People say one thing, and do another. (Actions >>>> Words) That's especially the case for women who pretend to know exactly what they want. Truth is, they don't. Even on Reddit, it's all just hypocritical nonsense, virtue signalling everywhere. They'll call you names, bully you, check your post history and cherry pick some comment of yours to justify their apparent superiority simply because you believe in something else.

We've got facts, books, studies, life experience etc to provide proof for our point of view, they don't. Aside from that, it's not even our job to convince someone to change. You can lead a horse to water, but you can't make it drink. Whatever they may say - it doesn't matter because we reap the benefits from facing the truth while they'll end up hurting themselves a dozen times first before realizing that we're right. Anyways, quotes start from here. Enjoy.

"It is quite incredible that men, whose desire for knowledge is unbounded in every other field, are really totally blind to these facts, that they are incapable of seeing women as they really are: with nothing else to offer but a vagina, two breasts, and some punch cards programmed with idle, stereotyped chatter; that they are nothing more than conglomerations of matter, lumps of stuffed human skin pretending to be thinking human beings."

"If only man would stop for one moment in his heedless rush toward progress and think about this state of affairs, he would inevitably realize that his efforts to give woman a sense of mental stimulation have been totally in vain. It is true that woman gets progressively more elegant, more well-groomed, more "cultured," but her demands on life will always be material, never intellectual."

"Men seem incapable of realizing that women entirely lack ambition, desire for knowledge, and need to prove themselves, all things which, to him, are a matter of course. They allow men to live in a world apart because they do not want to join them. Why should they? The sort of independence men have means nothing to women, because women don't feel dependent. They are not even embarrassed by the intellectual superiority of men because they have no ambition in that direction."

"She takes care that man is directly trained for a particular purpose: he must work and put the fruits of his labor at her disposal. Woman has had this aim in her view throughout the upbringing of her child, and she engenders in him a series of conditioned reflexes which cause him to produce everything to satisfy her material needs. She does this by manipulating him from his first year of life. Consequently, by the time his education is complete, man will judge his own value to be woman's estimation of his usefulness. He will be happy only when he has won her praise and produced something of value to her. One might well say that woman becomes a kind of value scale. At a given moment, a man can refer back to it and judge the value or futility of his actions. If he spends any time on something which has no value in terms of this chart, football, for example, he will do his best to compensate quickly for this minus point by increasing his activity on the plus side of the scale – which explains why women do not object too strongly to football or other types of spectator sports"

Yet man is only a tiny cog in a gigantic business machine, he himself being in effect exploited at every turn. When he drives others, he drives himself most of all. His orders are really orders from above, passed on by him. If the men at the top occasionally take time to praise him, it is not in order to make him happy – it is only to spur him on, to stimulate him to greater effort. For man, who was brought up to be proud and honorable, every working day is merely an endless series of humiliations. He shows enthusiasm for products he finds useless, he laughs at jokes he finds tasteless, he expresses opinions which are not his own. Not for a moment is he allowed to forget that the merest oversight may mean demotion, that one slip of the tongue may spell the end of his career.

"Women, on the other hand, need children to justify their laziness, stupidity, and lack of responsibility. Both sexes exploit the child, therefore, for their own ends. Although the whole world is full of half-starved orphans, every couple produces its own brood. Man must have a reason to be enslaved when, later on, his sexual powers have declined, and this reason must also explain his enslavement to a particular woman. This is simple. She is, after all, the mother of his children. Since woman is the excuse for his subjugation, he can have only one at a time (in every industrial society, man is monotheistic – i.e., monogamous); more than one god (woman) would make him insecure, lead him to question his own identity, and throw him back into the state of freedom he is constantly trying to escape. Questions such as this do not interest woman. As she does not think abstractly, the problems of existential anxiety do not touch her. She has no need for a deity to give meaning to her life. All she needs is an excuse for making one particular man work for her long after he ceases to want to go to bed with her."

"This may suggest that women decide in favor of a home and family simply because they love children. But women are not capable of the unconditional love a child should have. This can easily be proved. Women only care for their own children, never those of others. A woman will accept a child who is not her flesh and blood only when she is physically incapable of having her own (and this only after everything has been tried – including artificial insemination by an unknown donor). Although orphanages throughout the world are full of appealing, needy children, and although the newspapers and TV report daily on the number of little Africans, Indians, or South Americans who are starving to death, a woman would rather give a stray dog or cat a home than a deserted child. And yet she pretends to love children."

"Once a human being is free, if it happens to be rather stupid (and women are stupid) it will be quite happy with its freedom and try to retain it. As the unintelligent human being is incapable of abstract thought, it will never feel the need to leave its familiar terrain and consequently will never fear that its very existence might be threatened. It is not afraid of death because it cannot imagine it. There is no need to find a meaning or reason for life: its desires are fulfilled in its own personal comforts, and these provide reason enough for living. Even the need for religion is comparatively unknown to a person of low intelligence and, if it does arise, it is very easily satisfied. A stupid person has an infinite capacity for self-adoration. If a woman chooses to believe in God, it is for one reason only: she wants to go to heaven. And what, after all, is the dear Lord but yet another man who will arrange things for her? The situation of the intelligent person, i.e., a man, is very different. At first he welcomes his newfound freedom with a sense of relief, drunk with the vision and perspective of life before him. But the moment he puts this freedom to the test, that is, as soon as he wants to commit a given act which might send him in a given direction, he gets scared: since he is capable of abstract thought, he knows that each of his acts has a series of possible consequences, not all of which can be predicted. If he decides to act of his own free will, the responsibility will be his alone."

"No, one can hardly assume men do all this for pleasure and without feeling a desire for change. They do it because they have been manipulated into doing it: their whole life is nothing but a series of conditioned reflexes, a series of animal acts. A man who is no longer able to perform these acts, whose earning capacity is lessened, is considered a failure. He stands to lose everything – wife, family, home, his whole purpose in life – all things in fact which give him security. Of course one might say that a man who has lost his capacity for earning money is automatically freed from his burden and should be glad about this happy ending – but freedom is the last thing he wants. He functions, as we shall see, according to the principle of pleasure in non-freedom. To be sentenced to life-long freedom is a worse fate than life-long slavery."

"Women live an animal existence. They like eating, drinking, sleeping – even sex, providing there is nothing to do and no real effort is required of them. Unlike a man, a woman will rarely make an effort to get her partner into bed. If, however, he is already there, and she hasn't planned to set her hair or undertake some other form of large-scale beauty repair, and there is no TV program she wants to see, she will not be averse to making love, provided he is prepared to be the active partner. But even the euphemisms "active" for the male partner and "passive" for the female do not conceal the fact that woman allows man to serve her in bed just as he does in every other sphere of her life. Even though intercourse may give a man pleasure in the long run, it is nothing more than a service to a woman, in which the man is the better lover, arousing desire more skillfully, quickly, and making it last longer."

"An only child affords no benefits, only disadvantages. The woman never seems as unprotected and tied to her home as she should be. Apart from that, something might happen to the child, possibly when the mother is past child-bearing age. Then she would have no excuse left for having things made comfortable for her, and her husband would have no reason to go on working for her alone. Also, an only child has no playmate, and the mother would have to play with him; if there is anything a woman loathes, it is having to play with children. Children are curious about absolutely everything, but a woman has no interests at all except the few idiotic forms of entertainment offered by her house and her own body. With the best will in the world, it is difficult for a mother to enter into the adventurous world of a child. She may have a small repertoire of insipid stock phrases to amuse a toddler ("look who's coming now"), but by the age of two a child has started to think for himself and woman is left behind. The cliché about the common interests of father and son (father cannot stop playing with his son's model railway) cannot be applied to mother and son, or even to mother and daughter. If a woman makes an effort and spends half an hour playing with her child (more might stunt its mental development), she tells the whole world, as if it were a great achievement, which of course it is, in terms of self-denial."

"Several children, on the other hand, can be trained by emotional blackmail. As they are all dependent on their mother's approval, she has only to show a slight preference for one and the others will do anything she tells them to. Every child lives in constant fear that its mother will "withdraw" her love and give it to someone else. And if this fear does not create affection between siblings (as if woman would care!), it at least increases their competitiveness and performance. Even later, when the children have long since grown up, they will still vie with each other for their mother's respect. The sons satisfy their ambitions in their work, the daughters in the amassing of property."

"A man could, of course, condition his sexual needs as easily as a woman, provided his training started at a very early age. Sufficient proof of this are the monks, the majority of whom survive without sexual satisfaction (nobody will seriously maintain that they are all eunuchs). But instead of learning to suppress his needs, a man will allow them to be encouraged whenever possible – by women, of course, since their interests are mainly directed toward man's libido."

"A woman does not want to stay at home just to rest (what has she, after all, to rest from?) – but she is addicted to pleasure, and she needs time for her pleasures. And what are they? Baking cakes, ironing the laundry, making clothes, cleaning windows, curling her hair, painting her toenails, and sometimes even – and we will come to this later – doing a little shorthand and typing. And just to make sure that no one recognizes the fact that for her all this is pleasure, she calls these pleasures "housework." She is only indulging in orgies of "personal hygiene" to please her partner. And if one of her silly little pleasures is to sit at a desk in an outer office, translating ready-made thoughts (ready-made since they are provided by professional men) into a visual medium, well, let her call it "stimulating mental work.""

"Not even psychologists can grasp it, although they spend their lives studying the female mind. Being men, they must find it more interesting than their own. But it would never occur to them for a minute that woman's so-called psyche is unfathomable merely because of the absence of intelligence; that feminine work appears unattractive to the male only because he is incapable of imagining the required degree of stupidity necessary to be able to enjoy it."

"Most men will never admit the depth of their wives' stupidity. They agree that women are not terribly clever, but grant them "intuition" or instinct instead. And they like to call this a feminine instinct as opposed to that of an animal. Unfortunately, this famous feminine instinct is really nothing but a euphemism for statistical probability. Women interfere and give opinions about everything, and, since they are so stupid, they don't realize that they are making fools of themselves. According to the law of averages, their forecasts will be correct now and again. In any case, most of their predictions are negative or vague. Banalities such as: "It can only end in disaster," or "I'd steer clear of that, if I were you," or "Your so-called friends will only let you down in the end" are meaningless. Anyone would be safe making such generalizations. And if, occasionally, women do see more clearly than men, it is only because their feelings, unlike those of men, are never involved."

"Women's stupidity is so overwhelming that anyone who comes into contact with it will become, in a way, infected by it. That this is not obvious is solely because everybody has been exposed to it from birth and, as a result, has become inured to it. In previous years men either ignored it or believed it to be a typically feminine characteristic which harmed no one. But with the increase in leisure and money to spend, woman's need for entertainment has grown. Consequently, her imbecility is spreading into public life as well, reflected not just in vases, bedroom pictures, brocade curtains, cocktail parties, and Sunday sermons. The mass media have become more involved in it. Women's programs are gaining ground in radio and television. And even respectable newspapers print society gossip, crime features, and fashion news, horoscopes, and cooking recipes. And women's magazines become every day more numerous and sumptuous on the stands. Step by step, not only the private sphere of men but all of public life has become infected by this stupidity."

Thanks for reading. The women who wrote this, was more red pill'd than majority of men ☹️

Why You Shouldn't Take Fèminists So Seriously? They Are Secretly Hypocrites And Explained In-Depth.

6 February 2022 · /r/AntiFeminists · Archived copy · Reddit

I wrote this long time ago, now posting it here.

What comes in your mind when you hear the word "feminist?" I can bet you, what clouds your mind is some obese woman who has purple/green hair, who claims she's oppressed and now she wants "equal" rights, and low-key hates all men. On Reddit, this is indeed the case.

But... in the real world? There are more women than you think, who openly claim they're feminists, and these women are average to what someone would call "hawt." Why? Because women naturally are more inclined towards to follow an agenda for what the elitist, government, and their corporate bosses tell them to. So, if they identify themselves as a "feminist" that doesn't mean they truly are, rather, they're playing the politically correct card to make their obese "friends" happy. But deep down even she knows, she's not a real feminist and neither she gives a fuck what feminists tell her to do. A hot woman knows, a patriarchal society will benefit her.

To understand this, one must first understand that men and women are not equal, in the sense that is used currently in society. Let me repeat: Men and women are NOT equal. There. I said it. Many reading this now will get a heart attack and be like, "OMG! You MÎSOGYNÎST! You SÈXIST!! You RÀCIST!!"

When the feminists claim that "MeNz and WimMinZ are EQUALZ!!!" What they really mean is "Identical" and that's entirely false. One can believe that, humans are equal in intrinsic value as human beings, while simultaneously accepting that men and women are NOT identical. We are intended to be complementary to each other. Men as hunters/leaders and women as lovers/nurturers. The latter, in the Grand Bargain between Men and Women trade sex and fertility for food and protection.

According to the Washington Post, nearly 2/3 of women fantasize about being dominated sexually.

If you believe Psychology Today 80% of women fantasize about being tied up.

Oh, and per Nat Geo/Ipsos, less than one-third of American women identify as 'Feminist'. Think about that

The Percentage of women who want to be tied up at sex is DOUBLE than those that say they are feminist – and there will be overlap between those groups. This is why they say: "Don't listen to what they SAY, watch what they DO." If women were such feminists, why do they want to be dominated sexually by Men? Isn't that "sexist?" Well, again, it all comes back to their primal instinct which is to submit, and be lead, no matter what feminists tell you otherwise.

The same feminists who are "fighting" for feminism are screwing the same "toxic males" that they complain of behind the scenes. You might be thinking, they're getting with the "male" feminists in those protests, well, truth be told, if you didn't know, women aren't attracted to weak males. Male feminists are emotional, weak minded males, who consider everything "oppressive" and no woman is attracted to that. Nothing gets her panties more soaked than "sèxist" males, who say how it is, and aren't there to suck up to some women.

Society has brainwashed men into thinking if you act as the "nice guy fèminist" you'll get her, but what the real statistics show is something different. Studies show women who call themselves fèminists have the most rape and forced sèx fantasies and if you're still out here thinking that, "Oh she's a feminist, and how lovely! If I act like I also hate men, maybe that will get my way into her panties."

Nope. The primal instinct of a woman will always remain the same. Women were made to serve men. Back in the cavemen days, who had the obligation to hunt, protect, and fight wars? Men did. And women were there to serve their man, and birth the new generation. This is how it worked since the dawn of time, and no amount of feminism can change this.

Yes, society has become a joke. But what you must understand is the primal instinct of a woman will always be the same. You know why books such as the "50 Shades of Grey" has been an all time fastest selling book, even beating Harry Potter? Because it's in the primal instinct of a woman, to submit to a powerful man who she perceives in her eyes, and even be his chained up sex doll. If that wasn't the case, over 200 million woman would have bought that book. Just look at the statistics.

The key takeaways from this post is, don't take fèminists seriously.

- Feminism was the biggest shi test known to mankind, and the statistics don't lie.
- Fèminists want equal rights but don't want to take equal responsibilities. Who does most of the dirty work? Such as construction, working at oil fields, driving trucks, etc men do. If all men were to stop working for a day, society would collapse.

Studies Show The #1 Reason For Declining Marriage Rates Is, "Lack" of Economically Attractive Men. Why is The Case?

16 February 2022 · /r/TheRedPill · Archived copy · Reddit

You may find this funny but the lack of buxers is the #1 reason for the decline in marriage. Now you may say, women want "chad" only. Yes, but he doesn't stay around so that's why they end up marrying the "safe option with money" who they'll never be truly attracted to.

First of all, men must acknowledge that in the modern age, there are more women going to school and getting "educated" in something than ever, and then they go on to make the national average. There are more women in post secondary than men. While, most men keep and multiply their wealth, women still only get wealthy by 2 things. That is either through marrying a wealthy man and then divorcing, or they inherit wealth from their father's. Source 1, Source 2. Also, studies show, women hold more debt and are more irresponsible with their money, compared with men. Also, women hold 2/3 of all student debt.

When a man and woman is making the same, a woman is biologically programmed to go for a guy who is making more than her, and who is more higher of status, especially, when it comes to choosing a long term partner. For the short term, they'll screw the guy who makes her 7 tingle, and she won't look at his finances/status etc. But for the long term? His finances and his status matter's the most, as studies show.

Ironically, when a lot of men and women are making the national average, women then will only go for the men who are in the top 10% money wise. Hence, the 80/20, 90/10 rule come into play. That 80% of women, go for the top 20% of men etc. What you must understand is, biologically, women only care about their survival and the survival of their offspring. They will choose a man that ensures her and her offsprings survival because women instinctively know, they're too weak to operate alone.

A smart woman knows, a patriarchal society will benefit and protect her in many ways, no matter on the contrary what their obese fëminist "kweens" say. Feminist "kweens" will say that, women are "strong, free and independent and don't need men" but deep down, they know they need men. If all these men who work at oil fields, construction and who do all the "dirty labor jobs" were to stop working for a day, society would collapse.

If women did not need men, then the #1 reason of decline in marriage wouldn't be "lack" of economically attractive men. Women instinctively know, they were created physically and mentally weak and since the cavemen days, they have latched on to whatever high value male they could find, that would ensure their survival and the survival of their offspring. When the invading tribe warriors came to invade, women latched on the most powerful man they could find that would "protect" them, and in return, she provided him sex and children. This was just the way it worked, since the beginning of time. But these days, women sleep only with the men that they're sexually attracted to, while they only marry someone that is resourceful because the very sèxually attractive guy doesn't stay around. The study basically proves that, women are gold diggers LOL when it comes to marriage.

But every man must understand, rich men don't make her wet. Meaning, make her sexually attracted towards you. When a women see's any rich or resourceful guy, in her eyes, it's (Yess lifelong comfortable income guy). By you driving the best car for the validation of women, showing off your wealth and what not, is making yourself look like a fool with a badge that says, "I'm a beta provider, pick me." Of course, why wouldn't any women pick you? You love getting used, and women love using and extracting resources from you, while she will be giving herself away for free to the Alphas.

A woman wants a mix of many qualities in a man. She wants him to be a rich Alpha, that will put in her place, while being a "gentleman" on the street so "people" can say, "look at that happy couple!" But little do the beta provider men know, back in her college/university years, she was giving herself away for free to the Chad's/Alpha's. All the Tyrones/Enrico's/Pookies degraded her for free in many ways possible, and now, you have to pay for her because she only looks at your "financial status" for marriage.

Alpha's/Chad's get what they want from a woman, without having to provide anything. They simply don't care. They will pump and dump, while a woman knows that this guy will be unreliable, she will still stay with him in order to "change" him. But, he'll never change. Alpha's never stick around, because they have many options.

Women are biologically attracted to unreliable men, because they give her that emotional rollercoaster. You really think that, after she has experienced an Alpha, she will be happy with a lifelong comfortable income Dr Kareem, who is boring and very predictable? Nope. She will be drier than the Sahara Desert for him and will eventually manipulate him with sex, and use it as a weapon.

Women have 2 great needs, which can only be fulfilled by 2 types of men. Their need for sex, and their need for financial security and emotional support. The need for sex can only be fulfilled by an Alpha, but he's emotionally unavailable, while their need for security can be fulfilled by a beta. (I don't mean to disrespect them as most of them, are actually good hearted and kind men, but for the sake of giving example, I'm calling them 'beta') The beta because, he doesn't have many options and will always be loyal to her, and she knows she can win him over easily and manipulate him. While for an Alpha? Women will compete to be exclusive to him but little do they know, because he has so many options, he will never stick around. And then, these women get heartbroken and become emotionally broken women. Aka Alpha widowed.

Anyways. All men must remember in the modern age, marriage = you're a beta and the statistics show this itself. She will make all the rules for the guy who she wants to marry, while she will break the rules for a guy who she just wants to F. Marriage is a joke in the West. Women can never truly be attracted to their beta buxx hubbies. While she's having sex with him, (if he gets any, other than for procreation) you know what gets her off? Thinking about her past sexathons with the guys who degraded her in all ways possible, and she loved it! While her current husband thinks she's "pleased" with him with his 2 stroke special, because he has no experience with women. Brutal for these guys.

In conclusion, all men must remember, if you marry in the West in the modern age, you're seen as beta in her eyes. She's not attracted to you at all. She's only attracted to the lifelong comfortable income you have (Not me saying, literally, it's the statistics) and because you're a stable/reliable guy. She doesn't get wet for you, like how she got wet for her exes. But you? You still think she "loves" you, until oh, well, more than 50% of marriages end up in divorce while women initiate 80-90% of divorces.

And, again, going back to the title of the post, women base their marriage/long term partner off by his income only, but not anything else.

Tldr; In summary, by the time women want an "economically attractive man" is because the "physically attractive men" won't settle with them. So the economically attractive man is the "second best" and "safe option" simply put.

The Classic "Theory" of Alpha F's, Beta Buxx Explained In Depth, With Studies. And Why "Attracting" Women With Your Money, Is The Worst Possible Thing You Can Do.

20 February 2022 · /r/TheRedPill · Archived copy · Reddit

To start this off, I have known a lot of men who have chosen their careers solely on the base to attract women. Majority of these guys aren't what you call a "Chad". They're average looking as majority of men. And when a man is average in looks, he instinctively knows he just can't attract women solely based on how he looks. So, what does he do? He tries to acquire more wealth, and status, in hopes to make women attracted to him, so he can make up for his lack of "chad-ness." But in the long run it never works, because she wasn't physically attracted to him in the first place. She was only with him because he was that long term "safe option."

According to this study, women find 80% of men unattractive. 80% is a huge number. And I bet, majority of you have heard about the 20/80 rule, where 20 percent of guys, get 80% of the women and this study proves it.

With the invention of the internet, women now have more options than ever on tap. The world has become very fast paced and technologically advanced, and it's not the 1800s anymore where you live on a farm, and marry some girl in your town who you knew all your life because of having very limited options. With the advent of the internet and the amount of attention men give women on it, even a very obese women will have her dms flooded. When a women gets constant attention and sees the "Chad's" on social media, she will inflate her value to something which she's not and think she's entitled to the "best." And, this is majority of women as study's show.

Remember the term, "Alpha fûcks, beta buxx?" If I was to simplify all these pills into one sentence, the conclusion of it all would be that one simple statement. According to many studies, I link one here whereas men prefer youth and physical attractiveness in their partners, women give more weight to partners' earning potential and commitment to a relationship. Evolutionary research does suggest that these sex differences in mating preferences tend to diminish or even disappear when short-term mating contexts are primed.

When it comes to short term mating, women do not base him off, of his long term ability to "protect" her. Think of the jocks/chads back in school. Those guys were laying the most pipe and were the "players." Were they rich? Not necessarily. They had 10/10 genetics combined and due to this, women were attracted to them.

Women want men who are wanted by other women. Why? Because when women know other women want him, her ♀ will go like, "What does he have, that other women want him so much?" Women love the chase, and because these guys give her the tingles, she can never get enough of it. But those "relationships" last short term, because these guys have so many options, they never needed to "commit" exclusively to one women. They were getting pussy left and right. Women want "chad" or the "bad boy" in the short run. In summary, by the time women want an "economically attractive man" is because the "physically attractive men" won't settle with them. So the economically attractive man is the "second best" and "safe option" simply put. This is it all simplified in one sentence.

The gist of the "chad theory" which is proven by many studies is, women will not make rules for the guy that she really wants. For example, you have women saying they want a 100k wedding, 20k ring and a high 6 figure earner and this and that. But... Even these women instinctively know, all the rules which she has made, she will break all of them for a guy that she really wants. Women make rules for betas and break rules for alphas. And you might be thinking, who's the guy she really wants? Think of Christian Grey in the "50 Shades of Grey." A "chad" who has status, all the money in world, and knows how to dominate and put her in her place in bed. Or, think of Christian Bale in the "American Psycho." A mysterious, "hawt" very cunning guy, who knows exactly what to say and how to get her in bed begging for him, and has many girls after him which make women want him even more, and he always remains aloof and stoic as a stone. And he's a true psychopath.

This is the man all women secretly dream to have, and there are only a very few percentage of them. Behind their fake mask of feminism, lies such perverted fantasies that they don't say because they know, they would be seen as Hypocrites. And studies prove women love psychotic men.

Then you have the "nice guys finish last theory" which is also proved by many studies. Here's one. And this is where a good portion of men fall into. Because they aren't "chad", they will somehow cope their way and try to become wealthy and acquire status to attract women. They think, because they are a doctor making 200k and having status, they will get quality potentials, but guess what? When you call yourself a doctor, in a women's eyes you're a "lifelong comfortable income" safe option.

The men who get pussy, will get it either way, if they have money or not. I have known many broke "Chad's" slaying right and left. Heck a place where I worked as a waiter, there was a "chad" dishwasher, who was slaying all the hot waitresses. When there's a guy who women really want, she doesn't look at his financial status, job, or whatever, even if he's broke and is a simple "dishwasher."

When she makes the rules for you, whether it's going out on expensive dinners which you pay for, wanting you to pay for a huge wedding, and this and that, remember this is something to be ashamed about. You're a "beta buxx" in her eyes. The guy who makes her pussy wet, she will get down on her knees for him in no time, and "break" all the rules which she had made. Studies prove this time and time, yet, men can't handle it. Next time when someone calls any of these pills a "theory", remember to show them the studies. All these pills aren't theories, rather, their science and there are all the studies done in the world, to prove them correct. We the "redpillers" know this "sCiEnCe" more better than anyone else.

Society has programed men to be raised up as the "safe option with money" when it comes to attracting women. Many of these guys just study, study and study, and have no life, and think by getting a good job will give them the dream marriage. Wanna know something harsh? The guys who get women, will get them either way. What makes her pussy wet in the short term, vs what she wants in the long term (financial and emotional security) are two totally different things. And she can't settle with "chad" (who makes her pussy wet in the short term) because he has too many options, and she instinctively knows he will be unreliable. So, she settles for a sucker like you who thinks, "My money will make her so attracted to me, and I will have a good sex life and all that."

But guess what? Your sex life will be like of dèadbedrooms. She wasn't attracted to you physically, she only wanted you for your money. And majority of these marriages end up in divorce, with 85% of women calling it quits.

Just remember, physical attraction is number one. No matter on the contrary what fèmìnists say of how, they want a guy with good "pErSoNaLiTy or nIcEnEsS" is all nonsense. If you really take fèmìnists seriously, then I'm sorry, you're a joke. If they were truly "fèmìnists" majority of them wouldn't have forced sèx or ra-pè fantasies Taking fèmìnists seriously is equivalent to taking sleepy/dementia Joe as the President of this country. It's pathetic and unrealistic.

The guy who makes that pussy tingle, she will not make him go through all the hoops and hurdles to obtain that pussy, even though he doesn't have money or "status." She will signal him, and because he knows how to read those signals, he will be fucking her in no time. While beta billy? He had to make the list and go through all the hoops and hurdles that she had set up for him, only for her to manipulate him with sex and little does he know, he's only her "safe good guy long term option."

In conclusion, unplug yourself from the blue pill fantasy matrix, research and read the studies, and don't be her "safe option with money" who will be manipulated by her with sex, and will be low-key miserable. Look around, the pills are everywhere in the real world. You're just too blind to see it. Have some self respect, honour and dignity, and be wise. Women are like a side Remember "Don't pay attention to what women say, pay attention to what they do." And, oh, never fucking marry.

That's all.

Good luck.

An Old Islamic Poem About Female Nature From The 12th Century. Very Deep.

3 March 2022 · /r/TheRedPill · Archived copy · Reddit

This poem was translated in English by the OG mod of a sub, which unfortunately didn't survive the ban wave.

This poem is about female nature by an famous Islamic scholar by the name of Ibn Qayyim who lived in the 12th Century.

لَا تَسْبِيْنُكَ صُوْرَةٌ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا ... الدَّاءُ الدَّوِي تَبُوْءُ بِالْخُسْرَانِ

You should not be deceived by her outer appearance... For it is a disease that is ridden with loss.

فَبَحَثْ خَلَائِقُهَا وَفُتِّحْ فِعْلُهَا ... شَيْطَانَةٌ فِي صُوْرَةِ الْإِنْسَانِ

Her character and actions are ugly.. A devil in human form.

تَنْقَادُ لِلْأَذَالِ وَالْزْدَالِ هُمْ ... أَكْفَاؤُهَا مِنْ دُونِ ذِي الْإِحْسَانِ

They make you (men) out to be dishonourable and despicable.. Her hands do not bring kindness.

مَا نَمَّ مِنْ دِيْنٍ وَلَا عَقْلٍ وَلَا ... خُلُقٍ وَلَا خَوْفٍ مِنَ الرَّحْمَانِ

Nor bringing any piety, nor intellect.. Nor character, nor fear from the Most Merciful (Allah.)

وَجَمَالُهَا زُورٌ وَمَصْنُوعٌ فَإِنْ ... تَرَكْنَاهُ لَمْ تَطْمَحْ لَهَا الْعَيْنَانِ

And her beauty is falsehood; manufactured which will perish.. If neglected, no eyes would glance at her.

طُبِعَتْ عَلَى تَرْكِ الْحِفَاطِ فَمَا لَهَا ... يَوْفَاءَ حَقِّ الْبُعْلِ قَطْ يَدَانِ

She will eventually forsake maintaining herself.. Then she will not fulfill the rights of the husband.

إِنْ قَصَرَ السَّاعِي عَلَيْهَا سَاعَةً  قَالَتْ وَهَلْ أَوْلَيْتَ مِنْ إِحْسَانٍ

And if her workman (husband) falls short one time.. She says "Have you ever done anything good!?"

أَوْ رَامَ تَقْوِيْمًا لَهَا اسْتَعْصَمَتْ وَلَمْ  تَقْبَلْ سَوَى التَّعْوِيْجِ وَالنَّقْصَانِ

And if you wish to correct her misconduct.. She objects and does not accept her mistakes and shortcomings.

أَفْكَارُهَا فِي الْمَكْرِ وَالْكِيدِ الَّذِي  قَدْ حَارَ فِيهِ فِكْرَةُ الْإِنْسَانِ

Her ideas are cunning and malicious.. That would set a man's mind on fire (make him furious and frustrated.)

فَجَمَالُهَا قَشْرٌ رَقِيْقٌ تَحْتَهُ  مَا شِئْتَ مِنْ عَيْبٍ وَمِنْ نَقْصَانِ

For her beauty is a thin layer.. And what's beneath it is full of defects and damage.

نَقْدٌ رَدِيءٌ فَوْقَهُ مِنْ فَضَّةٍ  شَيْءٌ يَظُنُّ بِهِ مِنَ الْأَثْمَانِ

A cheap coin wrapped in silver.. Is something one would think is expensive

فَالنَّاقِدُونَ يَرَوْنَ مَاذَا تَحْتَهُ  وَالنَّاسُ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مِنَ الْعَمِيَانِ

But the critics see beneath it, while most of the people are blind.

أَمَّا جَمِيْلَاتُ الْوُجُوهِ فَخَائِنَاتٌ  بَعُولَتُهُنَّ وَهِنَّ لِلْأَخْدَانِ

As for those women with beautiful faces.. They are unfaithful to their families and they have boyfriends (I.e. other lovers besides their husbands).

وَالْحَافِظَاتُ الْغَيْبِ مِنْهُنَّ الَّتِي  قَدْ أَصْبَحَتْ فَرْدًا مِنَ النِّسْوَانِ

As for the women who protect their chastity in private and their husband's belongings.. They have become those who are forgotten.

Society Has Programmed You To Be A Beta Buxx From A Young Age.

5 March 2022 · /r/TheRedPill · Archived copy · Reddit

As far back as I can remember, my mother always used to tell me, "Son, become a doctor and you will get a good wife and have status." That's all she used to tell me. Did she care about what I wanted? Nope. Indirectly she was telling me, "Live for the people, so they can be impressed by your status and then find a gold digger who will only be impressed by my profession." Yes. That's what she was telling me.

And before TRP my thinking and mindset was only money, money and money. That I need a couple million before marriage for a so called "good" wife. And you know what? I was dumb. I never once thought that, she will only be with me for my profession and income. And, whatever I did prior discovering TRP in life, was for this imaginary "unicorn" that I was not even guaranteed with.

As the other post said, the final phase of red pill is, You get to chill and don't give a fuck for good. And that's what we should all strive for. Society wants you to be a beta buxx. Society wants you to believe in the idea of marrying a former hoe, and turning her into a housewife and in the process becoming miserable. Marriage in the modern age can never work. It's an failed institution and the statistics don't lie. All these Trad cu-cks wouldn't tell you the misery they are in, you know why?

Because once you're married legally, you're stuck as a man. She can deny and manipulate you with sèx, be disobedient towards you, and still take half of your shi and get away with everything. The state/laws give them the power to. That's how easy it is for women to play men in today's times. In the modern age, majority of women are emotionally broken/damaged, and by you being the "good" husband to come and save the day, who doesn't understand female nature and how they work, and who was always told be "nice" to women will only get manipulated and be miserable. She knows whatever you're doing, (all those roses/dinners and fake compliments) is to get access to what's between her legs, and she'll use that great power she has over you, and manipulate you in getting whatever she wants.

One must understand the greatest power any women has over you, is not her physical strength, neither her intellect, neither her character. It's just what's between her legs. For example, imagine an 18 year old women who gets all the attention in the world. Random men become "nice" to her when they see her, and she has a huge # of guys just pleading to get with her, and doing whatever it takes to get one second of her time. Society makes everything "easy" for her and that's why as they say, women live life on "easy mode" in their younger years because society enables them to. When all this takes place, it doesn't take long for women to realize the great power of what they have between their legs. So then they use their weapon (their pussy) in getting what they want from men, and especially her husband by manipulating him with sèx. Women in the modern age only marry beta providers.

Women will only genuinely respect a guy from the heart which they cannot manipulate, and will marry a guy which they can manipulate. The guy who doesn't get manipulated (who she really wants) has many options, and she knows that he will never be exclusive to her.

You see when a guy has options, he doesn't need to rely on one women for sèx. If one gives him a hard time, what does he do? He simply walks away, and goes to the others. Women instinctively know, a guy with options can never be manipulated and their classic "coochie game" will never work on these guys. So, what do they do? They marry a guy who isn't that much sèxually wanted, (boring, safe option) which Society wants you to be, but still has sufficient resources to protect her and will stay loyal. And in return, she'll give him the occasional birthday BJ special, or she'll lay there as a dead fish just "waiting" for him to be done quick. Why? Because this was the guy she married, who she wasn't sèxually attracted to. She will manipulate him with sèx and use it as a weapon, because she knows he doesn't have any options and will do everything for her, in "hopes" of bànging her.

Most of us on this sub, are not the Tyrone to just "pump and dump" women. It's not in our nature, and it's not in us. Also, we aren't simp's to worship women. We are somewhere in the middle, who understand women very well and we value our self respects the most, so we can never be the beta buxx which society wants you to be. So, when we see the rigged game what we do? We do our own thing. For some guys it's being on their purpose, and improving their lives for the better. For some it may picking up new hobbies and whatever etc. And, when you choose a simplistic lifestyle, no matter how much you have, happiness and inner peace is found in small things. As far back as I can remember, my mother always used to tell me, "Son, become a doctor and you will get a good wife and have status." That's all she used to tell me. Did she care about what I wanted? In conclusion gentlemen, whatever society promised you is all a fantasy tale of the "unicorn" waiting out there somewhere. In the end, there is no unicorn waiting at the finish line, and if you marry, you're just another beta buxx nice guy who is saving a woman, who has ridden all the Tyrones and gave them all the free sex, while you're just her long term "safe" option. And in the end, as we all know it's AWALT. Never forget this.

She can deny and manipulate you with sèx, be disobedient towards you, and still take half of your shi and get away with everything. The state/laws give them the power to. That's how easy it is for women to play men in today's times.

In the modern age, majority of women are emotionally broken/damaged, and by you being the "good" husband to come and save the day, who doesn't understand female nature and how they work, and who was always told be "nice" to women will only get manipulated and be miserable. She knows whatever you're doing, (all those roses/dinners and fake compliments) is to get access to what's between her legs, and she'll use that great power she has over you, and manipulate you in getting whatever she wants.

One must understand the greatest power any women has over you, is not her physical strength, neither her intellect, neither her character. It's just what's between her legs. For example, imagine an 18 year old women who gets all the attention in the world. Random men become "nice" to her when they see her, and she has a huge # of guys just pleading to get with her, and doing whatever it takes to get one second of her time. Society makes everything "easy" for her and that's why as they say, women live life on "easy mode" in their younger years because society enables them to. When all this takes place, it doesn't take long for women to realize the great power of what they have between their legs. So then they use their weapon (their pussy) in getting what they want from men, and especially her husband by manipulating him with sèx. Women in the modern age only marry beta providers.

Women will only genuinely respect a guy from the heart which they cannot manipulate, and will marry a guy which they can manipulate. The guy who doesn't get manipulated (who she really wants) has many options, and she knows that he will never be exclusive to her.

You see when a guy has options, he doesn't need to rely on one women for sèx. If one gives him a hard time, what does he do? He simply walks away, and goes to the others. Women instinctively know, a guy with options can never be manipulated and their classic "coochie game" will never work on these guys. So, what do they do? They marry a guy who isn't that much sèxually wanted, (boring, safe option) which Society wants you to be, but still has sufficient resources to protect her and will stay loyal. And in return, she'll give him the occasional birthday BJ special, or she'll lay there as a dead fish just "waiting" for him to be done quick. Why? Because this was the guy she married, who she wasn't sèxually attracted to. She will manipulate him with sèx and use it as a weapon, because she knows he doesn't have any options and will do everything for her, in "hopes" of bànging her.

Most of us on this sub, are not the Tyrone to just "pump and dump" women. It's not in our nature, and it's not in us. Also, we aren't simp's to worship women. We are somewhere in the middle, who understand women very well and we value our self respects the most, so we can never be the beta buxx which society wants us to be. So, when we see the rigged game what we do? We do our own thing. For some guys it's being on their purpose, and improving their lives for the better. For some it may picking up new hobbies and whatever etc. And, when you choose a simplistic lifestyle, no matter how much you have, happiness and inner peace is found in small things. We men need very little to find that "inner peace." But that doesn't mean you stop self improving. The day you stop self improving, is the day you die.

In conclusion gentlemen, whatever society promised you is all a fantasy tale of the "unicorn" waiting out there somewhere. In the end, there is no unicorn waiting at the finish line, and if you marry, you're just another beta buxx nice guy who is saving a woman, who has ridden all the Tyrones and gave them all the free sex, while you're just her long term "safe" option. And in the end, as we all know it's AWALT. Never forget this.

Majority of Men Keep Living In The Hope Strategy, And Forget To Live In The Practical Reality.

1 April 2022 · /r/TheRedPill · Archived copy · Reddit

You all may have heard about an old saying which is "Hope sells." How do all these people and so called gurus who're in these multi billion dollar industries keep fooling people time and time? It's that they know how to talk and are very convincing, and thus they "sell hope" to the average person. No one ever likes to hear the bitter truth, because the fact is the truth hurts. If majority of the people accepted the truth, I wouldn't be surprised if they offed themselves. So, these gurus and the people in these industries and in the media say what people want to hear (fake deceiving lies) thus profiting off of them, while these people don't even acknowledge it, as they're made so used to hearing lies and that life is all "sunshine and rainbows."

Why is this the case? Because the reality is, society has made the masses so "weak" in the mind that anything you say against anyone, people will get "offended" by it. People aren't programed to hear the truth. For example, why's that everyone who participates in something gets an award nowadays? Remember as we were growing up and whenever we participated in anything, it was only the top 3 who got an award. Nowadays? Everyone gets something even if they suck at it, so they don't "feel" bad or their "feelings" don't get hurt. It's all about "feelings" nowadays, but comrades, the facts don't care about your feelings. So, this just shows society is programming people from a young age to be "entitled" to something even when they're not. And when these people go out in the real world with their coping strategies they're never prepared for it, and they get hit so hard by the reality which they're not prepared for, and then these are the types who're voting to make "UBI" a mandatory thing, and chant for even more welfare programs etc because they have no skills of their own. They like to rely on others because they think they're "entitled" to it.

The reality is, no one gives a fuck about you. Men must harden the fuck up. If you think that by you "opening up" to someone will make them respect you more, then you haven't accepted TRP. Every person on this earth has some sort of "sob story." Well, even if you have went through the worst times possible, what can you do? In the end, YOU have to make something of this life, and get ahead in anyway possible that you can. Because in the end, it's just you. Since the dawn of time it has always been survival of the fittest, and never survival of the unfittest. Every person here must master machiavellianism. Regarding how to act, what to say in each and every situation they're confronted with, and use it for their own benefit in a very clever and intellectual way, because no one is helping you out there. You have to help yourself.

Majority of men spend their whole lives in thinking what she/society will think about me and guess what? They're left nowhere. They neither achieve their goals, because they put others above them, and they lose all the respect people had for them. Why? Because they keep on obeying and bowing down to society and taking it up the ass from them, and then they are taken for granted. Once you're that vulnerable, your destiny is only to get used and be thrown out. You must never be too agreeable, rather, stick to your principles and values. Always.

Majority of men who keep living in the hope strategy are only getting through by using all these coping mechanisms which only work in the short term. But in the long term? It makes them only more miserable. That's why you must accept the truth no matter how "harsh" it may be, and improve your life for you accordingly.

The reason of this post is to show you, do not rely on the hope strategy. It will keep you nothing but in delusion. If you really want to make it happen, you have to go out there and make it happen and be practical about it. Do not live and fantasize in the dream world were you think everything will be "perfect" and "fall into place." Maybe in your dreams this happens, but not in the real world. This is just the reality of life. Life is practical, hoping is fiction. You have to work hard for what you really want and achieve. If you want to keep dreaming, then go back to sleep!

Cancel Culture, And Losing All Your Things Just Because You Offended Somebody Is Going To A Whole Another Level... And Will Only Get Worse With Time. Recent experience

22 June 2023 · /r/TheRedPill · Archived copy · Reddit

This post ain't about women, but goes with the core fundamentals of TRP. TRP is not only about understanding female nature, but rather how to diplomatically navigate in the clown world we are living in.

Right now I'm in grad school, and in the summer, for my summer job, I work in tourism. Where I live, we have millions of people/tourists coming every year. One of the tour drivers who has been with the company for about 22 years, very good guy and he also had trained me initially got fired. Because of his experience, he was very known and respected in this company, and I got to know he got fired and I asked why. So basically he was doing a tour and some tourist asked him, "How is that restaurant over there?" The guy, all he said was, "It's not worth it at all for the price, they'll ra-pe you over there haha." Believe it or not, this tourists wife got offended and they complained to the company that the guide said the word rape and they felt "offended" and he got fired. Yes. Just like that. Knowing him, he was a genuinely good guide, and I'm shocked.

Nobody came to save him, and his 22 years of being loyal to the company also didn't save him. To protect their ass, the company just fired him and these tourist's didn't even have any proof of that. Just based on him being accused he lost his job, which he was good at. And now, if he tried to work or get a different job, guess what? Because his reputation is so tarnished now, it will be very difficult for him to get another job.

This is the world we live in. There is no freedom anymore (never had any to begin with) but the world we live in now, anything you say can be used against you. If you say the wrong thing, and don't follow the politically correct behaviour which they want you to abide by, you can lose your lively hood. And soon, I won't be surprised when they start freezing your bank accounts if you used the wrong pronoun on the Alphabet community. This is why they want to make it a cashless society. Make everyone dependent on digital banking, and one day bham! If you say the wrong thing, or offended somebody the created numbers on your bank account, will magically disappear as you weren't a good citizen who obediently follows the rules. It's a fake world.

I knew all this of course, but TRP goes far and deep, and it's not only about women anymore. Everything you say, do, will become even more heavily monitored. Back then when men were actually getting married, women had the divorce card to play with. Nowadays? If a date goes wrong and you say the wrong thing, she can just falsely accuse you. Suing men will become the new divorce card of today's world. This is why every conversation with a woman needs to be heavily monitored. If a guy can just get fired for saying the word ra-pe not even used in that context, but for a random context which has nothing to actually with it, then imagine what else will be coming.

For me, this c-19 was a major wake up call. And the rabbit hole we're going down in, and the dystopian reality we're starting to live in, should be a major wake up call for men. For example this recent case of Andrew Tate, he might have couple hundred million dollars but he can't beat the government's and NWO people who are against him.

If you're a man and have couple million, don't think that you're safe. Andrew Tate was held in prison for just accusations. You the average man even if you have couple million are competing with people (the NWO) who create and control money, and everything to do with it. We can't beat them. But we can be woken, and go through life in a very diplomatic way. Money now will indeed make your quality of life better, but when it comes to buying freedom that is not the case anymore.

Some countries in eastern Europe or Latin America might still have some freedoms but don't be fooled that, that will always be the case. At the rate that they're pushing this NWO of full control over everything in a way where they say it's for "our good" will eventually be in every country and there will be no escape. I'm not a nihilistic person, but this is the reality and we can't escape from it.

We as men, we know that the world is already hard, and it's only going to get harder. That 90/10 rule will now go to 95/5 and your life as a man will even get more tough. But we have to think of this, and see the whole picture and navigate in such a way, where we have to be very diplomatic and just get by. It's not the 70s anymore where there was little to no surveillance and you could have gotten away with alot. But in today's modern world? Majority of the things are made to be used against you, and there is no freedom anymore. I won't be surprised when they just freeze your accounts soon just because you said the wrong pronoun. As crazy that it sounds, that's the unfortunate way we are headed.

Stay safe, brother's.

Remember, She's Never Yours, It's Only Your Turn

13 November 2023 · /r/TheRedPill · Archived copy · Reddit

I was out with some friends because it was his birthday. I'm not really on the party scene, But because it was his birthday, I was like why not I'll just go and check it out. I have been redpilled for a long time so I always like to observe.

I don't drink so I just stood there like a retard, watching how people were making fool of themselves. One of my friends sees a girl who's all alone and tells the guy who's birthday it is, "go talk to that girl, she's all alone." He goes and tries to talk with her, and gets rejected. She shows him an engagement ring, and tells him she's going to marry her boyfriend. I really didn't want to be there, so I was just watching and observing, cause I'm driving my friends home so I have to be there, until they want to leave. So as I'm observing, 2 more guys approach the same woman and she rejects them both. In my mind I was like, damn, she may be loyal to her bf, but her bf wasn't there and she was wearing the skimpiest dress.

Well, behold, after awhile I look at her, and she's dancing with some tall dude. You can call him "Chad." His height was maybe 6'6 and mind you not, this girl is nowhere near his league. If he was a 9, she's a 6 at best. And after couple minutes she's rubbing her ass into his crotch, and I go little closer to hear what they're talking about and I clearly hear her telling him, "I will regret this in the morning, I have a bf who I will marry." The guy says "life's short, you live once." And I remember seeing them leave together to get an Uber.

I have been so busy working, with post grad studies that for a second I completely forgot about female nature at its finest. When you're so busy, you need that wake up call once in awhile to stay away from the blue pill fantasy before it creeps in.

What I saw was a great reminder of the core red pill rule, "She's never yours, it's only your turn." Imagine being her boyfriend, spending so much money to buy her that ring and everything, only for her to cheat on you with some random guy who sees her as a sex toy for the night. Remember, Alpha fucks, beta buxx. That random dude got it for free, while her "bf" had to pay for it, and seeing the circumstances I won't be surprised him getting divorced raped in the future. The girl looked Indian, so her bf might be some IT tech dude making 150k plus a year.

Currently I'm on my grind in grad school, got a very good GPA, with all my school loans paid off, car paid off, and I'm doing decent for my age. The other day my mom goes like, "it's time for you to get married!" In my culture, they do. I told her, "hahahahaha not anytime soon."

Remember, marriage in the modern day is for fools. What I saw was just a reminder of why I can't ever go back on the plantation. Back when I was in my first year, I had worked at the club. Working over there had "red pill" me the most, and I recommend all men to have some sort of experience working at these places to see "TRP" or female nature at its finest in affect.

Don't be fooled by women from the East.

5 December 2023 · /r/TheRedPill · Archived copy · Reddit

My summer job is in tourism. Near where I live in the summer, this place sees million's of tourists from all around the world. And I work as a tour guide in that time period, as it's a great job for a university student. I meet hundreds of people a day, talk and interact with all kinds of different people, and it pays decently as well. And most importantly, it gives me the experience and live examples of seeing female nature on display.

One instance was where I had a group of 4 Ukrainian women on the tour. Of course as a tour guide, I have to be very social and people's person, and very politically correct. These women were 10/10s, very feminine, and just like the way we like em. I asked where they're from etc. They told me, "We're from Ukraine." I then asked, "Oh, how long you been here and, how's the situation over there now?" They're like, "We've been here for couple months, and our husbands are over there fighting as they can't leave the country, and we came over here and the situation there is still very bad. We aren't going to go back home for a long time." And mind you, what intrigued me the most was when they said that their husbands are back home, they did not have even one ounce of remorse.

So on these tours, we spend at least 6-10 hours with the people, so I was carefully observing, and we have to take them over to gift shops etc, and these 4 women casually racked up $500 plus in souvenir shopping. And that was from only one of the places we took them to. And then you can imagine, the tour itself, the hotel cost (as it's the peak season), food, etc, easily must've added to 5-6k plus for the weekend.

At the end of the tour, we take them to view the place where the view is the best. I casually told them, "You guys are enjoying this beautiful view, while your husbands are fighting for their lives back home." The women, once I said this looked at me in disgust, and they didn't talk the whole time, and didn't even leave a tip. Haha.

Majority of men believe that TRP applies to only Western women, and they think that women from those Eastern/Latin countries somehow are "magically great." How do you expect me to believe that these 4 Ukrainians who're beautiful, and 2 of them who were married, aren't cheating on their husbands? Lol. Because I can bet you, majority of women who are coming from those countries especially in sudden war zones, don't have that much money to their name. To afford a 6-7k trip in just couple months which they have been here, (in where majority of Americans have to think twice of doing trips like these especially in this economy) and to show no remorse when I asked about their husbands, says it all. While their husbands are fighting back home and thinking that their "wife" is remaining a "good and loyal girl!" Now, again, you'll have some men in the fantasy land thinking otherwise.

As we all know, women will adapt to their new environment very easily. They might had been good wives in their country, but coming to North America, seeing the wealth here and them being beautiful and getting all the attention, it doesn't take long for them to cheat on their husbands. To ensure her survival, a woman can and will do anything.

And the irony of all this? Their poor husbands are back home dying for their country, and imagine if they found out their wives are cheating on them, going on expensive vacations etc.

That's the reality. That's why, TRP is very harsh to accept as a man. Men are disposable. Women are not, and they'll always be taken care of. At the end of the day, some poor s!mp will come and save the day, and if not him, then the government.

For all the men out there who think that women in other parts of the world are different, well, they might be better than the women in the West, but never forget true female nature. AWALT. She might be great in the present moment, but as time progresses, the real female nature will kick in (whether it be the environment, surroundings, financial situation, Influence from friends/family etc) and will make her do things which majority of women want to do which make men red pill.

Never forget that.

Lack of economically attractive men is the number one reason of decline in marriage. Literally studies show lack of beta buxers is the number 1 cause of collapse in marriage [?][?].

The guy who majority of women want, (who has it all) doesn't stay around. Why? Because he has tons of options and women instinctively know this, and will be on their best behavior to be with this man. But eventually when they realize, this guy is the "player" they then will settle with someone who has money and is a "safe option", but they will never be truly attracted to him. Why? Because majority of them are alpha widowed.

In college/uni parties, a lot of very good looking men are getting laid by the end of the night. They don't have to take her out on expensive dinners, shower with fake praises and gifts etc. That's the long term billy boys job. Men must understand, the guy women really want she will not make him go through all the hoops and hurdles to get her. She will take her panties off right away, when he read her signals.

In summary, by the time women want an "economically attractive man" is because the "physically attractive men" won't settle with them. So the economically attractive man is the "second best" and "safe option" simply put.

There's a lot to unpack here.

As a wise person once said, "The one who cares the least holds the most power."

First of all, this guy fucked up by marrying. And secondly, he started "crying" in front of his wife and when a man shows weakness like that, it's bound she'll lose even more attraction for him. But he's fucked one way or another. How?

If she pulls the "I'm not happy" card (Initiates divorce) he's fucked by the government and the divorce laws. And if he stays with her, because she lost so much respect for him due to him showing weakness, his sex life will plummet and it will be a disaster.

That's the difference between if she's your wife vs a plate. Now, if she was only a plate, the trick was as she "spills" her dirty little secret, he stays calm, cool and stoic and doesn't care. Indirectly, this creates more attraction because he has that idgaf "you do you" mentality. But now? He's fucked one way or another. Good luck to him.

That's why boys, you never marry in today's day and age. When it comes to marriage, the odds are all stacked against you.

Yup. Women manipulate betas with sex, while he think he'll be "good boy" in her eyes because he's so "respectful." The reality is, she low-key loaths him. Women don't respect men who don't respect themselves.

The Alpha, even if he doesn't have his shit together, he will make her panties drip. I've known many guys who got divorced ràped. I'm in real estate, so I know senior guys who are r-p who fucked up by marrying their ex hoe wives. And you wanna know one thing in common? While these guys were paying the bills and keeping her financially "happy" majority of these women were fucking alphas on the side. Once they're Alpha windowed, her beta husband can never wet her pussy properly. What will always keep her drenched is that unreliable, mysterious, "bad boy" who she can't get enough of.

Marriage is a failed institution. I don't know how men can marry anymore.

Haha, that thread is Gold.

The worst thing a man can ever do is "open up" to a woman. Women have this idea ingrained in them that men are strong, stoic and non emotional beings. Just imagine a Lion for a second. We have this idea naturally ingrained in us that a Lion is the King of the jungle, and a strong animal that can kick ass. But say, this Lion was to show weakness and "open up" what would happen? You would shit test the hell out of the Lion like it's nothing because you now know that it was all talk, and you would think to yourself as a fool that you ever taught this Lion was so "strong."

In just matter of seconds, all this "respect" you had for the lion as the "King of the jungle" would go down the drain and you would now look at the same lion as "weak." Same exact way women see men, once they open up and show any weakness. That's why being emotionally stoic and strong and showing no emotion in front of a woman is very necessary.

Remember, "Don't listen to what they say, watch what they do." If a woman is like, she wants her man to open up and all that, always do the opposite.

back when women were in fact women....

Very few of them still. It was AWALT since the beginning of time.

This poem is a classic one about female nature by an Islamic scholar called Ibn Qayyim, who lived in the 12th Century. He was a legend. This poem was originally written in Arabic and was translated in English by a mod of another very based sub, which unfortunately didn't survive the ban wave. I have removed the Arabic, and pasting only the English.

You should not be deceived by her outer appearance... For it is a disease that is ridden with loss.

Her character and actions are ugly.. A devil in human form.

They make you (men) out to be dishonourable and despicable.. Her hands do not bring kindness.

Nor bringing any piety, nor intellect.. Nor character, nor fear from the Most Merciful (Allah.)

And her beauty is falsehood; manufactured which will perish.. If neglected, no eyes would glance at her.

She will eventually forsake maintaining herself.. Then she will not fulfill the rights of the husband.

And if her workman (husband) falls short one time.. She says "Have you ever done anything good!?"

And if you wish to correct her misconduct.. She objects and does not accept her mistakes and shortcomings.

Her ideas are cunning and malicious.. That would set a man's mind on fire (make him furious and frustrated.)

For her beauty is a thin layer.. And what's beneath it is full of defects and damage.

A cheap coin wrapped in silver.. Is something one would think is expensive

But the critics see beneath it, while most of the people are blind.

As for those women with beautiful faces.. They are unfaithful to their families and they have boyfriends (I.e. other lovers besides their husbands).

As for the women who protect their chastity in private and their husband's belongings.. They have become those who are forgotten.

Classic.

When any man thinks she's a NAWALT and starts treating her more "nicely" that's the most easiest way to end up in the friend zone. And then, don't be shocked once you find out she's cheating, because women will be women.

As Rollo says, "Hypergammy isn't a straight jacket" and that's true. But if you lose "frame" or get too emotionally attached and think she's "not like other women" then prepared to be screwed. It hits hard when you're least expecting it, because you thought she was NAWALT.

Conclusion is AWALT.

The need for family law reform has never been more important than it is now.

Yeah, but the truth is society is long fucked. With majority of men being raised in single parent households, and then marrying a former hoe only to get screwed over in the divorce courts, how do you think it's possible? It's the same old never ending cycle.

Unless there is some big revolution, society will become worse. With more of these nonsense agendas and ideologies, woke culture, combined with joker politicians who keep supporting them, and with all these restrictions and control, change is very hard.

Since the sexual revolution, society has only gone downhill when it comes to divorce rates, marriage, and overall happiness of a person. That trend will follow and keep getting worse, unless some miracle happens.

Society Has Programmed You To Be A Beta Buxx From A Young Age.

Well, think of yourself as a women in this situation. You fucked up by going after random thùgs who impregnated you, and they left you. What would you do? You now want to find a sucker (billy boy) with money who's naïve and desprate for some pussy, so you can manipulate him with sex, and who will take care of you. It's like getting the whole package and being "saved" even after all your fuck ups.

Women don't want to take any accountability for their actions. They will blame their exes for their own mistakes, and cry the emotional cry, and unfortunately the beta Billy's will pick up on it and feel "bad" for her. What beta billy thinks is, "She will give me the best sex because I'm so respectful to her, and value her as a woman and all that" while in her mind? She got the beta to pay the bills, while when her unreliable ex comes back, she'll fuck him in no time. Because it's only that ex which makes her pussy wet.

Underrated post.

Just think about all the times, where you have made your life decisions and choices (whether it's of your career, your clothing, your lifestyle, your thinking, views and mentality) based on what people will say about you. Just think about how much time you have wasted on all of this vs rather doing what you want to do.

Now, think about one thing. All these people's opinions that you cared so much for, if you were to die today and be put in your grave, will any of these people ponder over your death, for even a minute? I can bet you, while you have sacrificed your life away in pleasing people, majority of them will not care if you die. They will simply go on with their lives, while you? You're dead.

In the end, you come alone here and you'll die alone. If someone can deeply accept this fact, from that day onwards, they will never live for the validation of people, and will live life on their own terms. Never regret anything on your death bed. Don't care what random's think. Zoom through life in a very Machiavellian and clever way. Know what to say, when to say and always think of the long term affects of that action before you do that action. Time is flying and is just too short here. Gotta make the most of it, for yourself.

Nope. What I'm saying is, your primary focus to making money should not be solely focused on attracting women. Money you make for yourself, and to better your own life. If she's only attracted to your money, then you're attracting a gold digger.

It all comes back down to, when women choose a partner for sex, they don't care about his "status" or how much he's making. The guy who makes her tingle, will no matter slide into her panties as long as he can read her signals.

But women instinctively know, these guys aren't good for long term relationships. So this is the moment where beta billy comes into the picture to keep her financially "safe" and pay her long term bills.

Yup. Guys really think when this happens that she's "totally" his. In reality, it's all a fantasy ingrained her mind to call this to a man who she perceives as "powerful" in her eyes. But does she actually "love" him? Nope. Respect? Maybe, that's why she's letting you fuck her in the first place.

In the end, women especially in bed will "submit" bc that's in her primal nature, but "love?" Nah. Majority of women who love to get beaten, tortured, abused, they don't genuinely like the abuser, rather they like the abuse because it's done by the guy who knows what he's doing.

The best advice I ever got, was about the Lion analogy. Women have this idea ingrained in them by society and their biological instinct, that men are strong, stoic and non emotional beings. So, just imagine a Lion for a second. We have this idea ingrained in us that a Lion is the King of the jungle, and a strong animal that can kick ass. But say, this Lion was to show any weakness and "open up" what would happen? You would shit test the hell out of the Lion like it's nothing, because you now know that it was all talk, and you would think to yourself as a fool that you ever thought this Lion was so "strong."

In just matter of seconds, all this "respect" you had for the Lion as the "King of the jungle" would go down the drain, and you would now look at the same Lion as "weak." Same exact way women see men, once they open up and show any weakness. That's showing no emotion or "opening up" in front of any women is very necessary. No matter how much of a "feminist" she is, she's still a women, and her natural biology will ALWAYS be the same, no matter which way the world heads towards. Next time before you say anything, think about the Lion analogy. u/razormachine

Why Men Should Stop Complaining About Women Who Are Sluts

Tldr; Go for a low count women who isn't alpha widowed.

But you're forgetting one thing. These types of women are looking for marriage only. And to make her list, you have to first pass the "financial" list. She wants her financial/emotional security and if that's met, then she'll look for other things. So at the end of the day, it makes you no greater than your average beta buxx.

Marriage is a failed institution especially after the sexual revolution, and all these feminist movements. If men want to get married, and risk it with the divorce courts by losing everything, then go ahead. But a wise man will NOT marry in today's day and age.

But what OP is saying is, if you're looking for a LTR then look for a low count inexperienced women who hasn't been alpha widowed yet, so her expectations are less. And I agree. But if you lose "frame" are make your whole life revolve around her, and let her control your life, then don't be shocked when she ends up cheating.

The reality is, for example if you remember the sub called MGTOW (Men going their own way) more than men "bettering" themselves, the sub talked about women mainly. Very few posts there were concerned about men actually bettering themselves. Why?

Because, the reality is, no matter how much you "go your own way" female validation is the #1 thing on majority of men's mind. He "may" go his own way for awhile, but as the old saying goes, "Women? You can't live with em, and you can't live without em."

That's why after the RP rage phase, there's couple of things. Either a man realizes the "whole game" and embraces TRP truly and manipulates the rules in his favor acknowledging that it's truly AWALT, or he stays miserable, or he stays in the blue pill delusional fantasy of wishing that "My unicorn is out there somewhere!" And once men start getting women, you then realize that it's all the same.

After that, you either truly "Go your own way" because you have experienced it all, or if you haven't experienced anything, to get that whole "experience" of spinning plates, you chase that your whole life because the truth is, we need some companionship of women in our lives.

And when you factor in rent, on average being 2k or more if you have a mortgage, car payment, car insurance, health insurance, bills etc, 10k is not so much to work it. And after COVID, inflation is beyond control. You might live decently on 10k here, but you won't be able to save it. Yup. Majority of their choices whether it be of the career they choose, the car they want, or whatever, in the back of their mind it's always about "How will this attract women?" Because biologically that's how men are. Comes back to our primal instincts which is, women are naturally attracted to a man's resources, and men want to acquire status and more resources in order to attract women. But in reality, men are very simple beings. No matter how "strong, independent and free" women become in the modern age, even if they can support themselves fully and get all the materialistic things, they still need men to lead them and for a sense of direction. A woman will never genuinely f a man she doesn't respect. If she does, then it's the beta buxx set up, and the starfish sex. Lol.

But anyways, For example if a guy says, "I want a Ferrari" in reality it's "I want a Ferrari, not because I need it, rather because it's a status symbol and it will be a chick magnet!"

The only easiest passports to buy ATM is either St Lucia for 100k USD, and St Kitts and Nevis, or through Turkey's 400k invest and hold in real estate for 3 years, or get some residency in the Latin America. Malaysia's MM2H has gotten very expensive in the past years and it doesn't even guarantee you a citizenship. Thai elite visa is an option, but I don't know why any American would want to live in Thailand.

Malta is an option for the exclusively rich, which is invest like 800k USD and live around a year there, and obtain a Malta passport which is good to live in all of EU which consists of like 20 plus countries.

That's the easiest I can think of top in my mind. Anyone have any other suggestions?

Well said Vas. The reality of free speech is

Step 1: Boast about how much free speech you allow.

Step 2: Facilitate private corporations to monopolize all the major means of communication (internet, TV, radio, telecom, newspapers, etc.)

Step 3: Allow private companies to crack down on speech and heavily censor and sanction, especially speech that is contrary to their interests and by extension gov interests.

Step 4: Insist that these companies cannot be regulated by the government because "free market capitalism" or some bs.

Step 5: Profit. I have to applaud them. It was like a perfect game set up by the elite since ages. Now, it's all working in favour of them.

I do wonder what the End Game will be.

Well, before this covid clown show, we all knew there was an "end" game coming because society can only go more "clowner" to an extent before it all collapses. But what this covid tyranny has shown us is that, majority of people are willing to give up their basic freedoms away for something which has a 99.7% chance of not killing them. Covid has shown that the "end game" is just very near. So, now you're left with the establishment taking full control, and proposing more rules and regulations to take your freedoms away in the name of your "safety" and people.. I mean the clowns are falling for it. Plus now with the Russian war, things may be crashing down faster than ever. It's all part of their 2030 "Great reset" agenda where "You'll own nothing and be happy."

u/gaylubeoil was the first senior contributor to actually post it on TRP which got very few upvotes. Looks like, many "red pill" men don't want to wake up to their current NWO narrative on the sub.

So, what's the end game? Maybe a nuclear war, or even a civil war here if people are pushed to the edge. The divide is just too great now. But again, the Dems will lose big time in the mid terms, so I doubt what that will change. But the overall societal/economic collapse is inevitable and we see the warning signs in front of our eyes.

Well great for you. 10k USD a month= living the life over there, as a king indeed. Live it up. Over here, 10k USD is not so much anymore after considering inflation.

I have little tolerance for poor customer service.

That is something totally different. If there is an employee who is brain dead, and doing his minimum wage job in whatever way, they really don't care about him. He's not a threat in the sense of where he'll influence anybody. Now, if that same employee was to talk politics, or mistakenly say his views for example in the sense of "I only think there are 2 genders" or "I didn't want to get the COVID shot but they were forcing it on us and if we didn't we couldn't do anything and it's all control blah blah" if he said something like that, I can bet you he'll be fired.

You're good to them as long as you're going along and parroting the narrative they give. Once you start asking the right questions and question them, that's when they'll eliminate you. They'll put labels on you such as the comments here I received, "You're a brainwashed Muslim and a conspiracy schizo! "The government or any powerful entities behind this country, private corporations, they don't care as long you parrot the narrative. But the day you start asking the right questions publicly, that's when you'll be censored/cancelled.
